Cousineau-Levine, 2003 In Faking Death Penny Cousineau Levine examines the work of over 120 Canadian photographers revealing important aspects of Canadian identity and imagination Contrasting Canadian photography with American and European traditions she shows that Canadian photographers are often preoccupied with a place that is elsewhere a doubling and duality that also occurs in Canadian literature film and political life Subverting the documentary tradition and other stylistic idioms for their own distinctive ends Canadian photographers exhibit an ambivalent preoccupation with death and dying bondage and entrapment Cousineau Levine argues that this is characteristically a faked death that expresses a collective Canadian wish for a symbolic passage to national maturity Faking Death includes 16 colour reproductions and 150 duotones by artists such as Raymonde April Jeff Wall Lynne Cohen Charles Gagnon Evergon Michel Lambeth Thaddeus Holownia Geoffrey James Genevi ve Cadieux Shelley Niro Diana Thorneycroft Jin me Yoon Ian Wallace and Ken Lum By bringing together this many Canadian works Faking Death provides a compelling visual introduction to one of Canada s most vibrant and internationally recognized artistic media It is an invaluable tool for curators artists teachers students and scholars in art history fine arts Canadian studies film communications literature and cultural studies The Cultural Work of Photography in Canada Carol Payne, Andrea Kunard, 2011-08-31 The Cultural Work of Photography in Canada is an in depth study on the use of photographic imagery in Canada from the late nineteenth century to the present This volume of fourteen essays provides a thought provoking discussion of the role photography has played in representing Canadian identities In essays that draw on a diversity of photographic forms from the snapshot and advertising image to works of photographic art contributors present a variety of critical approaches to photography studies examining themes ranging from photography s part in the formation of the geographic imaginary to Aboriginal self identity and notions of citizenship The volume explores the work of photographs as tools of self and collective expression while rejecting any claim to a definitive singular telling of photography s history Reflecting the rich interdisciplinarity of contemporary photography studies The Cultural Work of Photography in Canada is essential reading for anyone interested in Canadian visual culture Contributors include Sarah Bassnett University of Western Ontario Lynne Bell University of Saskatchewan Jill Delaney Library and Archives Canada Robert Evans Carleton University Sherry Farrell Racette University of Manitoba Blake Fitzpatrick Toronto

Image and Inscription Gallery 44,2005 Image and Inscription features the work of many of Canada s distinguished authors critics curators and artists who are recognized for their contribution to the discourse and practice of photography it presents the diversity and the changeable milieu of photographic practice and evokes an unanticipated moment in Canadian photography It also represents an important step in expanding the contemporary authorship on photography in Canada adapted from the Introduction by Robert Bean

The Official Picture Carol Payne,2013-06-01 Mandated to foster a sense of national cohesion The National Film Board of Canada s Still Photography Division was the country s official photographer during the mid twentieth century Like the Farm Security Administration and other agencies in the US the NFB used photographs to serve the nation Division photographers shot everything from official state functions to images of the routine events of daily life producing some of the most dynamic photographs of the time seen by millions of Canadians and international audiences in newspapers magazines exhibitions and filmstrips In The Official Picture Carol Payne argues that the Still Photography Division played a significant role in Canadian nation building during WWII and the two decades that followed Payne examines key images themes and periods in the Division s history including the depiction of women munitions workers landscape photography in the 1950s and 60s and portraits of Canadians during the Centennial in 1967 to demonstrate how abstract concepts of nationhood and citizenship as well as attitudes toward gender class linguistic identity and conceptions of race were reproduced in photographs The Official Picture looks closely at the work of many Division photographers from staff members Chris Lund and Gar Lunney during the 1940s and 1950s to the expressive documentary photography of Michel Lambeth Michael Semak and Pierre Gaudard in the 1960s and after The Division also produced a substantial body of Northern imagery documenting Inuit and Native peoples Payne details how Inuit groups have turned to the archive in recent years in an effort to reaffirm their own cultural identity For decades the Still Photography Division served as the country s image bank producing a government endorsed official picture of Canada A rich archival study The Official Picture brings the history of the Division long overshadowed by the Board s cinematic divisions to light

Narratives Unfolding Martha Langford,2017-07-18 Somewhere between global and local the nation still lingers as a concept National art histories continue to be written some for the first time while innovative methods and practices redraw the boundaries of these imagined communities Narratives Unfolding considers the mobility of ideas transnationalism and entangled histories in essays that define new ways to see national art in ever changing nations Examining works that were designed to reclaim or rethink issues of territory and dispossession home and exile contributors to this volume demonstrate that the writing of national art histories is a vital project for intergenerational exchange of knowledge and its visual formations Essays showcase revealing moments of modern and contemporary art history in Canada

Egypt Iceland India Ireland Israel Palestine Romania Scotland Turkey and the United Arab Emirates paying particular attention to the agency of institutions such as archives art galleries milestone exhibitions and artist retreats Old and emergent art cities including Cairo Dubai New York and Vancouver are also examined in light of avant gardism cosmopolitanism and migration Narratives Unfolding is both a survey of current art historical approaches and their connection to the source art making and art experience happening somewhere Michael Snow James King,2019-10-12 An all encompassing view of the life and work of one of Canada s greatest living artists Michael Snow is rightly recognized as one of the greatest Canadian artists In a productive lengthy career he has in a wide variety of genres and media asked and often answered some of the most vexing and important questions in the history of art During his lifetime the notion of what constitutes a work of art has undergone many changes and his work has consistently been at the forefront of that discussion Michael Snow Lives and Works examines all aspects of the artist s work and provides a guide to understanding its subtleties and complexities The book also charts the life of Snow his early years as a student and artist in Toronto his stay in New York City his turbulent marriage to Joyce Wieland his reputation as a lady s man and his adventures in movie making and improvised music In many ways Snow is the visual artist as intellectual his images are vibrant and compelling but so are the ideas behind them Ultimately his work is about perception What do we really see when we look at a work of art What is the act of looking all about What exactly is a work of art Michael Snow Lives and Works is a personal and intimate portrait of an artist who has helped shaped the face of Canadian art in our time Seduced by Modernity Mary Elizabeth O'Connor,Katherine Tweedie,2007 A richly illustrated and vivid account of the life and work of an important Canadian modernist photographer Scissors, Paper, Stone Martha Langford,2007-06-27 Finalist Raymond Klibansky Book Prize Humanities and Social Sciences Federation of Canada 2008 Making a connection between photography and memory is almost automatic Should it be In Scissors Paper Stone Martha Langford explores the nature of memory and art She challenges the conventional emphasis on the camera as a tool of perception by arguing that photographic works are products of the mind picturing memory is first and foremost the expression of a mental process Langford organizes the book around the conceit of the child s game scissors paper stone using it to ground her discussion of the tensions between remembering and forgetting the intersection of memory and imagination and the relationship between memory and history Scissors Paper Stone explores the great variety of photographic art produced by Canadian artists as expressions of memory Their work including images by Carl Beam Carole Cond and Karl Beveridge Donigan Cumming Stan Denniston Robert Houle Robert Minden Michael Snow Diana Thorneycroft Jeff Wall and Jin me Yoon is presented as part of a rich interdisciplinary study of contemporary photography and how it has shaped modern memory Image & Imagination Martha Langford,2005 A richly illustrated exploration of the imagination in photography featuring the work of over sixty international artists The Canadian Art Teacher ,2001 Fray Julia Bryan-Wilson,2021-02 In 1974 women in a feminist consciousness raising group in Eugene Oregon formed a mock organization called the Ladies Sewing Circle and Terrorist Society Emblazoning its logo onto t shirts the group wryly envisioned female collective textile making as a practice that could upend conventions threaten state structures and wreak political havoc Elaborating on this example as a prehistory to the more recent phenomenon of craftivism the politics and social practices associated with handmaking Fray explores textiles and their role at the forefront of debates about process materiality gender and race in times of economic upheaval Closely examining how amateurs and fine artists in the United States and Chile turned to sewing braiding knotting and quilting amid the rise of global manufacturing Julia Bryan Wilson argues that textiles unravel the high low divide and urges us to think flexibly about what the politics of textiles might be Her case studies from the 1970s through the 1990s including the improvised costumes of the theater troupe the Cockettes the braided rag rugs of US artist Harmony Hammond the thread based sculptures of Chilean artist Cecilia Vicuña the small hand sewn tapestries depicting Pinochet's torture and the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt are often taken as evidence of the inherently progressive nature of handcrafted textiles Fray however shows that such methods are recruited to often ambivalent ends leaving textiles very much in the fray of debates about feminized labor protest cultures and queer identities the malleability of cloth and fiber means that textiles can be activated or stretched in many ideological directions The first contemporary art history book to discuss both fine art and amateur registers of handmaking at such an expansive scale Fray unveils crucial insights into how textiles inhabit the broad space between artistic and political poles high and low untrained and highly skilled conformist and disobedient craft and art

Reading Marie al-Khazen's Photographs Yasmine Nachabe Taan, 2020-11-26 The Lebanese photographer Marie al Khazen seized every opportunity to use her camera during the years that she was active between 1920 and 1940 She not only documented her travels around tourist sites in Lebanon but also sought creative experimentation with her camera by staging scenes manipulating shadows and superimposing negatives to produce different effects in her prints Within her photographs bedouins and European friends peasants and landlords men and women comfortably share the same space Her photographs include an intriguing collection portraying her family and friends living their everyday lives in 1920s and 30s Zgharta a village in the north of Lebanon Yasmine Nachabe Taan explores these photographs emphasizing the ways in which notions of gender and class are inscribed within them and revealing how they are charged with symbols of women's emancipation to today's viewers through women's presence as individuals separate from family restrictions of that time Images in which women are depicted smoking cigarettes driving cars riding horses and accompanying men on hunting trips counteract the common ways in which women were portrayed in contemporary Lebanon

A Cold War Tourist and His Camera Martha Langford, John Langford, 2011-01-27 Martha Langford and John Langford examine their father's apparently innocuous photographic experience revealing the complexity of both the images and their creator An intelligent and personal look at the ways that the historical and the private are represented and remembered A Cold War Tourist and His Camera stages the family slide show as you've never seen it before Canadian Art, 2008 Photogenic Montreal Martha Langford, Johanne Sloan, 2021-12-15 The agency of photographs is a recurrent concern within the context of the city Whether found in architectural records social documentary photojournalism or artistic practice photographic objects are embedded in urban contestation aesthetically charged by artists reinserted into social histories and mobilized to imagine a future city Photogenic Montreal takes a question initially posed by heritage debates what does photography preserve and creates a rich conversation about the agency of the human actors before and behind the camera and of the medium itself The interplay of archives and activism structures the book Photographs that appear to be sealed off in newspapers storage rooms or archives accrue new meaning when they cross the threshold back into social spaces and circulate anew It is through the reactivation of archival photographs that submerged traces of urban experience are discovered and alternate histories of Montreal can be recounted Multiple forms of activism and artistic expression complement this archival work Beginning in the 1960s community minded and heritage groups responded to the tensions arising from urban reconstruction gentrification and the erasure of neighbourhoods this activism also left its photographic traces Attentive to the still changing face of the city's architecture neighbourhoods and street life Photogenic Montreal participates in debates about who the city belongs to who speaks on its behalf and how to picture its past and present Reception of Northrup Frye, 2021-09-23 The Reception of Northrup Frye takes a thorough accounting of the presence of Frye in existing works and argues against Frye's diminishing status as an important critical voice Canadian Books in Print.
