Dividing Paris Esther da Costa Meyer, 2022-02-15 A groundbreaking work of scholarship that sheds critical new light on the urban renewal of Paris under Napoleon III In the mid nineteenth century Napoleon III and his prefect Georges Eug ne Haussmann adapted Paris to the requirements of industrial capitalism endowing the old city with elegant boulevards an enhanced water supply modern sewers and public greenery Esther da Costa Meyer provides a major reassessment of this ambitious project which resulted in widespread destruction in the historic center displacing thousands of poor residents and polarizing the urban fabric Drawing on newspapers memoirs and other archival materials da Costa Meyer explores how people from different social strata both women and men experienced the urban reforms implemented by the Second Empire As hundreds of tenements were destroyed to make way for upscale apartment buildings thousands of impoverished residents were forced to the periphery which lacked the services enjoyed by wealthier parts of the city Challenging the idea of Paris as the capital of modernity da Costa Meyer shows how the city was the hub of a sprawling colonial empire extending from the Caribbean to Asia and exposes the underlying violence that enriched it at the expense of overseas territories This marvelously illustrated book brings to light the contributions of those who actually built and maintained the impressive infrastructure of Paris and reveals the consequences of colonial practices for the city s cultural economic and political life

Public Parks, Private Gardens Colta Ives, 2018-03-05 The spectacular transformation of Paris during the 19th century into a city of tree lined boulevards and public parks both redesigned the capital and inspired the era's great Impressionist artists. The renewed landscape gave crowded displaced urban dwellers green spaces to enjoy while suburbanites and country dwellers began cultivating their own flower gardens. As public engagement with gardening grew, artists increasingly featured flowers and parks in their work. Public Parks Private Gardens includes masterworks by artists such as Bonnard, Cassatt, Cézanne, Corot, Daumier, Van Gogh, Manet, Matisse, Monet, and Seurat. Many of these artists were themselves avid gardeners and they painted parks and gardens as the distinctive scenery of contemporary life. Writing from the perspective of both a distinguished art historian and a trained landscape designer, Colta Ives provides new insights not only into these essential works but also into this extraordinarily creative period in France's history. Le Promeneur dans Bruxelles. The Stranger's Guide through Brussels and its environs, etc. By A. X. Mauvy, 1835. Walking and the French Romantics Christopher W. Thompson, 2003. Walking and the French Romantics explores for the first time the relationship between walking and Romanticism in France. It maps this relationship as theme and practice, no social history of pedestrian tours in nineteenth century France having been written. In this connection, the legacy of Rousseau and Senancour proves stronger than has been recognized in spite of the pull of Paris and its legendary urban flâneurs. The author brings out the role of painters and of figures like Nodier, Didier, and Dumas in encouraging writers to go or imagine themselves on the road and shows how and why pedestrian touring became popular with authors in the late 1830s. He discusses the impact of this fashion on major Romantic writers such as Nerval, Sand, and Hugo. Finally, he describes how walking lost its particular cultural connection with Romanticism in the 1840s. Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1979. Subject Catalog, 1977. Timely and original, this collection of essays from the leading figures in their fields throws new and valuable light on the significance and future of flânerie. The flâneur is usually identified as the man of the crowd of Edgar Allan Poe and Charles Baudelaire and as one of the heroes of Walter Benjamin's Arcades Project. The flâneur's activities of strolling and loitering are mentioned increasingly frequently in sociology, cultural studies, and art history, but rarely is the debate developed further. The Flâneur is the first book to develop the debate beyond Baudelaire and Benjamin and to push it in unexpected and exciting directions. Livres hebdo, 1991. From Music to Sound Makis Solomos, 2019-10-28. From Music to Sound is an examination of the six musical histories whose convergence produces the emergence of sound, offering a plural, original history of new music and showing how music had begun a change of paradigm, moving from a culture
