Ghost Riders of Upper Egypt Hans Alexander Winkler,2009 In 1933 the German anthropologist Hans Alexander Winkler came across a spirit medium named Abd al Radi in a village near Luxor in Upper Egypt Abd al Radi was periodically possessed by the ghost of his uncle and in that state passed messages to those who came to seek help In an intense study Winkler lays out the construction of the world shared by the rural people with its saints and pilgrims snake charmers and wandering holy men all under the overarching power of God Winkler s book was ahead of its time in analyzing a single institution in its social context and in showing the debates and disagreements about the meaning of such strange events This multilayered study from the 1930s was precocious in its method and conclusions and thus it retains its relevance today not only for Egyptian folklore but also for the history of anthropology in Egypt from the Introduction by Nicholas S Hopkins

Houses from Books Daniel D. Reiff,2010-11-01 Many homes across America have designs based on plans taken from pattern books or mail order catalogs In Houses from Books Daniel D Reiff traces the history of published plans and offers the first comprehensive survey of their influence on the structure and the style of American houses from 1738 to 1950 Houses from Books shows that architectural publications from Palladio s I Quattro Libri to Aladdin s Readi Cut Homes played a decisive role in every aspect of American domestic building Reiff discusses the people and the firms who produced the books as well as the ways in which builders and architects adapted the designs in communities throughout the country His book also offers a wide ranging analysis of the economic and social conditions shaping American building practices As architectural publication developed and grew more sophisticated it played an increasingly prominent part in the design and the construction of domestic buildings In villages and small towns which often did not have professional architects the publications became basic resources for carpenters and builders at all levels of expertise Through the use of published designs they were able to choose among a variety of plans styles and individual motifs and engage in a fruitful dialogue with past and present architects Houses from Books reconstructs this dialogue by examining the links between the published designs and the houses themselves Reiff s book will be indispensable to architectural historians architects preservationists and regional historians Realtors and homeowners will also find it of great interest A catalog at the end of the book can function as a guide for those attempting to locate a model and a date for a particular design Houses from Books contains a wealth of photographs many by the author that enhance its importance as a history and guide Old-House Journal ,2003-09 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division ,

Gendered Bodies Shuqin Cui,2015-10-31 Gendered Bodies introduces readers to women s visual art in contemporary China by examining how the visual process of gendering reshapes understandings of historiography sexuality pain and space When artists take the body as the subject of female experience and the medium of aesthetic experiment they reveal a wealth of noncanonical approaches to art The insertion of women s narratives into Chinese art history rewrites a historiography that has denied legitimacy to the woman artist The gendering of sexuality reveals that the female body incites pleasure in women themselves reversing the dynamic from woman as desired object to woman as desiring subject The gendering of pain demonstrates that for those haunted by the sociopolitical past the body can articulate traumatic memories and psychological torment The gendering of space transforms the female body into an emblem of landscape devastation remaps ruin aesthetics and extends the politics of gender identity into cyberspace and virtual reality The work presents a critical review of women s art in contemporary China in relation to art traditions classical and contemporary Inscribing the female body into art generates not only visual experimentation but also interaction between local art cultural production and global perception While artists may seek inspiration and exhibition space abroad they often reject the Western label feminist artist An extensive analysis of artworks and artists both well and little known provides readers with discursively persuasive and visually provocative evidence Gendered Bodies follows an interdisciplinary approach that general readers as well as scholars will find inspired and inspiring New Rooms for Old Houses Frank Shirley,2007-10-30 Expand your home without sacrificing its soul In New Rooms for Old Houses architect Frank Shirley offers a masterclass in designing additions that honor the character and craftsmanship of traditional homes Drawing on decades of experience and the guiding principle of
