and practices in society and underscores the complexity of societal issues on a broad range of contemporary themes As such the chapters are notable for their empirical richness and methodological pluralism which are of interest to an interdisciplinary audience whether scholars professionals or practitioners Science and Technology for Development ,1962 APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , Locating Neoliberalism in East Asia Bae-Gyoon Park,Richard Child Hill,Asato Saito,2012-01-04 Locating Neoliberalism in East Asia Neoliberalizing Spaces in Developmental States examines the influence of neo liberal ideologies on urban and regional policies and practices in several Asian Pacific nations Represents one of the few studies of neoliberal changes in East Asia one of the most important topics in social science research over the past two decades Considers the Asian perspective by focusing on readings from Asian experts Pays special attention to the spatial dimension of the East Asian neoliberalization Examines the influence of neo liberal ideologies on urban and regional policies and practices in several Asian Pacific nations Explores the evolving relationship between the two political economies Competition Law in Latin America Julián Peña,Marcelo Calliari,2022-06-06 In the past few years Latin American countries have taken giant steps to reposition their competition authorities in the global antitrust arena granting them much greater autonomy both domestically and internationally This is an updated edition of the first book that offered an in depth analysis of this complex scenario The first part of the book includes more general chapters written by leading experts on a variety of relevant topics analyzed at a regional level such as the issues emerging with the digital economy and on the special field of the information and communications technology industry as well as chapters on broad regional trends on the working of competition law in countries with regulated markets and in the cluster of Central American countries among others At the heart of the presentation are nine chapters detailing the competition regimes of the most active national jurisdictions in the region Argentina Brazil Chile Colombia Ecuador Mexico Paraguay Peru and Uruguay Written by practicing experts with considerable hands on experience in their respective countries each of these chapters provides a comprehensive description and explanation of the evolution current state and prospects for antitrust in the country Topics addressed in the country analysis encompass the following and more relevant institutions and legislation cartel investigations unilateral conduct policies merger review international coordination enforcement and remedies Each chapter includes an analysis of relevant case law allowing the reader to gauge the positions views and tendencies of each competition law regime The contributors also pay attention to the specificities and idiosyncrasies that are so important for a correct understanding of the practical realities of competition policy and enforcement With its wide ranging and in depth approach this book provides an incomparable analysis of a challenging region poised to become increasingly important in the international recognition and enforcement of antitrust law It is in this sense an essential guide for lawyers economists corporations academics and government officials interested in understanding where competition law is and where it is going to in Latin America Working Papers ,1963 The Housing of Nations Leland S Burns, Leo Grebler, 1977-05-26      The Challenge of Slums United Nations Human Settlements Programme, 2012-05-23 The Challenge of Slums presents the first global assessment of slums emphasizing their problems and prospects Using a newly formulated operational definition of slums it presents estimates of the number of urban slum dwellers and examines the factors at all level from local to global that underlie the formation of slums as well as their social spatial and economic characteristics and dynamics It goes on to evaluate the principal policy responses to the slum challenge of the last few decades From this assessment the immensity of the challenges that slums pose is clear Almost 1 billion people live in slums the majority in the developing world where over 40 per cent of the urban population are slum dwellers The number is growing and will continue to increase unless there is serious and concerted action by municipal authorities governments civil society and the international community This report points the way forward and identifies the most promising approaches to achieving the United Nations Millennium Declaration targets for improving the lives of slum dwellers by scaling up participatory slum upgrading and poverty reduction programmes The Global Report on Human Settlements is the most authoritative and up to date assessment of conditions and trends in the world's cities Written in clear language and supported by informative graphics case studies and extensive statistical data it will be an essential tool and reference for researchers academics planners public authorities and civil society organizations around the world      The Idea of Home in Law Lorna Fox O'Mahony, James A. Sweeney, 2016-03-03 The Idea of Home in Law Displacement and Dispossession explores an important set of legal and policy issues surrounding the concepts of home and homelessness taking a growing area of legal scholarship into the new arena of human rights and international law The collection considers the ideas concerning home both in the sense of the dwelling place as a special type of property and territorial claims to homeland which underpin many contemporary legal problems by examining a range of contexts where people are displaced or dispossessed from their homes The essays focusing on dispossession consider themes ranging from mortgage and rent arrears in the UK to responses to the foreclosure crisis in the USA and from eviction for the purposes of economic development in South Africa to the exclusion of asylum seekers from the UK's social housing and welfare provision and within the framework of the European Convention on Human Rights The displacement theme meanwhile examines transnational home issues from the experiences of exiles and refugees in areas of conflict to the impact of the broader context of economic social and cultural rights on attempts to protect housing and home through international law At the heart of each essay the contributors experts from across the fields of law policy and housing rights examine the circumstances in which displacement and dispossession take place and reconsider how law and policy respond to such circumstances with a particular focus on the impact of loss of home for the human person At a time of particular and increasing concern about security of tenure and the role of law and policy in protecting people who are vulnerable to forced eviction The Idea of Home in Law presents a bold opportunity to raise questions about the rights and norms associated with housing and home and to generate new insights for scholarship and for national and international policy debates concerning displacement and dispossession Science, Technology, and Development ,1962

Energy Efficiency in Developing Countries Suzana Tavares da Silva,Gabriela Prata Dias,2020-02-05 This book presents a comparative analysis of energy efficiency policies in developing countries Although there is a vast amount of literature available about renewable energy policy and implementation in the developing world energy efficiency tends to lack attention This book fills this lacuna by examining the current state of the field and scope for future improvements Drawing on a wide range of case studies including Brazil China and Chile the authors use a comparative approach to examine the policies and programmes being implemented looking at the existing legal frameworks and regulatory challenges By showcasing stories of success as well as barriers to energy efficiency they highlight the opportunities for increased energy access and efficiency and demonstrate how these opportunities may directly impact on climate change mitigation This volume will be a useful resource for scholars and practitioners with an interest in energy policy and efficiency climate change and international development

Developing the Competitive Advantage of Indigenous Construction Firms Matthew Kwaw Somiah,Clinton Ohis Aigbavboa,Wellington Thwala,2021-07-21 This book takes a pragmatic approach to develop the competitive advantage of indigenous construction firms in the Global South using Ghana as a case study It provides readers with two major practical insights The first focuses on the theoretical underpinning of firms competitive advantage and develops a competitive advantage model for indigenous construction firms This competitive advantage conceptual framework aids in explaining the main and sub attributes underpinning the competitive advantage of indigenous construction firms as well as providing the basis for assessing a firm s competitiveness Secondly it highlights and addresses theoretical gaps in existing competitive advantage studies deemed essential for indigenous construction firms Finally a detailed two stage Delphi study in the Ghanaian construction industry is presented as a case study The book is therefore of interest to researchers in construction management strategic management civil engineering business administration marketing entrepreneurial and economic studies It is an essential manual for owners and managers of construction businesses It is also useful for government departments and non governmental agencies seeking innovative ways to develop the capacity of indigenous firms and or contractors to make them more responsive to competitive bidding scenarios delivery of projects and satisfying the needs of the industry s stakeholders

The Energy Path of Latin America and the Caribbean Rigoberto Ariel Yépez-García,Yi Ji,Michelle Hallack,David López Soto,2018-12-28 With rapid energy growth in the past 40 years the Latin American and Caribbean LAC region has maintained a steady increase in electricity needs above the global level While there is no question that demand will remain strong over the next two decades what remains to be seen is what kind of energy matrix will be used to meet that appetite and what will be the investments going into the industry This report makes an attempt to answer these critical questions by taking a deep look into the demand and supply side of the industry To this end it will seek to i identify the amount of demand growth until 2040 ii project the electricity generation matrix by each energy source and iii determine the investment requirements by source based on cost efficiency criteria for regulators and utilities consideration
