Professor Marcus, Donald A. Professor Geffen, Ken Professor Sexton, 2010-09-30 Project XL eXcellence and Leadership was the flagship effort by the Clinton administration for cleaner cheaper and smarter regulation Under Project XL business promised better performance in exchange for a regulatory approach focused more on results than means with the Environmental Protection Agency EPA measuring pollution reduction across rather than at individual sources within a facility Reinventing Environmental Regulation is a compelling account of the breakdown in negotiations to implement Project XL at a tape manufacturing plant of 3M a company widely recognized as environmentally progressive Marcus Geffen and Sexton discuss the conflicting goals of participants the influences of personality and organizational culture and complications caused by changes in 3M's external business environment They compare the 3M case with EPA negotiations involving Intel Merck and Weyerhaeuser finding similarly contentious though less fatal disagreements about the meaning of superior environmental performance In common with other recent proposals Project XL emphasized cooperative flexible regulatory approaches Reinventing Environmental Regulation demonstrates the difficulty of putting these appealing ideas into practice while offering encouragement for continued innovations     Jon Kessler Jon Kessler, Gary Indiana, 1985     The Barbaric Soul Evan Sackett, Sackett Evan Sackett, 2010-02 James Underwood had always been a successful ordinary person And when he got a job offer to move to Jamesburg Ohio he thought this would only enhance his life Little did he know that there was an evil that was waiting for him there an evil that wanted to take his perfect life and transform him into a monster An evil soul can turn a good soul into a dark one An evil soul can turn a good soul into The Barbaric Soul     Status of sculpture Bernard Brunon, 1990     Bad New Days Hal Foster, 2015-09-29 One of the world's leading art theorists dissects a quarter century of artistic practice Bad New Days examines the evolution of art and criticism in Western Europe and North America over the last twenty five years exploring their dynamic relation to the general condition of emergency instilled by neoliberalism and the war on terror Considering the work of artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tacita Dean and Isa Genzken and the writing of thinkers like Jacques Rancière Bruno Latour and Giorgio Agamben Hal Foster shows the ways in which art has anticipated this condition at times resisting the collapse of the social contract or gesturing toward its repair at other times burlesquing it Against the claim that art making has become so heterogeneous as to defy historical analysis Foster argues that the critic must still articulate a clear account of the contemporary in all its complexity To that end he offers several paradigms for the art of recent years which he terms object archival mimetic and precarious

Kant's International Relations Sean Patrick Molloy, 2019-01-23 Why does Immanuel Kant 1724 1804 consistently invoke God and Providence in his most prominent texts relating to international politics In this wide ranging study Sean Molloy proposes that texts such as Idea for a Universal History with Cosmopolitan Intent and Toward Perpetual Peace cannot be fully understood without reference to Kant's wider philosophical projects and in particular the role that belief in God plays within critical philosophy and Kant's inquiries into anthropology politics and theology Molloy's broader view reveals the political theological dimensions of Kant's thought as directly related to his attempts to find a new basis for metaphysics in the sacrifice of knowledge to make room for faith This book is certain to generate controversy Kant is hailed as the greatest of all theorists in the field of International Relations IR in particular he has been acknowledged as the forefather of Cosmopolitanism and Democratic Peace Theory Yet Molloy charges that this understanding of Kant is based on misinterpretation neglect of particular texts and failure to recognize Kant's ambivalences and ambiguities Molloy's return to Kant's texts forces devotees of Cosmopolitanism and other Kantian schools of thought in IR to critically assess their relationship with their supposed forebear ultimately they will be compelled to seek different philosophical origins or to find some way to accommodate the complexity and the decisively nonsecular aspects of Kant's ideas
