A Re-mapping of Womanhood and Creativity Clara Oropeza, PhD, 2025-04-24 A Re mapping of Womanhood and Creativity investigates the diverse ways in which women set out to find a matrilineal line as a wellspring for creative transformation and through a lens of analytical psychology how we read women's literary history and narratives about womanhood While following the feminine influences that forged her own search and nature as a writer this book re maps the life and work of Clara Oropeza's literary mother Ana's Nin focusing on Nin's formative affinity with her mother alongside her own personal mother In this mother map Oropeza looks closely at the relationship between mothers and daughters the formation of the maternal wound and ways to move towards healing Oropeza examines the pivotal role that a reconnection to a maternal line has in shaping a woman's creative life This book argues that synthesizing our intellectual spiritual and ancestral ways of knowing away from the harmful narratives that shape our lives is essential today With scholarly and personal insight Oropeza sheds new light on how women come to shores of understanding themselves beyond unresolved familial and historical tensions Combining literature myth and psychology this book will be an illuminating read for students scholars and professionals in the areas of literature psychoanalysis and mythology This book will be crucial reading for women in particular women of color interested in the process of individuation creativity and womanhood

The Melancholy Lens Tony Pipolo, 2021-04-30 The impact of significant loss has exerted a powerful influence on several American avant garde filmmakers The Melancholy Lens offers a detailed look at biographical and psychological factors discernible in the art of Maya Deren Stan Brakhage Gregory Markopoulos Robert Beavers and Ernie Gehr with an aim toward a greater understanding of their work

The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art Dirk Cornelis de Bruyn, 2014-10-02 With reference to recent neurological research into Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD using new imaging technologies and models of implicit and explicit memory systems developed from this research The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art examines the capacity of an artist's cinema of experimental and avant garde film to perform and communicate traumatic experience De Bruyn analyses key films from the 1940s to the present that perform aspects of overwhelming experience through their approach structure content and perceptual impact mapping a trajectory from analogue to contemporary digital moving image practice He argues for the inclusion of Peter Gidal's 1970s conception of materialist film into the genre of trauma cinema through its capacity to articulate un locatability and perceptually perform dis orientation and a flashback effect all further identified here as key characteristics of digital moving image practice The discussion explores the following questions Can materialist film model traumatic memory and perform the traumatic flashback Does the capacity to articulate trauma's un speakability and invisibility give this practice a renewed relevance in digital media's preoccupation with surface and the impact of information overload De Bruyn's phenomenological traumatic reading of materialist film steps beyond Gidal's original anti illusionist rationale to incorporate critiques effectively mounted against it by the founders of a 70s feminist psychoanalytic counter cinema This contemporary re reading further re evaluates the Minimalist turn in painting and sculpture after the Second World War arguing that this development is not essentialist or visionary but makes visible the implicit mechanisms of denial and erasure at the core of traumatic remembering For de Bruyn the initial traumatic impact of industrialization on the body s perceptual apparatus traceable through the advent of cinema and train travel is communicated by such moving image art The development of digital technology marks a new cycle of such perceptual re balancing for which materialist film is uniquely positioned and which it critically addresses American Literature in Transition, 1950-1960 Steven Belletto,2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1950 1960 explores the under recognized complexity and variety of 1950s American literature by focalizing discussions through a series of keywords and formats that encourage readers to draw fresh connections among literary form and concepts institutions cultures and social phenomena important to the decade The first section draws attention to the relationship between literature and cultural phenomena that were new to the 1950s The second section demonstrates the range of subject positions important in the 1950s but still not visible in many accounts of the era The third section explores key literary schools or movements associated with the decade and explains how and why they developed at this particular cultural moment The final section focuses on specific forms or genres that grew to special prominence during the 1950s Taken together the chapters in the four sections not only encourage us to rethink familiar texts and figures in new lights but they also propose new archives for future study of the decade Multicultural Writers from Antiquity to 1945 Alba Amoia,Bettina L. Knapp,2001-10-30 The final decades of the 20th century have seen an explosion of interest in multiculturalism But multiculturalism is more than an awareness of the different cultures comprising contemporary societies For centuries people from around the world have come in contact with cultures other than their own and their exposure to multiple cultures has fostered their creativity and ability to make lasting contributions to civilization The effects of multiculturalism are especially apparent in literature since writers tend to be particularly aware of their environments and record their experiences This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945 who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own Included are entries for major canonical Ancient and Modern writers of the Western and Eastern worlds Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts a summary of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies By illuminating the shaping influence of multiculturalism on these writers the volume points to the lasting value of multiculturalism in the contemporary world Soulforce Joseph Arnold,2024-08-19 Through the unique Soulforce Arts Approach you will be able to breath new life into your creative works and bring a newfound passion to your art Many artists musicians and creatives share a secret fear that their art doesn t really matter and that it isn t practical or useful enough to make a tangible contribution to a world in need This couldn t be further from the truth The purpose of art is to bring us more alive to connect us with something bigger than our individual
