Communication W. Lambert Gardiner, 2008-12 This book is designed to capture the complexity of the vast domain of the psychology of communication by adding overlays of different logical approaches to the topic Each chapter will focus on a different approach Chapters 2 behavioristic approach 3 humanistic approach and 4 interactionist approach are presented as thesis antithesis and synthesis They focus respectively on input stored and feedback information Chapters 5 phylogenetic approach and 6 ontogenetic approach place psychology firmly where it belongs as the study of organisms rather than of mechanisms Development from animal to human and from child to adult is emancipation from tyranny of environment Chapter 7 pathological approach explores functional disorders of person in environment since the nervous system knows its environment Chapter 8 phenomenological approach deals with the further complexity that the nervous system can be viewed from the inside experience as well as from the outside behavior Chapters 9 simulation approach and 10 mediational approach focus on artificial intelligence AI and intelligence amplification IA Computers can be used to emulate or to extend human intelligence Chapters 11 biological approach and 12 sociological approach deal with the complexities arising from the fact that the nervous system is embedded in a hierarchy of systems within systems They focus on emergence from the level below psychology biology and reduction from the level above sociology Each approach will cast some light on the topic from its peculiar perspective The cumulative effect will be to illuminate the domain in all its complexity International Journal of McLuhan Studies 2012-13 Matteo Ciascellardi (ed.), 2014-09-01 Education Overload From Total Surround to Pattern

Radiohead and the Global Movement for Change Phil Rose,2015-12-03 Even prior to the field s invention Susanne Langer implied that the arts are all subtopics of Communication Studies This unique project has effectively allowed the author to combine his backgrounds in the interdisciplinary fields of popular music studies cultural theory communication studies and the practice of music criticism This book investigates the fascinating and important work of the British group Radiohead named by Time Magazine among its Top 100 Most Influential People of 2008 and focuses particularly on their landmark recording OK Computer 1997 a document preserved as part of the Library of Congress National Recording Registry in 2015 Probing the band's exploration of the crucial issues surrounding contemporary technological development especially as it relates to the concern of human survival. Radiohead and the Global Movement for Change is essentially a work of criticism that in its analysis combines what is known as musical hermeneutics with the media ecology perspective. In this way the author delineates how Radiohead's work operates as a clarion call that directs our attention to the troubling complex of cultural conditions that Neil Postman (1992) identifies as Technopoly or the surrender of culture to technology, a phenomenon that must become more broadly recognized and comprehended in order for it to be successfully confronted. This book's distinguishing features include 1 its edifying analysis of a richly profound and celebrated musical text, 2 its extended focus upon what Martin Heidegger famously refers to as the question concerning technology, 3 its use of the media ecology scholarly tradition at whose core lies communication study, and 4 its innovative and unique deployment of the affect script theory of American personality theorist Silvan Tomkins in the study of musical communication.

Artificial intelligence and low-carbon economy are two vibrant research fields in the world today. To achieve the goal of carbon neutrality not only signifies a significant transformation in the economic growth mode and a profound adjustment of energy systems but also has equally significant implications for the global economic and social transformation. In the wave of the rapid development of digital economy, artificial intelligence has become an important driving force for promoting high quality economic and social development. In the path to the Dual Carbon goals, which are the Peak Carbon Dioxide Emissions goal and the Carbon Neutrality goal, artificial intelligence will play an important role, especially in energy conservation and carbon reduction in the electrical field, which is worthy of in-depth exploration and research. In order to promote the deep integration of the electrical engineering and artificial intelligence, successfully achieve the dual carbon goals and promote green low carbon and high quality development, the China Electrotechnical Society and relevant units jointly held the 1st Electrical Artificial Intelligence Conference in Nanjing, China, during the December 6-8, 2024. The conference invited well-known experts with significant influence in the fields of electrical engineering and artificial intelligence to jointly explore the application of artificial intelligence in the optimization design, fault diagnosis, intelligent control, and optimized operation of electrical equipment, promote the integration of artificial intelligence innovations and various application scenarios, and actively lead the trend of technological innovation.
