Hinge A Boas Anthology:

Hinge, a BOAS Anthology Lauren Schiffman, 2002-01-01 In the Absent Everyday Tsering Wangmo Dhompa, 2005
Poetry Asian American Studies There is an inevitability implicit in the directness of Tsering Wangmo Dhompa's poetry that leaves the reader quite unprepared for the sudden leaps in reality it then proposes As the first Tibetan American poet to receive any substantial distribution Dhompa opens U S poetry up to new modes of possibility in almost anything she does She is a terrific one on any terms Dhompa isn't just about bringing some new strands of thread into the American literary tapestry she sets out to reweave the whole thing We all stand to be far richer for that But we'll have to pay attention Ron Silliman Aufgabe, 2004 Fourteen Hills, 2003 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 The Invisible Ladder Liz Rosenberg, 1996-10-15 Features such poets as Robert Bly Allen Ginsberg Nikki Giovanni and Galway Kinnell by including photos selections of their work and comments on their poetry Broken Hallelujahs Sean Thomas Dougherty, 2007 Poetic rhythms and references from hip hop to high academy opera to MCing breakdancing to ballet Trouillot Remixed Michel-Rolph Trouillot, 2021-09-27 This collection of writings from Haitian anthropologist Michel Rolph Trouillot includes his most famous lesser known and hard to find writings that demonstrate his enduring importance to Caribbean studies anthropology history postcolonial studies and politically engaged scholarship more broadly Sound-Blind Alex Benson, 2023-11-06 In the 1880s a new medical term flashed briefly into public awareness in the United States Children who had trouble distinguishing between similar speech sounds were said to suffer from sound blindness The term is now best remembered through anthropologist Franz Boas whose work deeply influenced the way we talk about cultural difference In this fascinating work of literary and cultural history Alex Benson takes the concept as an opening onto other stories of listening writing and power stories that expand our sense of how a syllable a word a gesture or a song can be put into print and why it matters Benson interweaves ethnographies memoirs local color stories modernist novels silent film scripts and more Taken together these seemingly disparate texts by writers including John M Oskison Helen Keller W E B Du Bois F Scott Fitzgerald and Elsie Clews Parsons show that the act of transcription never neutral is conditioned by the histories of race land and ability By carefully tracing these conditions Benson argues we can tease out much that has been left off the record in narratives of American nationhood and American literature The Library Journal Book Review, 1977 Poetry Project, 2002 Catalogue Philip Martin Music Books, 1985 Book Prices Edward N.
