Journal Of Melanie Klein And Object Relations Volume 17 Number 1 Spring 1999:

Primitive Mental States Jane Van Buren, Shelley Alhanati, 2013-12-16 Traditional psychoanalysis relies on the presence of certain meaning making capacities in the patient for its effectiveness Primitive Mental States examines how particular capacities including those for symbolising fantasising dreaming experiencing and finding meanings in those experiences can be taken for granted Many of us lack these capacities in certain dimensions of our minds making traditional psychoanalysis ineffective In this book international contributors are brought together to consider a radical evolution in contemporary psychoanalytic theory developed from a combination of ultrasound studies infant analysis and observation of mothers and babies These findings demonstrate how much mental life exists even before birth and considers unevolved unborn and barely born aspects of the self such as the birth of emotion and the birth of alpha functioning Topics covered include prenatal imprints on the mind and body difficult to treat patients non verbal non symbolic disembodied states of being early relational and attachment trauma Illustrated throughout with original data and extensive clinical discussions from some of the biggest names in the field Primitive Mental States will be a useful resource for students and seasoned analysts alike Reckoning with Aggression Kathleen J. Greider, 1997-01-01 Aggression is ambiguous in our society according to Kathleen Greider While giving us strength to fight the world s social ills or to create vital and powerful lives aggression can also lead to rage and violence Thus society has often viewed aggression as evil or sinful Greider wants Christians to repair their view of aggression and realize that aggression is what can spur them to make the world better In exploring aggression from feminist pastoral and theological perspectives Greider examines the relationships between violence and vitality passion and aggression and finds that Christians can be strong without being destructive The Movies of Racial Childhoods Celine Parreñas Shimizu, 2023-12-08 In The Movies of Racial Childhoods Celine Parre as Shimizu examines early twenty first century cinematic representations of Asian and Asian American children Drawing on psychoanalysis and her own perspective as a mother grieving for a deceased child Shimizu considers how cinema renders Asian American children through sexualized racial difference infantilization and premature adultification She looks at how Asian American childhood is characterized in film through experiences of alienation and trauma and contends that childhood development requires finding freedom and self sovereignty through agentic attunement In analyzing films that focus on queer Asian American youth such as Spa Night 2016 and Driveways 2019 and those that explore the trauma of being an immigrant like Yellow Rose 2019 and The Half of It 2020 Shimizu demonstrates that films can prompt viewers to evaluate their own childhood development They also allow the opportunity to understand the demands placed upon Asian American children particularly in regard to race and sexuality In this way cinema becomes a vehicle for empowering our inner child and the children all around us Art and knowledge after 1900 James Fox, Vid Simoniti, 2023-12-12 This ground breaking new history of modern art explores the relationship between art and knowledge from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day Each chapter examines artistic responses to a particular discipline of knowledge from quantum theory and theosophy to cybernetics and ethnic futurisms

 The authors argue that art's incursion into other intellectual disciplines is a defining characteristic of both modernism and postmodernism
 Throughout the volume poses a series of larger questions is art a source of knowledge If so what kind of knowledge And ultimately can it contribute to our understanding of the world in ways that thinkers from other fields should take seriously
