Jose Ortega Y Gassets Metaphysical Innov:

José Ortega y Gasset's Metaphysical Innovation Antonio Rodríguez Huéscar, 1995-01-01 Huéscar presents a systematic critique of idealism and modernity framing Edmund Husserl's phenomenological philosophy as the most refined and far reaching version of idealism He includes the essentials of the system of categories adopted by Ortega in order to overcome idealism

The Metaphysical Anthropology of Julián Marías Alberto Oya, 2024-07-15 This book provides a detailed account of Julián Marías's metaphysical anthropology with the ultimate aim of offering a coherent and systematic analysis of Marías's argumentation for claiming that the conscious hope for Christian salvation through resurrection and with it the hope that Jesus Christ did actually resurrect and more generally the hope that Christian revelation is true is justified not because the certainty or the likelihood that this salvation will as a matter of fact actually occur but because this hope amounts to a self-affirming exercise a conscious endorsement of human reality and as such a sign of authenticity

What is Knowledge? Jose Ortega y Gasset, 2012-02-01 Appearing in English for the first time this book comprises two of Ortega's most important works Qu es conocimiento and the essay Ideas y creencias This is Ortega's attempt to systematically present the foundations of his metaphysics of human life and on that basis to provide a radical philosophical account of knowledge In so doing he criticizes idealism and overcomes it Accordingly this book goes well beyond a treatise on epistemology in fact as understood in modern philosophy this discipline and its questions are shown to be derivative and in that sense they are transcended here by Ortega's systematic effort Written during the time of his maturity these works are representative of his fruitful and radical period Both Qu es conocimiento and Ideas y creencias are equally decisive not only for the understanding and radical completion of Ortega's work but also for their relevance to the work of continental philosophers during the same period and for years to come e.g. Husserl, Jaspers, Heidegger, Sartre and others

robots smart enough to take white collar jobs social media tools that manage our most important relationships ordinary objects that track record analyze and share every detail of our daily lives and biomedical techniques with the potential to transform and enhance human minds and bodies to an unprecedented degree Emerging technologies are reshaping our habits practices institutions cultures and environments in increasingly rapid complex and unpredictable ways that create profound risks and opportunities for human flourishing on a global scale How can our future be protected in such challenging and uncertain conditions How can we possibly improve the chances that the human family will not only live but live well into the 21st century and beyond This book locates a key to that future in the distant past specifically in the philosophical traditions of virtue ethics developed by classical thinkers from Aristotle and Confucius to the Buddha Each developed a way of seeking the good life that equips human beings with the moral and intellectual character to flourish even in the most unpredictable complex and unstable situations precisely where we find ourselves today Through an examination of the many risks and opportunities presented by rapidly changing technosocial conditions Vallor makes the case that if we are to have any real hope of securing a future worth wanting then we will need more than just better technologies We will also need better humans Technology and the Virtues develops a practical framework for seeking that goal by means of the deliberate cultivation of technomoral virtues specific skills and strengths of character adapted to the unique challenges of 21st century life that offer the human family our best chance of learning to live wisely and well with emerging technologies Hans Hofmann Lucinda Barnes,2019-02-22 Hans Hofmann The Nature of Abstraction offers a fresh and revealing assessment of the artist s prolific and innovative painterly career The comprehensive exhibition and accompanying catalogue will feature approximately seventy paintings and works on paper by Hofmann from 1930 through the end of his life in 1966 including works from public and private collections across North America and Europe Curator Lucinda Barnes builds on new scholarship published over the past ten years and the 2014 catalogue raisonné to present Hofmann as a unique synthesis of student artist teacher and mentor who transcended generations and continents His singular artistic achievement drew on artistic influences and innovations that spanned two world wars and transatlantic avant gardes Over the last fifty years Hofmann has come to be understood primarily from the vantage of his late color plane abstractions Hans Hofmann The Nature of Abstraction expands our understanding and reinvigorates our appreciation of Hofmann through an inclusive presentation of his artistic arc showing the vibrant interconnectedness and continuity in his work of European and American influences from the early twentieth century through the advent of abstract expressionism Exhibition dates Berkeley Museum of Art Pacific Film Archive BAMPFA February 27 July 21 2019 The Peabody Essex Museum Salem MA September 21 2019 January 6 2020 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Psychology: Global Perspectives David B. Baker,2012 The science and practice of psychology has evolved around the world on different trajectories and timelines yet with a convergence on the recognition of the need for a human science that can confront the challenges facing the world today Few would argue that the standard narrative of the history of psychology has emphasized European and American traditions over others but in today's global culture there is a greater need in psychology for international understanding This volume describes the historical development of psychology in countries throughout the world Contributors provide narratives that examine the political and socioeconomic forces that have shaped their nations' psychologies Each unique story adds another element to our understanding of the history of psychology The chapters in this volume remind us that there are unique contexts and circumstances that influence the ways in which the science and practice of psychology are assimilated into our daily lives Making these contexts and circumstances explicit through historical research and writing provides some promise of greater international insight as well as a better understanding of the human condition Semiotic Approaches to Urban Space

Federico Bellentani, Mario Panico, Lia Yoka, 2024-02-12 This book outlines the future of semiotic research in the study of urban spaces with chapters authored by leading scholars in the field It offers thought provoking explanations of semiotic theory methodology and applications with the goal of exploring recently developed approaches to the interpretive aspects of urban space This title contains one or more Open Access chapters Theorists of the Modernist Novel

Deborah Parsons, 2014-08-07 Tracing the developing modernist aesthetic in the thought and writings of James Joyce Dorothy Richardson and Virginia Woolf Deborah Parsons considers the cultural social and personal influences upon the three writers Exploring the connections between their theories Parsons pays particular attention to their work on forms of realism characters and consciousness gender and the novel time and history An understanding of these three thinkers is fundamental to a grasp on modernism making this an indispensable guide for students of modernist thought It is also essential reading for those who wish to understand debates about the genre of the novel or the nature of literary expression which were given a new impetus by the pioneering figures of Joyce Richardson and Woolf Philosophy in the Condition of Modernism

Ana Falcato, Antonio Cardiello, 2018-05-03 Produced on the fringes of philosophy and literary criticism this book is a pioneering study which aims to explicitly address and thematize what may be called a critical philosophy in the condition of modernism Its most important and original contribution to both disciplines is a self-conscious reflection on possible modes of writing philosophy today and a systematic comparison with what happened in literary modernism at the beginning of the twentieth century The volume is divided into six sections where internationally renowned scholars discuss such pressing topics as the role of an unreliable narrator in a major philosophical treatise the different mediums of art production and how these impact on our perception of the Work itself the role of narrative in animal ethics and the filmic adaption of a Modernist classic
