Houses Around The World:

Wonderful Houses Around the World Yoshio Komatsu, 2004 Fascinating and unique Wonderful Houses Around the World gives children a welcome entrance into other places and other lives throughout the world Glorious two page photographic spreads capture families outside their homes be they simple or imposing Detailed cutaway illustrations reveal the inside of each house showing the various family members engaged in typical daily activities Captions explain where each house is located the environmental conditions that affect the house design how the family lives in the home and their possessions all providing interesting glimpses of life in other cultures The ten houses profiled include a red mud dwelling with thatched towers in Togo a yurt in Mongolia a steep roofed shake covered house in Transylvania and a large donut shaped communal building for 300 in China This book increases children's wonder about and cultural awareness of the many different people and ways of life around the world

Haunted Houses Around the World Joan Axelrod-Contrada, 2017-01-01 Visit some of the spookiest houses around the world Prepare to be scared as you visit haunted mansions and ghostly residence Houses Around the World Judy Nayer, 2000

House Spiders - Worldwide Wolfgang Nentwig, Jutta Ansorg, Paula E. Cushing, Yvonne Kranz-Baltensperger, Christian Kropf, 2025-01-03 To avoid any misunderstandings this book is not about spiders as pets but about those spiders that live in our houses and apartments as lodgers Mostly ignored and sometimes wrongly feared there is hardly a building in the world that does not harbour some species of spider What is fascinating is that we always find the same species These spiders must have special adaptations because the humidity in our homes is far too low they are too clean and the food supply is usually scarce However those spiders that have made the leap into our four walls are rewarded with a worldwide right to stay This in turn is due to people's eagerness to trade and migrate worldwide Humans tirelessly transport their belongings and an endless stream of goods around the world in sacks parcels and containers And our domestic spiders as stowaways travel just as tirelessly and unrecognized It is therefore possible to present domestic spiders found throughout the world in a single book as they are essentially the same everywhere The 50 or so most important species and species groups are presented here in a generally understandable way with a detailed profile photos and distribution maps The authors of this book are experts who work at museums universities and in administration in Europe and North America They are not only recognized scientists but have also been avowed spider fans for decades

Houses and Homes Around the World Josephine Karavasil, 1986 Brief text and photographs introduce the many different types of homes of people around the world Houses Marcia Fries, 1996-08 Repetitive predictable story lines and illustrations that match the text provide maximum support to the emergent reader Engaging stories promote reading comprehension and easy and fun activities on the inside back covers extend learning Great for Reading First Fluency Vocabulary Text Comprehension and ESL ELL Homes Like Mine Marie-Therese Miller, 2022-01-01 Audisee eBooks with Audio combine professional narration and sentence highlighting for an engaging read aloud experience There are many different kinds of homes to suit many different kinds of families Discover types of homes like apartments single family homes mobile homes and more and learn how they are the perfect fit for the people who live in them , The Giant Encyclopedia of Kindergarten Activities Kathy Charner, Maureen Murphy, Jennifer Ford, 2004 Presents more than six hundred kindergarten activities and practical teaching tips covering art literacy math science and nature social development and fine and gross motor skills and such facets of the day as the morning greeting circle time rest or nap time and outdoor play House Life Donna Birdwell-Pheasant, Denise Lawrence-Züniga, 2020-06-04 This book which fills a gap on the materiality of lived relations examines households within the context of their immediate physical surroundings of home and shows how human interactions are reflected in built forms Houses are dynamic participants in family life in many ways They often pre date the origins and outlast the life spans of their inhabitants but they can exert a powerful influence on the organization of behaviors and the values of family members as well as on the forms and flows of family life across the generations Constituting wealth investment security and inheritance they are an objective in and of themselves in many domestic strategies Drawing on developments within anthropology archaeology architecture and social history the authors demonstrate through detailed case studies how household or family relations can usefully be mined to re situate social theory in both space and time Space boundaries family cycles historic changes migration patterns ethnicity memory and gender are all interrogated for the light they shed on how people interact with the physical world around them and what this means culturally and symbolically Europe is an especially rich focus for this kind of analysis because it is distinguished by its long well documented history and a recent period of intense change Homes Around the World Moore, Davis, 1996-04-01 Shows a variety of homes constructed in different countries and how they are related to the geography economy and culture of each area Migration, Settlement, and the Concepts of House and Home Iris Levin, 2015-11-19 How do migrants feel at home in their houses Literature on the migrant house and its role in the migrant experience of home building is inadequate This book offers a theoretical framework based on the notion of home building and the concepts of home and house embedded within it It presents innovative research on four groups of migrants who have settled in two metropolitan cities in two periods migrants from Italy migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from mainland China migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Melbourne Australia and migrants from Morocco migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from the former Soviet Union migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Tel Aviv Israel The analysis draws on qualitative data gathered from forty six in depth interviews with migrants in their home environments including extensive visual data Levin argues that the physical form of the house is meaningful in a range of diverse ways during the process of home building and that each migrant group constructs a distinct form of home building in their homes houses according to their specific circumstances of migration namely the origin country country of destination and period of migration as well as the historical economic and social contexts around migration Moving People Louise Spilsbury, 2006 It might be hard for most of us to imagine but the first people on Earth did not have a place to call home They followed herds of animals that they hunted for meat and fur They ate fruit and leaves that they gathered along the way They lived in temporary shelters such as caves and never stayed in one place for long Read this title to find out more about where people live in the world and why some people move from one place to another

Houses for a New World Barbara Miller Lane, 2022-07-12 The fascinating history of the twentieth century's most successful experiment in mass housing While the work of Frank Lloyd Wright Richard Neutra and their contemporaries frequently influences our ideas about house design at the midcentury most Americans during this period lived in homes built by little known builders who also served as developers of the communities Often dismissed as little boxes made of ticky tacky the tract houses of America's postwar suburbs represent the twentieth century's most successful experiment in mass housing Houses for a New World is the first comprehensive history of this uniquely American form of domestic architecture and urbanism Between 1945 and 1965 more than thirteen million houses most of them in new ranch and split level styles were constructed on large expanses of land outside city centers providing homes for the country's rapidly expanding population Focusing on twelve developments in the suburbs of Boston Philadelphia Chicago and Los Angeles Barbara Miller Lane tells the story of the collaborations between builders and buyers showing how both wanted houses and communities that espoused a modern way of life informal democratic multiethnic and devoted to improving the lives of their children The resulting houses differed dramatically from both the European International Style and older forms of American domestic architecture Based on a decade of original research and accompanied by hundreds of historical images plans and maps this book presents an entirely new interpretation of the American suburb The result is a fascinating history of houses and developments that continue to shape how tens of millions of Americans live Featured housing developments in Houses for a New World Boston area Governor Francis Farms Warwick RI Wethersfield Natick MA Brookfield Brockton MA Chicago area Greenview Estates Arlington Heights IL Elk Grove Village Rolling Meadows Weathersfield at Schaumburg Los Angeles and Orange County area Cinderella Homes Anaheim CA Panorama City Los Angeles Rossmore Los Alamitos CA Philadelphia area Lawrence Park Broomall PA Rose Tree Woods Broomall PA

Homes at Work María Carrizosa, 2023-05-22 Following the outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic working from home became a global phenomenon yet before 2020 it was a relatively understudied practice But in informal settlements the definition of home and employment is completely intertwined which is why there is so much to learn from them For over half a century mainstream theoretical approaches to urban informality dominated by development economics often fail to see this economic and spatial phenomenon jointly Labor studies tend to be space blind and spatial studies often disregard informal employment Profoundly interdisciplinary this work connects scholarship in development public policy labor studies and feminist economics with that in urban studies planning housing architecture and visual studies The book walks the reader behind the closed doors of working homes that make the fabric both social and economic of most cities It applies a visual methodology to reveal their space use intensity and quantify the extent to which houses in informal settlements fill their inner pores with economic activity and community services The research also revisits urban formalization policies in Latin America and Africa to uncover a fallacious politics of recognition It ultimately argues for a recognition continuum an approach to urban informality that is more practical and fairer The book is of interest to development economists urban scholars public policy specialists time use researchers and architects working on housing employment generation urban livelihoods gender studies and related topics
