House In Good Taste:

The House in Good Taste Elsie De Wolfe, 1916      The House in Good Taste Elsie De Wolfe, 1915 Considered the founder of interior design as a profession Elsie de Wolfe also known as Lady Mendl authored this notable text detailing her strategies for decorating a home De Wolfe's clientele included celebrities such as Anne Vanderbilt the Duke and Duchess of Windsor and more Amongst other publications this book discusses general interior designing principles alongside the interiors of famous homes such as the Washington Irving House      The House in Good Taste Elsie de Wolfe, 2017-10-23 The first lady of American interior design defines her methods and philosophy in this timeless volume Practical approaches illuminate the attitudes of a century ago while retaining their resonance for modern day designers      The House in Good Taste Elsie De Wolfe, 2017-06-06 I THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE MODERN HOUSE I know of nothing more significant than the awakening of men and women throughout our country to the desire to improve their houses Call it what you will awakening development American Renaissance it is a most startling and promising condition of affairs It is no longer possible even to people of only faintly aesthetic tastes to buy chairs merely to sit upon or a clock merely that it should tell the time Home makers are determined to have their houses outside and in correct according to the best standards What do we mean by the best standards Certainly not those of the useless overcharged house of the average American millionaire who builds and furnishes his home with a hopeless disregard of tradition We must accept the standards that the artists and the architects accept the standards that have come to us from those exceedingly rational people our ancestors Our ancestors built for stability and use and so their simple houses were excellent examples of architecture Their spacious uncrowded interiors were usually beautiful Houses and furniture fulfilled their uses and if an object fulfils its mission the chances are that it is beautiful It is all very well to plan our ideal house or apartment our individual castle in Spain but it isn't necessary to live among intolerable furnishings just because we cannot realize our castle There never was a house so bad that it couldn't be made over into something worth while We shall all be very much happier when we learn to transform the things we have into a semblance of our ideal How then may we go about accomplishing our ideal By letting it go By forgetting this vaguely pleasing dream this evidence of our smug vanity and making ourselves ready for a new ideal By considering the body of material from which it is good sense to choose when we have a house to decorate By studying the development of the modern house its romantic tradition and architectural history By taking upon ourselves the duty of self taught lessons of sincerity and common sense and suitability By learning what is meant by color and form and line harmony and contrast and proportion When we are on familiar terms with our tools and feel our vague ideas clearing into definite inspiration then we are ready to talk about ideals We are fit to approach the full art of home making We take it for granted that every woman is interested in houses that she either has a house in course of construction or dreams of having one or has had a house long enough wrong to wish it right And we take it for granted that this American home is always the woman's home a man may build and decorate a beautiful house but it remains for a woman to make a home of it for him It is the personality of the mistress that the home expresses Men are forever guests in our homes no matter how much happiness they may find there You will express yourself in your house whether you want to or not so you must make up your mind to a long preparatory discipline
