Beasley-Murray, 2018-04-24 The Word Biblical Commentary delivers the best in biblical scholarship from the leading scholars of our day who share a commitment to Scripture as divine revelation This series emphasizes a thorough analysis of textual linguistic structural and theological evidence The result is judicious and balanced insight into the meanings of the text in the framework of biblical theology These widely acclaimed commentaries serve as exceptional resources for the professional theologian and instructor the seminary or university student the working minister and everyone concerned with building theological understanding from a solid base of biblical scholarship Overview of Commentary Organization Introduction covers issues pertaining to the whole book including context date authorship composition interpretive issues purpose and theology Each section of the commentary includes Pericope Bibliography a helpful resource containing the most important works that pertain to each particular pericope Translation the author's own translation of the biblical text reflecting the end result of exegesis and attending to Hebrew and Greek idiomatic usage of words phrases and tenses yet in reasonably good English Notes the author's notes to the translation that address any textual variants grammatical forms syntactical constructions basic meanings of words and problems of translation Form Structure Setting a discussion of redaction genre sources and tradition as they concern the origin of the pericope its canonical form and its relation to the biblical and extra biblical contexts in order to illuminate the structure and character of the pericope Rhetorical or compositional features important to understanding the passage are also introduced here Comment verse by verse interpretation of the text and dialogue with other interpreters engaging with current opinion and scholarly research Explanation brings together all the results of the discussion in previous sections to expose the meaning and intention of the text at several levels 1 within the context of the book itself 2 its meaning in the OT or NT 3 its place in the entire canon 4 theological relevance to broader OT or NT issues General Bibliography occurring at the end of each volume this extensive bibliography contains all sources used anywhere in the commentary Hilary of Poitiers, John of Damascus Various, The New Testament, arranged in chronological & historical order, with notes by G. Townsend George Townsend, 1827 Ambrose: Selected Works and Letters Saint Ambrose, Early Compotus Rolls of the Priory of Worcester Worcester Priory, 1908 Determinism and Petitionary Prayer in John and the Dead Sea Scrolls Emmanuel O. Tukasi, 2008-07-08 Tukasi explores the theme of the determinism as articulated in the Rule of the Community and the Fourth Gospel with the aim of uncovering the relevance of petitionary prayer within the framework of the determinism of each book Chapter one sets out the background against which the themes of determinism and petition in 1QS and John should be understood Chapter two explores the nature of the determinism in the 1QS The determinism is cosmological soteriological and eschatological Chapter three demonstrates that the contents of the petitions are in harmony with the determinism articulated in 1QS In our study of the Fourth Gospel chapter four demonstrates that the determinism in John is concerned with the predestination of certain people who are designated as the given ones of the Father It also shows that the determinism of the Fourth Gospel is concerned with the mission of the Son Chapter five analyzes the petitions in John against the background of Johannine determinism It argues that the petitions are shaped by the determinism articulated in the text The conclusion sums up the similarities and differences between John and 1QS in their expression of determinism and petitionary prayer and draws attention to the implications on previous and future scholarship on the relationship between John and the Scrolls The Whole Works of John Flavel John Flavel, 1820 NPNF2-09.
