Odún Cristina Boscolo,2009-01-01 A poetic voice scans the rhythm of academic research telling of the encounter with od n then the voice falls silent What is then raised is the dust of a forgotten academic debate on the nature of theatre and drama and the following divergent standpoints of critical discourses bent on empowering their own vision and defining themselves rather as counterdiscourses This the first part of the book a metacritical discourse on the geopolitics the inherent power imbalances of academic writing and its effects on od n the performances dedicated to the gods ancestors and heroes of Yor b history But od n where is it and what is it And the voice The many critical discourses have not really answered these questions In effect od n is many things To enable the reader to see these the study proceeds with an intermezzo a frame of reference that sets od n the festival in its own historico cultural ecoenvironment identifying the strategies that inform the performance and constitute its aesthetic It is a classical yet for od n an innovative procedure This interdisciplinary background equips the reader with the knowledge necessary to watch the performance to witness its beauty and to understand the half words od n utters And now the performance can begin The voice emerges one last time to introduce the second section which presents two case studies The reader is led day by day through the celebrations od n ed Mor mi s story and its realization in performance then confrontation by the masks of the ancestors duing od n eg ng n particularly as held in Ibadan The meaning of od n becomes clearer and clearer Od n is poetry dances masks food prayer It is play er and belief gb gb It is interaction between the players both performers and spectators It is also politics and power It contains secrets and sacrifices It is a reality with its own dimension and above all as the quintessential site of knowledge it possesses the power to transform In short it is a challenge a challenge that the present book and its voices take up Public Management and Sustainable Development in Nigeria

Making of an African Giant Dan Mou, 2015-10-16 The performance of Nigeria has recently been vehemently criticized as not commensurate with her human and material potentialities The hope that Nigeria is by destiny the African Giant appears to be fading Some analysts seeing this have blamed it on the character defects of the leadership in Nigeria They argue that because the leaders are predatory and corrupt they have preoccupied themselves with their interests which are primitive accumulation and luxurious lifestyles Meanwhile the rest of the citizens are suffering This book argues that such character defects may indeed exist in some of Nigerian leaders However these are not the main reasons for their dismal performance regarding the welfare of the citizens The main problem is that Nigerian leaders seem to have largely lost control over the state and its policies which appear to have been captured by the dominant classes and groups local and international Nigerias main problem is therefore a structural one Nonetheless the book concludes as the security economic political and social crises intensify Nigerian leaders even if it is simply for self preservation will be forced by the objective conditions to move against the interests of these dominant classes and groups It is only then that Nigeria can realistically be restored to the possibility of becoming an African Giant
