Number 2, Winter 2001, Volume 4

Front Cover Art as described by Dr. Robert A. Morey

While Biblical Christianity gives Jesus Christ the preeminence in all things (Col. 1:18), Roman Catholicism is increasingly giving the preeminence to Mary. The facade of the Cathedral of Umbria, Italy (c. 1290–1310), is an example. As you enter the church, you pass under a lower panel of Mary, the Queen of Heaven. When you examine the top panel, Mary is being crowned Queen of Heaven. To the degree you exalt Mary is to the degree you degrade Christ.

Heart of the Living God Michael G. Maness, 2004-06-23 Maness asks us to tie up our sneakers for we are going to have some fun as we hike into the Grand Canyon of Love Love is the treasure of life It is Love all the way Nothing else really matters outside of Love Best of all our Love will only get better in heaven The treasured ability to have loving relationships is Gods gift to us in our Imago Deithe image of God we all share Likewise what we know of Love this side of heaven is but a dusty image of what God experiences I want to get personally involved says Maness Can we have a free will relationship with anyone even God if all of what we do and think is settled I dont think so Love is greater than that and I shall prove that and that is indeed a Grand Canyon Manes brings some of the brain splitting complexities of this to light with good humor introduces dynamic foreknowledge and challenges Classical Theisms avoidance of Love And he exposes some foul play in the process Thats the first half of the book For those wanting to strike out on their own wanting to see more of the depth and diversity of the Grand Canyon the second half contains reviews of about 60 major authors a 4 000 Abysmal Bibliography and a huge index to just about everything in the book Maness has thrown a gauntlet before the Classical Theists So tie up your sneakers and take a hike with Michael G Maness as he walks with you into the Grand Canyon see more at www.PreciousHeart.net

Beyond the Bounds John Piper, Justin Taylor, Paul Kjos Helseth, 2003-01-30 Everyone who believes in God at all believes that He knows what you and I are going to do tomorrow C S Lewis This understanding of Gods foreknowledge has united the church for twenty centuries But advocates of open theism are presenting a different vision of God and a different view of the future The rise of open theism within evangelicalism has raised a host of questions Was classical theism decisively tainted by Greek philosophy How should we understand passages that tell us that God repents Are essentials of biblical Christianity like the inerrancy of Scripture the trustworthiness of God and the Gospel of Christ at stake in this debate Where when and why should we draw new boundaries and is open theism beyond them Beyond the Bounds brings together a respected team of scholars to examine the latest literature address these questions and give guidance to the church in this time of controversy Contributors include John Piper Wayne Grudem Michael S Horton Bruce A Ware Mark R Talbot A B Caneday Stephen J Wellum Justin Taylor Paul Kjos Helseth Chad Brand William C Davis Russell Fuller We have prepared this book to address the issue of boundaries and we pray bring some remedy to the present and impending pain of embracing open theism as a legitimate Christian vision of God As a pastor who longs to be biblical and God centered and Christ exalting and eternally helpful to my people I see open theism as theologically ruinous dishonoring to God belittling to Christ and pastorally hurtful My prayer is that Christian leaders will come to see it this way and thus love the church by counting open theism beyond the bounds of orthodox Christian teaching From the Foreword by John Piper

Epistemology as Theology James Beilby, 2017-09-29 Alvin Plantinga is arguably one of the most influential philosophers of our time Much of his career has been devoted to explaining and defending the intellectual acceptability of Christian belief Recently he has developed a comprehensive rigorous and distinctively Christian religious epistemology This book presents the development of Plantinga's religious epistemology before considering Plantinga's mature religious epistemology in detail Locating Plantinga's most recent work in the context of his theological assumptions his previous work on religious epistemology and in the context of the current debate over how knowledge should be characterized Beilby blends theological and philosophical discussion to offer a unique perspective on Plantinga's influential proposal A Pledge of the Truth Taylor Evan Walls,2024-04-12 Persecution false accusations and philosophical criticisms were all a common part of the life of the church in the second century Many Christian writers took up the mighty pen to defend the Christian faith Though often overlooked Theophilus of Antioch was one of these apologetic writers who boldly identified himself as a Christian and a believer in God's word In his only remaining work Ad Autolycum Theophilus shows the irrationality of the pagan worldview and defends the Christian faith with a firm commitment to the authority of Scripture The Scriptures are foundational to his defense of the Christian faith He presents the Scriptures both from the Old and New Testaments as a faithful guide and guarantee of truth on the nature of God the world and ethics The Scriptures were efficacious in his own conversion to Christianity and so he uses those same divine words in order to call his pagan friend from idolatry to the truth of the one God In this book Taylor Evan Walls offers a systematic presentation of Theophilus' understanding of the nature of Scripture and shows how this doctrine provided the foundation and structure for his defense of Christianity BIBLICAL CRITICISM Edward D. Andrews,F. David Farnell,2017-10-27 Missionshift David J. Hesselgrave,David Hesselgrave,Ed Stetzer,2010 Essays on modern missions issues by Charles Van Engen Paul Hiebert and Ralph Winter with responses from other missional leaders edited by David Hesselgrave and Ed Stetzer Hope's Reason: A Journal of Apologetics Vol. 1 No. 1 Stephen J. Bedard (editor),2011-02-05 In an increasingly skeptical world there is now more of a need than ever for quality apologetic resources defending the Christian faith The purpose of this journal is to bridge the gap between the academy and the church equipping pastors and interested laypeople to present the Christian faith to an unbelieving world The Unified Operations of the Human Soul Jeffrey C. Waddington,2015-07-24 This book endeavors to examine and critically assess the theological anthropology of Jonathan Edwards with a view to considering how this anthropology coheres with his apologetic methodology Specifically the question has been raised whether Edwards' doctrine of man is consistent with the picture painted of Jonathan Edwards by John Gerstner that he was the epitome of the classical apologist It is argued that Edwards practiced an eclectic apologetic sans apologetic self awareness In other words Edwards was a child of his training and time A Christian Apologetic For Christian Apologists Lance Waldie,2013-01-09 The Christian faith is based on historical truths that if properly understood can be defended as truth and not wishful thinking In a day and age where it is said that truth does not exist or that truth is whatever people believe it is Christians must stand up and present the truth of Jesus Christ in a loving and clear way We are to be prepared at all times to defend our faith why we believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God

This book lays out the traditional arguments for the existence of God proves that there must be only one God for anything to exist that does exist and then it demonstrates that the only God is Jesus Christ Moreover the Bible is shown to be reliable and believable for it is the logical avenue through which God if He exists would communicate with His people Creationism's Trojan Horse Barbara Forrest, Paul R. Gross, 2007 The Wedge has intruded itself successfully into educational politics at the local state and now national levels BOOK JACKET Beloved Community Hinlicky, Paul R., 2015-05-04 An original comprehensive system of theology especially apropos to the post Christendom North American context In this scholarly work Paul Hinlicky transcends the impasse between dogmatic and systematic theology by articulating and arguing a single cognitive claim God is the One who has determined to redeem the creation by the missions of his Son and Spirit Deploying an unusual Spirit Son Father trinitarian scheme Hinlicky treats the problem of the knowledge of God and the nature of the theological discipline and he proceeds to carefully develop his system of theology through expansive wideranging argumentation Each main part of his work includes discussion of the ecumenical convergences in doctrine gained over the last generation and exploration of interreligious dialogues especially with Judaism and Islam Throughout the book Hinlicky engages with other theologians particularly with Robert Jenson s Systematic Theology and concludes each major section with a discussion of an alternate perspective on the subject Relationship Is the Transformative Space Darryl Wooldridge, 2016-02-09 This book affirms relationship as the shared human elemental pursuit and proposes relationship as the transformative space Wonderfully the author asserts it is God s intention to fulfill this intrinsic human desire in the present in all of us and universally This desire is an often inarticulate innate desire and pursuit to enjoy and reflect the divine image in which every human being was created In this book this pursuit is referred to as proleptic spiritual transformation Pr ST That is this book demonstrates that what is too often relegated to eternity is available now Relationship is the Transformative Space considers God s heart in relationship and its implication toward human spirituality and how this intent has been interrupted and restored God is actively interested in the recovery of a fully expressed image in humanity The Mind of the Spirit Craig S. Keener, 2016-06-21 Leading Scholar Explores Paul s Teaching on the Mind This major work by a leading New Testament scholar explores an important but neglected area of Pauline theology Paul s teaching about the mind In discussing matters such as the corrupted mind the mind of Christ and the renewal of the mind Paul adapts language from popular intellectual thought in his day but he does so in a way distinctively focused on Christ and Christ s role in the believer s transformation Keener enables readers to understand this thought world so they can interpret Paul s language for contemporary Christian life The book helps overcome a false separation between following the Spirit and using human judgment and provides a new foundation for relating biblical studies and Christian counseling Index to Jewish Periodicals , 2003 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Sehnsucht: The C. Richard Tiplady,2003 This book considers in detail the key drivers of globalization its contemporary shape and its implications for world mission It also looks at the impact of globalization on different contemporary issues affecting mission such as ethnicity the environment and global health as well as globalization s effect on more traditional missionary questions of the world religions contextualization theology and the church One World or Many is written by a variety of authors from all over the world This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance A Faithful Guide to Philosophy

Peter S. Williams,2019-02-14 A Faithful Guide to Philosophy is the only British Christian introduction to philosophy a book that will be used as a course textbook and by church study groups and individual readers alike It covers subjects of central importance to the Christian worldview discussing the broadest range of topics covered by any Christian introduction to philosophy and will be prized by many Christian Life and Practice Owen C. Thomas,2009-01-01 This book is a study of the Christian life and the practice of Christians and the church from an Anglican perspective It begins with an analysis and explication of the structure and process of the Christian life before God in the church and the world involving a five fold rule of life and the relation of this to spiritual direction This is followed by an analysis and critique of the current spirituality movement which arose in the 1970s and which has come to dominate and mislead the churches A sequel to the latter explains the origin of the spirituality movement in the current Romantic movement that arose in the 1960s and has influenced all aspects of our culture with ambiguous results Next there is a critique of contemporary parish ministry as practiced in residential parishes that at best ministers only to the private lives of its members followed by a fictional story of such a residential parish that suggests a new departure in parish ministry Then there is a critique of preaching in the Episcopal Church that is generally considered to be poor and a proposal of a way to overcome this The concluding three chapters treat a fundamental problem in our approach to private prayer and a way to resolve this a proposal for a way to overcome the current impasse in the Anglican Communion concerning homosexuality and a meditation on the responsibility of Christians in public life Jesus Before Constantine Doug E. Taylor,2020-08-12 That s now but what about then There is much diversity in Christianity today in terms of what constitutes necessary core beliefs but what can we know about the earliest Christianity Until the major councils began in the fourth century were all who claimed to be Christian considered part of the church or was there more to it than just claiming a name Is there evidence for how the church understood core and necessary beliefs prior to Constantine's arrival in history and the Council of Nicea in AD 325. This book examines such questions using only those materials that are accepted by most scholars on the subject, whether they are Christian or not, and focusing on the period from AD 30-250. A picture emerges showing what Christians held as a core belief as well as how flexible they were on this belief. Only after identifying where the church stood in this period can we begin to understand whether others such as Ebionites, Docetists, and Marcionites would have been accepted as Christian. A case is made based on writings from the church, the Nag Hammadi, and a completely secular tool from the twentieth century to find the conclusion to this question.

Fighting Words Hector Avalos, Is religion inherently violent? If not, what provokes violence in the name of religion? Do we mischaracterize religion by focusing too much on its violent side? In this intriguing original study of religious violence, Prof. Hector Avalos offers a new theory for the role of religion in violent conflicts. Starting with the premise that most violence is the result of real or perceived scarce resources, Avalos persuasively argues that religion creates new scarcities on the basis of unverifiable or illusory criteria. Through a careful analysis of the fundamental texts of Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and Hinduism, Dr. Avalos explains how four scarce resources have figured repeatedly in creating religious violence: sacred space (e.g., the perception by three world religions that Jerusalem is sacred), the creation of holy scriptures believed to be privileged revelations of God's will, group privilege stemming from such beliefs as a chosen people or predestination, which also creates a group of outsiders, and salvation by which concept some are accepted and others rejected. Thus, Avalos shows religious violence is often the most unnecessary violence of all, since the scarce resources over which religious conflicts ensue are not actually scarce or need not be scarce. Comparing violence in religious and nonreligious contexts, Avalos makes the compelling argument that if we condemn violence caused by scarce resources as morally objectionable, then we must consider even more objectionable violence provoked by alleged scarcities that cannot be proven to exist. He also examines the Nazi Holocaust and the Stalinist Terror, which have been attributed to the pernicious effects of atheism or secular humanism. By contrast, Avalos pinpoints underlying religious factors as the cause of these horrific instances of genocidal violence. This serious philosophical examination of the roots of religious violence adds much to our understanding of a perennial source of widespread human suffering.

Hector Avalos, Ames, IA, is an associate professor of Religious Studies at Iowa State University, the author of five books on biblical studies and religion, the former editor of the Journal for the Critical Study of Religion, and executive director of the Committee for the Scientific Examination of Religion.
