Subcommittee on Clean Air and Nuclear Safety, United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Environment and Public Works. Subcommittee on Green Jobs and the New Economy, 2014

Consumption, Jobs and the Environment R. Carr-Hill, J. Lintott, 2002-11-26 Consumption Jobs and the Environment argues that the present pattern of development based on everlasting economic growth is completely unsatisfactory from a welfare point of view. It threatens ecological catastrophe while perpetuating poverty. Roy Carr Hill and John Lintott propose an alternative policy framework based explicitly on welfare and suggest where cuts in consumption, working hours, and ecological risks might be made most usefully. Jobs and Prices in the West Coast Region United States. Washington William T. Endicott, 2003-05-13 Praise for An Insider's Guide to POLITICAL JOBS IN WASHINGTON Bill Endicott has written a remarkable description of what Washington political jobs entail, how you get them, and where they lead. A public service. Gerald Ford, 38th President of the United States. Former Minority Leader, U.S. House of Representatives. Public service is essential to our democracy. Bill Endicott's book is the best primer I have read to help those interested in serving in our nation's capital. For those of us who have had the opportunity to work in political jobs, this experience benefits both the individual and the country. Leon Panetta, Former U.S. Representative, Director of the Office of Management and Budget, and White House Chief of Staff. A view of the process from the inside from someone who's been there many times. No other source puts all the critical tips into one place as this book does. The perspective on the process is unique. The personal anecdotes and interviews are invaluable. We plan to recommend it to everyone who walks in the door hoping to find a job in politics.
