Housing Lark:

The Housing Lark Sam Selvon, 2020-01-14 The humorous yet poignant novel of West Indian migrant life in London that adds an iconic voice to the growing Caribbean canon A Penguin Classic Set in London in the 1960s when the UK encouraged its Commonwealth citizens to emigrate as a result of the post war labor shortage The Housing Lark explores the Caribbean migrant experience in the Mother Country by following a group of friends as they attempt to buy a home together Despite encountering a racist and predatory rental market the friends scheme often comically to find a literal and figurative place of their own Will these motley folks male and female Black and Indian from Trinidad and Jamaica dreamers hustlers and artists be able to achieve this milestone of upward mobility Unique and wonderful comic and serious cynical and tenderhearted The Housing Lark poses the question of whether their lark or quixotic idea of finding a home can ever become a reality Kittitian British novelist and playwright Caryl Phillips contributes a foreword while postcolonial literature scholar Dohra Ahmad provides a contextual introduction Housing Great Britain. Housing, 1919 More Than Shelter Amy L. Howard, 2014-05-01 In the popular imagination public housing tenants are considered at best victims of intractable poverty and at worst criminals More Than Shelter makes clear that such limited perspectives do not capture the rich reality of tenants active engagement in shaping public housing into communities By looking closely at three public housing projects in San Francisco Amy L Howard brings to light the dramatic measures tenants have taken to create and sustain and strengthen communities that mattered to them More Than Shelter opens with the tumultuous institutional history of the San Francisco Housing Authority from its inception during the New Deal era through its repeated leadership failures to its attempts to boost its credibility in the 1990s Howard then turns to Valencia Gardens in the Mission District built in 1943 the project became a perpetually contested and embattled space Within that space tenants came together in what Howard calls affective activism activism focused on intentional relationships and community building that served to fortify residents in the face of shared challenges Such activism also fueled cross sector coalition building at Ping Yuen in Chinatown bringing tenants and organizations together to advocate for and improve public housing The account of their experience breaks new ground in highlighting the diversity of public housing in more ways than one The experience of North Beach Place in turn raises questions about the politics of development and redevelopment in this case Howard examines activism across generations first by African Americans seeking to desegregate public housing then by cross racial and cross ethnic tenant groups mobilizing to maintain public housing in the shadow of gentrification Taken together the stories Howard tells challenge assumptions about public housing and its tenants and make way for a broader more productive and inclusive vision of the public housing program in the United States

The Promise of Welfare in the Postwar British and Anglophone Novel Kelly M. Rich, 2023-07-13 The Promise of Welfare in the Postwar British Novel offers a new literary history of the Second World War and its aftermath by focusing on wartime visions of rebuilding Britain Shifting attention from the People s War to the People s Peace this book shows that literature returns to the historic transition from warfare to welfare to narrate its transformative social potential and darker failures The welfare state envisioned that managing individuals private lives would result in a more coherent and equitable community a promise encapsulated in the 1942 Beveridge Report s promise of care from the cradle to the grave The postwar novel reveals the intimate effects that follow when infrastructures of collective living seek to organize social interaction tracing these effects through quasi administrated home spaces such as girls hostels makeshift sanatoria and experimental schools Mid century writers including Elizabeth Bowen Muriel Spark and Samuel Selvon used the militarized Home Front to present postwar Britain as a zone of lost privacy and new collective logics As the century progressed and as the unrealized dreams of welfare came to be dismantled authors including Alan Hollinghurst Michael Ondaatje and Kazuo Ishiguro registered an unfulfilled nostalgia for a Britain that never was situating British domestic policies within trajectories of historic and social violence Contemporary fiction continues to reanimate the transition from a warfare state to a welfare state preserving its transformative potential while redefining its possible futures With this long view of postwar fiction this volume demonstrates the holding power of welfare s promises of repair and Britain s mid century on the British cultural imagination

Black Agents Provocateurs: 250 Years of Black British Writing, History and the Law, 1770-2020 Helen Thomas, 2020-10-01 Black Agents Provocateurs 250 Years of Black British Writing History and the Law 1770 2020 is a comprehensive analysis the invaluable contributions that black writers in Britain have made to British society over the last 250 years This book closely examines the lives trials and works of British slaves in the eighteenth century black authors historians and medics in the nineteenth century and black poets playwrights novelists and intellectuals in the twentieth and twenty first centuries It also highlights their contributions to legal changes such as the Abolition of Slavery Act 1833 the Criminal Appeal Act 1907 and the Race Relations Act 1965 as well as the adverse effects that laws such as the Criminal Evidence Act 1984 the Asylum and Immigration Acts 1996 and the Coronavirus Act 2020 have had upon black lives in Britain

London in the Twentieth Century Jerry White,2009-11-10 Jerry White's London in the Twentieth Century Winner of the Wolfson Prize is a masterful account of the city's most tumultuous century by its leading expert In 1901 no other city matched London in size wealth and grandeur Yet it was also a city where poverty and disease were rife For its inhabitants such contradictions and diversity were the defining experience of the next century of dazzling change In the worlds of work and popular culture politics and crime through war immigration and sexual revolution Jerry White's richly detailed and captivating history shows how the city shaped their lives and how it in turn was shaped by them The Novels of Samuel Selvon Roydon Salick,2001-04-30 The author of such works as A Brighter Sun 1952 The Lonely Londoners 1956 and The Plains of Caroni 1970 West Indian novelist Samuel Selvon is attracting growing amounts of scholarly attention Nonetheless criticism of his works has largely been imbalanced with most scholarship focusing primarily on his language This book corrects that imbalance by placing Selvon's novels within historical sociological and ideological contexts A new interpretation of Selvon's achievement as a novelist the volume looks for the first time at his works in terms of categories of novels peasant middle class and immigrant The book demonstrates that each category is different from the others and that novels within categories are similar Thus it provides a coherent vision of Selvon's canon It illustrates as well the development of Selvon's philosophy of West Indians as peasant bourgeois and immigrant In doing so it explores the significance of ethnicity in his works and discusses Selvon's imaginative apotheosis of the Indo Trinidadian peasant and the diminution of the Afro Trinidadian immigrant The volume also studies Selvon's fictional and rhetorical techniques and argues that his works range from Bildungsroman to picaresque to epic to satire The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi,2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others

Postcolonial London John McLeod, 2004-08-02 London's histories of migration and settlement and the resulting diverse hybrid communities have engendered new forms of social and cultural activity reflected in a wealth of novels poems films and songs Postcolonial London explores the imaginative transformation of the city by African Asian Caribbean and South Pacific writers since the 1950s John McLeod engages freshly with the work of both well known and emergent writers including Sam Selvon Doris Lessing V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Colin MacInnes Bernardine Evaristo Linton Kwesi Johnson and Fred D Aguiar In reading a select body of writing in its social contexts and exploring contrasting attitudes to London's diasporic transformation he traces an exciting history of resistance to the prejudice and racism that have at least in part characterised the postcolonial city Rewritings of London he argues bear witness to the determination imagination and creativity of the city's migrants and their descendants This is a superb study of the ways in which imperial centre might be rewritten as postcolonial metropolis It represents essential reading for those interested in British or postcolonial literature or in theorisations of the city and metropolitan culture

Sam Selvon's Dialectal Style and Fictional Strategy Clement H. Wyke, 2011-11-01 Sam Selvon a contemporary writer of major importance is well known to British and Caribbean readers but his work including ten novels has not attained the prominence it deserves internationally This study is a literary analysis of Selvon's use of Trinidad Creole English as an important component of his style and method of fictional composition Wyke follows the development of Selvon's writing from his early to his late career starting with his first novel A Brighter Sun 1952 continuing with The Lonely Londoners 1956 and the short stories Ways of Sunlight 1957 and devoting a large part of the book to Selvon's middle and later years focusing on such novels as I Hear Thunder 1963 The Housing Lark 1965 and Those Who Eat the Cascadura 1972 He finishes with the last two works of Selvon's trilogy Moses Ascending 1975 and Moses Migrating 1983 The book reveals Selvon as a serious pioneer in the use of dialect in narration instead of mainly in the dialogue of novels and other fiction writing Wyke's concise and penetrating analysis of individual novels and short stories including the lyrical story My Girl and the City and his demonstration of features of Trinidad Creole English as a versatile tool in the hands of a novelist will appeal to literary critics as well as to those who are interested in the relationship between linguistics and literary criticism Selvon's work often combines an interesting and humorous yet serious portrayal of the Commonwealth experience which will sound familiar to Caribbean English and Canadian audiences This book will introduce new readers to his oeuvre and will be particularly appealing to those examining the connection between the Caribbean Canada and Britain places where Selvon has lived and from where he draws the rich material he uses to create his art      Black Success Tony Sewell,2024-03-14 How did the Windrush generation become so prosperous Why are Nigerians achieving so highly in the education system Why does Hollywood rush to cast Black British actors And why are so many Jamaicans winning Olympic gold And what lessons are there from these success stories for young black people in low income communities In this truthful and often surprising book Tony Sewell weaves together memoir and argument to explore the drivers of black success He traces black people s hard won achievements back to their source family religion education hard work discipline and the property market He argues in favour of rejecting victimhood and low expectations and embracing high ambitions drawing on a range of interviews and stories to offer a more exciting sometimes visionary new view of black life in Britain today Black Success is essential reading not only for black Britons who are fed up with a narrative that denies them agency and responsibility but also for anyone who wants a balanced perspective on race relations in Britain today      A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English Harry Blamires,2021-06-23

First published in 1983 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is a detailed and comprehensive guide containing over 500 entries on individual writers from countries including Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean India Ireland New Zealand Pakistan Sri Lanka and the UK The book contains substantial articles relating to major novelists poets and dramatists of the age as well as a wealth of information on the work of lesser known writers and the part they have played in cultural history It focuses in detail on the character and quality of the literature itself highlighting what is distinctive in the work of the writers being discussed and providing key biographical and contextual details A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is ideal for those with an interest in the twentieth century literary scene and the history of literature more broadly      England Through Colonial Eyes in Twentieth-Century Fiction A. Blake,L. Gandhi,S.

Thomas,2015-12-27 Much attention has focused on the imperial gaze at colonised peoples cultures and lands But during and after the British Empire what have writers from those cultures made of England the English and issues of race gender class ethnicity and desire when they have travelled expatriated or emigrated to England This question is addressed through studies of the domestic novel and the Bildungsroman and through essays on Mansfield Rhys Stead Emecheta Lessing Naipaul Emecheta Rushdie and Dabydeen      Against Landlords Nick Bano,2025-04-15 The controversial case for why building more housing will not solve the housing problem Against Landlords overturns the stale assumptions and YIMBY delusions as to why housing in the UK is so poor and why rent is so high Bano lays the blame squarely at the feet of landlordism which boosts house prices and makes tenancy unaffordable Furthermore building more housing is not the solution It is firstly a problem of the law and legal reforms must sweep away the rot at the heart of the housing crisis and British political life

Caribbean Literature in Transition, 1920-1970: Volume 2 Raphael Dalleo,Curdella Forbes,2021-01-14 The years between the 1920s and 1970s are key for the development of Caribbean literature producing the founding canonical literary texts of the Anglophone Caribbean This volume features essays by major scholars as well as emerging voices revisiting important
