House Far From Home:

Houses Far From Home Margaret Rodman Critchlow, 2001-03-01 The houses far from home featured in this book are located in Vanuatu a chain of islands between Fiji and Australia in the southwest Pacific Once known as the Anglo French Condominium of the New Hebrides the islands were jointly administered by the British and French from 1906 to 1980 In this innovative and revealing study of a unique colonial project Margaret Rodman tells the stories of these houses exploring the profound differences of perspective experience and power that domestic spaces reveal and offering a novel look at the history of British colonialism in the Pacific Each chapter has at its heart a house where readers can explore dimensions of race gender and power that domestic spaces reveal Moving across time between different islands and actors between oral memories and archival documents Margaret Rodman provides a richly documented multi sited ethnography of the social history of the New Hebrides

In a Village Far from Home Catherine Palmer Finerty, 2000 What do most career women do after a successful run on Madison Avenue Catherine Finerty watched her friends settle into the country club life She opted instead for Mexico When the 60 year old widow loaded up her car and headed south what she found at the end of the road was far from what she expected Finerty settled into a comfortable house just outside of Guadalajara and although not a Catholic she soon immersed herself in Franciscan volunteer work It wasn't long before she found herself visiting small settlements hidden in the tropical mountains of western Mexico and it was in Jes s Mar a so isolated that one could only get there by mule or small plane that she found her new calling the village nurse With its bugs and heat no phones or running water the tiny town was hardly a place to enjoy one's retirement years but Finerty was quickly charmed by the community of Cora Indians and mestizos Armed with modest supplies a couple of textbooks and common sense she found herself delivering first aid advising on public health and administering injections And in a place where people still believed in the power of shamans providing health care sometimes required giving in to the magical belief that a hypodermic needle could cure anything Finerty's account of her eight years in Jes s Mar a is both a compelling story of nursing under adverse conditions and a loving portrait of a people and their ways She shares the joys and sorrows of this isolated world religious festivals and rites of passage the tragedy of illness and death in a place where people still rely on one another as much as medicine a flash flood that causes such havoc that even less than pious village men attend Mass daily And she introduces a cast of characters not unlike those in a novel Padre Domingo and his airborne medical practice the local bishop who frowns on Finerty's slacks Chela a mestiza from whom she rents her modest two room house complete with scorpions and the young Cora Indian woman Chuy from whom she gains insight into her new neighbors Blending memoir and travel writing In a Village Far from Home takes readers deep into the Sierra Madre to reveal its true treasure the soul of a people

Travels not far from home Aubin St. Helier, 1860 'Far, Far from Home' Richard Wright Simpson, Taliaferro N. Simpson, 1994-07-21 These compelling letters of two young enlisted men coming of age in the midst of war read like a good historical novel complete with plot character development suspense tragedy and even more than a little romance offering both a vivid picture of war at the battlefield and the texture of the home life of a Southern family during the Civil War This Fine Place So Far from Home C.L. Dews, Carolyn Leste Law, 1995-04-19 These autobiographical and analytical essays by a diverse group of professors and graduate students from working class families reveal an academic world in which blue collar work is invisible Describing conflict and frustration the contributors expose a divisive middle class bias in the university setting Many talk openly about how little they understood about the hierarchy and processes of higher education while others explore how their experiences now affect their relationships with their own students They all have in common the anguish of choosing to hide their working class background to keep the language of home out of the classroom and the ideas of school away from home These startlingly personal stories highlight the fissure between a working class upbringing and the more privileged values of the institution
