Outstanding Women in Public Administration Wendy A. Haynes, 2004-05-17 This first of its kind project documents the contributions of women in public administration It contains eight research based case studies on women who have contributed to the field academics government managers and activists The women profiled are not from a random sample they were selected based on their contributions to the theory and practice of public service Each chapter relates the life and work of each subject to the broad issues faced by today's public servants The result is a book that is both instructive and inspirational and that should be read by every aspiring public service practitioner New York Magazine, 1996-04-01 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Dissenting Daughters Amanda C. Pipkin, 2022-03-03 Dissenting Daughters reveals that devout women made vital contributions to the spread and practice of the Reformed faith in the Dutch Republic in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The six women at the heart of this study Cornelia Teellinck Susanna Teellinck Anna Maria van Schurman Sara Nevius Cornelia Leydekker and Henrica van Hoolwerff were influential members of networks known for supporting a religious revival known as the Further Reformation These women earned the support and appreciation of their religious leaders friends and relatives by seizing the tools offered by domestic religious study and worship and forming alliances with prominent ministers including Willem Teellinck Gijbertus Voetius Wilhelmus Brakel and Melchior Leydekker as well as with other well connected well educated women They deployed their talents to bolster the Dutch Reformed Church from 1572 the first year its members could publicly organize to the death of this book's last surviving subject Cornelia Leydekker in 1725 In return for their adoption of religious teachings that constricted them in many ways they gained the authority to minister to their family members their female friends and a broader audience of men and women during domestic worship as well as through their written works These dissenting daughters vehemently defended their faith against Spanish and French Catholics as well as their neighbors politicians and ministers within the Dutch Republic whom they judged to be lax and overly tolerant of sinful behavior finding ways to flourish among the strictest orthodox believers within the Dutch Reformed Church American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Really New Directions in Evaluation: Young Evaluators' Perspectives Sandra Mathison,2011-10-18 From the Editor This issue of New Directions for Evaluation NDE marks a milestone the 25th anniversary of the American Evaluation Association AEA NDE is an official publication of AEA and has been a crucial means for the Association to foster and promote the professionalization of evaluation through thematic discussions of theory and practice in evaluation NDE was first published in 1978 under the name New Directions for Program Evaluation although the title became New Directions for Evaluation in 1995 in acknowledgment of the broader scope of evaluation The current issue of NDE on the 25th anniversary of AEA looks not back but ahead Because NDE is a thematic and guest edited journal it tends to favor more mature self assured voices in evaluation The journal format does not lend itself easily to showcasing the voices of novice evaluators those just entering the field and who will be the next generation of evaluation practitioners and theoreticians As such NDE has chosen on this anniversary to highlight those voices Included are a number of chapters that build on what evaluation has already learned from other disciplines by introducing us to new possibilities We are also challenged in the chapters to think about techniques or methods we use both at a practical and conceptual level Some chapters raise questions about who evaluators are how they interact with others and the roles they assume in their practice Some young evaluators are confronting in various ways conundrums in thinking about and doing evaluation within organizations either from an external or internal perspective And issues in using technology in evaluation or challenges in evaluating technology are considered
