Last Transfiguration:

New Proclamation Commentary on Feasts, Holy Days, and Other Celebrations Bill Doggett, Gordon W. Lathrop, 2007 New Proclamation Commentary on Feasts Holy Days and Other Celebrations continues the tradition of excellent biblical commentary that users of the seasonal New Proclamation volumes have come to expect This volume offers essential historical background about each of thirty five so called lesser feasts and places each day into the context of the church year Quotes related to the festival day from prayers liturgies and other sources have been included to help enliven the sermon and enhance worship along with other guidance for preaching Commentary and recommended texts for ten national days and nonliturgical celebrations are also included Patristic Perspectives on Luke's Transfiguration Peter Anthony, 2022-03-24 Peter Anthony explores how visionary elements in Luke's Gospel had a particular influence on early interpretation of the Transfiguration by examining the rich hermeneutical traditions that emerged particularly in the Latin West as the Transfiguration was first depicted visually in art Anthony begins by comparing the visual and visionary culture of antiquity with that of the present and their differing interpretations of the Transfiguration He then examines the Transfiguration texts in the synoptic gospels and their interpretation in modern scholarship and the reception of the Transfiguration in 2 Peter the Apocalypse of Peter and the Acts of Peter Tertullian and Origen Proceeding to look at interpretations found in the Greek East and the Latin West Anthony finally discusses the earliest visual depictions of the Transfiguration from the sixth century onward drawn from a wealth of different art forms Anthony concludes that early commentators and artists understanding of how we see and visualise and therefore how the Transfiguration was apprehended is closer to that of the writers of the New Testament than many modern interpreters is Select Notes Mary Abby Thaxter Peloubet, 1899 Programmes Philadelphia Orchestra, 1923 Select Notes Francis Nathan Peloubet, 1903 Masters in Art: Italian school. Raphael through Verrocchio. Venetian school, 1905 Raphael Sanzio, 1900 Masters in Art, 1900 Each number is devoted to one artist and includes bibliography of the artist Hell in the Byzantine World Angeliki Lymberopoulou, 2020-09-17 The imagery of Hell the Christian account of the permanent destinations of the human soul after death has fascinated people over the centuries since the emergence of the Christian faith These landmark volumes provide the first large scale investigation of this imagery found across the Byzantine and post Byzantine world Particular emphasis is placed on images from churches across Venetian Crete which are comprehensively collected and published for the first time Crete was at the centre of artistic production in the late Byzantine world and beyond and its imagery was highly influential on traditions in other regions The Cretan examples accompany rich comparative material from the wider Mediterranean Cappadocia Macedonia the Peloponnese and Cyprus The large amount of data presented in this publication highlight Hell's emergence in monumental painting not as a concrete array of images but as a diversified mirroring of social perceptions of sin Programme Boston Symphony Orchestra, 1909 Works

Cousar, 1995-01-01 Based on the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible this third in a series of three volumes provides resources for an entire year of sermons and offers practical help for preachers and others who use the Revised Common Lectionary Beginning with Advent this unique and comprehensive resource deals with lectionary texts for Year A Each of the four texts the Old Testament Psalter Gospel and Epistle for each Sunday and important festival day including Christmas Ash Wednesday and Good Friday is treated A brief introduction for the day indicates the general thrust of the texts and the relationships among them emphasizing the interpretation of the texts themselves Also included are suggestions concerning the implications of the texts for life today The Kierkegaardian Author Joseph Westfall, 2009-02-26 This study engages in a detailed examination of Kierkegaard's works of literary and dramatic criticism including those works directed at interpreting Kierkegaard's own authorship with a specific concern for both what Kierkegaard and Kierkegaard's anonyms and pseudonyms write about the nature and practice of authorship as well as how the Kierkegaardian authors practice authorship themselves Moving through five chapters each devoted to one or more works of Kierkegaard's criticism the study develops a new approach to reading Kierkegaard a new Kierkegaardian hermeneutic that begins always with the character of the author This new approach avoids the challenges of critics of biographical criticism such as Roland Barthes Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida by positing the author always as a work of fiction him or herself the creation of an unknown and ever anonymous author of the author Ave Maria, 1882 The Lectionary Commentary: Theological Exegesis for Sunday's Texts, The Second Readings: Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-09-09 Preaching pastors ministers and priests know how quickly Sundays come and go The Lectionary Commentary will not slow the pace of the weekly calendar but it will help assure that sermon preparation begins with a solid engagement with Scripture Designed to jump start the difficult task of sermon preparation this indispensable three volume work gathers exegetical essays on biblical texts from the Revised Common Lectionary Covering every Sunday of the three year liturgical cycle as well as Christmas Day Epiphany and Ascension Day the readings are arranged in canonical order so as to be of use to all preachers Seventy eight pastors priests and teachers from a variety of Christian traditions have contributed their insights to The Lectionary Commentary Designed to answer the question What does the preacher need to know about this text in order to preach a faithful sermon from it each of their essays closely considers its specific biblical text all the while remaining alert to the contemporary context in which the sermon will be spoken and heard The result is an invaluable resource that will aid in the difficult task of facilitating a meaningful encounter between Holy Scripture and our modern world This volume The Second Readings Acts and the Epistles provides exegetical commentary on the lectionary readings for the final selections from Act and for all of the New Testament Epistles from Romans to Revelation Also unique to this volume is an excellent essay by Colin E Gunton on preaching from the Letters Consulting Editors Richard A Burrige
