When Race, Religion, and Sport Collide Darron T. Smith, 2015-10-30 When Race Religion and Sport Collide tells the story of Brandon Davies dismissal from Brigham Young University's NCAA playoff basketball team to illustrate the thorny intersection of religion, race, and sport at BYU and beyond. Author Darron T. Smith analyzes the athletes dismissed through BYU's honor code violations and suggests that they are disproportionately African American, which has troubling implications. He ties these dismissals to the complicated history of negative views towards African Americans in the LDS faith. These honor code dismissals elucidate the challenges facing black athletes at predominantly white institutions. Weaving together the history of the black athlete in America and the experience of blackness in Mormon theology, When Race, Religion, and Sport Collide offers a timely and powerful analysis of the challenges facing African American athletes in the NCAA today.

A Burnt Child Jason Draper, 2021-11-10. Conspiring men have done and will continue to take advantage of each other because of our humanity and history shows the worst offenders are not those who claim to do us any harm but those who claim they are trying to do us good. The solution is not to cancel our goodness. The cure is not to have less of any of these good things. The cure is to balance it with more knowledge and more truth. Whatever truth is given by our churches, governments, and the media can be measured by passing it through the fire. If it survives, we can accept it. If it doesn't, we can choose not to be burned again. It doesn't deserve our humanity and can and ought to perish.

Paperbound Books in Print, 1982. Working Principles for an Islamic Model in Mass Media Communication Suahib Jamal al-Barzinji, 1998-01-01. Research in Islamic media is still in its infancy, especially in English. This book, presented by IIIT to the students of Islamization of knowledge, is a recent contribution to this great civilizational project. This book deals with mass media communication in the Muslim world and compares the international Islamic view to the contemporary media views. It also presents a set of practical principles upon which a model of Islamic communication through media can be based, with recommendations and research project proposals for the future in the area of Islamic media. It is a real accumulation of knowledge in communication sciences from an Islamic perspective.

Hearings United States. Congress. Senate, 1962. Dialogue, 1994. A journal of Mormon thought. The Truth Never Stands in the Way of a Good Story Jan Harold Brunvand, 2000. Here the author looks in detail at a dozen rampant and long-lived examples of this vigorous category of contemporary folklore, tracing their histories, variations, sources, and meanings. Jacket. The Times to Come Have Come

David White,2009-09-12 The times that have been foreseen foretold and mostly feared have suddenly come upon us These will prove to be times like no other in all of history If God had intended for you to live during any other age He would have arranged it Yet from the foundation of the world God has purposed that you would live on the earth during a time of both unprecedented deception and darkness and yet unequaled grace and glory God has promised hope and help in troubled times You may even discover that you were more prepared for these days than you had ever dreamed Because the times that were to come have come
