Joes War My Father Decoded:

Joe's War Annette Kobak, 2007-12-18 Acclaimed biographer Annette Kobak turns her attention to her own family as she sets out to uncover her father's never discussed past. A mysterious and conspicuously silent figure in Annette's life for some forty-five years, Joe Kobak at last shared with his daughter his harrowing experiences during World War II which she has turned into a riveting work of history and memory. Born on the border of Poland and Czechoslovakia, Joe Kobak fled the Nazis, suffered imprisonment by the Russians, then joined Polish forces fighting in France. Later he escaped to London where he spent the duration of the war intercepting Soviet messages. In Joe's War, his daughter captures Joe Kobak's story in his own words and interweaves it with her own search for a life story she can make sense of. Embarking upon a challenging and poignant journey of her own retracing her father's footsteps across a barren and unfamiliar Ukraine, the author sheds light on the dark corners of her family history and on some of the darker aspects of the war, bringing history to life in unexpected ways.

Joe's War Annette Kobak, 2004 Chronicles the author's dramatic search into her father's secret life during and after the Second World War, recounting her discovery of his flight from the Nazis, imprisonment by the Russians, service with Polish forces, daring escape, and work as a Russian message decoder for Allied forces.

Tell Me True Patricia Hampl, Elaine Tyler May, 2008-10-14 Fourteen accomplished writers investigate the tantalizing gray area where memory and history intersect.

The War Chronicles of Jerzy Dobiecki Ian von Hientze, 2019-02-05 This tribute to the life of Jerzy Dobiecki, a Polish cavalry captain with the 18th Pułk Ułanów Pomorskich (the 18th Polish Pomeranian Lancers), is a story based on previously archived material originally written by the Captain in Polish that has been translated for the first time into English. The Captain's chronicles bring to life eye-witness accounts of his regiment's deployments during the Russo-Polish War between 1919 and 1921, one of several little-publicized wars in English and fought between Poland and her neighbors immediately following the 1914-1918 Great War. Eighteen years later, as Poland was invaded by Germany in September 1939, from his position on attachment to the Polish Ministry of Military Affairs in Warsaw, Captain Dobiecki kept a diary of battles as they developed across Poland during the first weeks of the Second World War. The diary records events as he and what remained of the Polish military High Command were evacuated to neighboring Romania when Poland was additionally overrun by Soviet forces from the east. His journal sheds light on his subsequent escape from internment across Europe to France and later on to Britain, where he served as a staff officer with the command of the Polish 1st Corps formed in exile in Scotland. Following the end of hostilities in Europe in 1945 and upon return to Britain after the fighting on the continent, like thousands of other Poles commissioned under the auspices of the Polish Resettlement Corps, Jerzy had to decide whether to return to his native Poland or whether he should try to somehow rescue and bring to England what was left of his family now trapped behind the iron curtain in eastern Poland, facing an uncertain future and severity under a Stalinist regime.

Life Writing Meg Jensen, Jane Jordan, 2009-03-26 In our age of self-publishing, self-broadcasting, and telling stories about our own lives and the lives of others are all pervasive This is also the age of the witness the age of testimony in which first hand accounts personal experience life change and evolution are valued for good or ill over distanced reflection What are we to make of all this telling of lives The essays collected in Life Writing The Spirit of the Age and the State of the Art from writers and academics associated with the Centre for Life Narrative Studies at Kingston University in London begin to address this very question and in doing so demonstrate the fluidity and diversity of life writing itself The remit of the Centre for Life Narratives is to rise to the challenge poised to writers teachers and researchers alike by this very fluidity and diversity in our discipline and is exemplified here with contributions from academics curators editors and biographers including Neal Ascherson Victoria Glendinning Professor Kathryn Hughes Hanif Kureishi Blake Morrison and Lawrence Goldman editor of the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography This collection of essays from CLN offers the reader our founding contribution to the debates that surround this era defining genre and as such presents both the state of the art and the spirit of our age

Mixing It Wendy Webster, 2018-02-02 During the Second World War people arrived in Britain from all over the world as troops war workers nurses refugees exiles and prisoners of war chiefly from Europe America and the British Empire Between 1939 and 1945 the population in Britain became more diverse than it had ever been before Through diaries letters and interviews Mixing It tells of ordinary lives pushed to extraordinary lengths Among the stories featured are those of Zbigniew Siemaszko deported by the Soviet Union fleeing Kazakhstan on a horse drawn sleigh and eventually joining the Polish army in Scotland via Iran Iraq and South Africa and Johnny Pohe the first Maori pilot to serve in the RAF who was captured and eventually murdered by the Gestapo for his part in the Great Escape This is the first book to look at the big picture of large scale movements to Britain and the rich variety of relations between different groups When the war ended awareness of the diversity of Britain's wartime population was lost and has played little part in public memories of the war Mixing It recovers this forgotten history It illuminates the place of the Second World War in the making of multinational multiethnic Britain and resonates with current debates on immigration

Postnational Memory, Peace and War Nigel Young, 2019-11-26 This book examines the phenomenon of modern memory as a reaction to total war an aspiration to truth seeking provoked by the independent forces of modern war and collective violence which is transnational or postnational in character Using examples from prose and poetry film and theatre painting and photography and music and the popular arts the author traces a narrative path through the events of the twentieth century defining the tradition of modern memory in terms of its essentially anti militaristic anti war character as expressed in the manner in which it represents recalled violence and atrocity Through a series of thematic discussions of two world wars the Shoah urbicide and nuclear weapons Postnational Memory explores the formation of transnational memory drawing on examples from industrialized societies with a focus on memory of real events and their reproduction in literature and the arts often including personal recollections that link the self to the represented past As such by asking how the concept of modern memory is constructed through the victims of war and genocide the book constitutes an alternative to national memories and hegemonic militarist or ethnocentric histories

Surveying the emergence of new transnational forms of remembering the past it will appeal to students and scholars of sociology memory studies and peace studies as well as those working in disciplines such as modern and international history cultural studies and military studies      Letters From Berlin Kerstin Lieff,2012-10-02 When Margarete Dos moved with her family to Berlin on the eve of World War II she and her younger brother were blindly ushered into a generation of Hitler Youth Like countless citizens under Hitler s regime Margarete struggled to understand what was happening to her country Later as a nurse for the German Red Cross she treated countless young soldiers recruited in the eleventh hour to fight a losing battle they would die before her eyes as Allied bombs racked her beloved city Yet her deep humanity intelligence and passion for life which sparkles in every sentence of her memoir carried Margarete through to war s end But just when she thought the worst was over and she and her mother were on a train headed to Sweden they were suddenly rerouted deep into Russia This powerful account draws back the curtain on a piece of history that has been largely overlooked the nightmare that millions of German civilians suffered simply because they were German That Margarete survived to tell her tale so vividly and courageously is a gift to us all      We Shall Bear Witness Meg Jensen,Margaretta Jolly,2014-08-26 An international array of human rights advocates scholars and survivor writers examine the profound and complex impact of personal testimony about human rights abuses as expressed through autobiography documentary film report oral history blog and verbatim theater      Czechoslovakia Michael Brenner,1997-11-13 This book the most thoroughly researched and accurate history of Czechoslovakia to appear in English tells the story of the country from its founding in 1918 to partition in 1992 from fledgling democracy through Nazi occupation Communist rule and invasion by the Soviet Union to at last democracy again The common Western view of Czechoslovakia has been that of a small nation that was sacrificed at Munich in 1938 and betrayed to the Soviets in 1948 and which rebelled heroically against the repression of the Soviet Union during the Prague Spring of 1968 Mary Heimann dispels these myths and shows how intolerant nationalism and an unhelpful sense of victimhood led Czech and Slovak authorities to discriminate against minorities compete with the Nazis to persecute Jews and Gypsies and pave the way for the Communist police state She also reveals Alexander Dubcek held to be a national hero and standard bearer for democracy to be an unprincipled apparatchik Well written revisionist and accessible this groundbreaking book should become the standard history of Czechoslovakia for years to come      An Evening Performance George Garrett,1996 The stories collected describe the conflicts of adolescence romantic and domestic turmoil life in small southern towns academic life and wartime experiences and they range in manner from the naturalistic to the near farcical

Not Without My Daughter Betty Mahmoody,William Hoffer,1991-02-15 In August 1984 Michigan housewife Betty Mahmoody accompanied her husband to his native Iran for a two week vacation To her horror she found herself and her four year old daughter Mahtob virtual prisoners of a man rededicated to his Shiite Moslem faith in a land where women are near slaves and Americans are despised Their only hope for escape lay in a dangerous underground that would not take her child Now the true story of this courageous woman and her breathtaking odyssey bursts upon the screen in the Pathe Entertainment production starring Academy Award winner Sally Field Not Without My Daughter is a Literary Guild Alternate Selection

Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide ,2005 Father Joe Tony Hendra,2005-05-31 A key comic writer of the past three decades has created his most heartfelt and hard hitting book Father Joe is Tony Hendra s inspiring true story of finding faith friendship and family through the decades long influence of a surpassingly wise Benedictine monk named Father Joseph Warrillow Like everything human it started with sex In 1955 fourteen year old Tony found himself entangled with a married Catholic woman In Cold War England where Catholicism was the subject of news stories and Graham Greene bestsellers Tony was whisked off by the woman s husband to see a priest and be saved Yet what he found was a far cry from the priests he d known at Catholic school where boys were beaten with belts or set upon by dogs Instead he met Father Joe a gentle stammering ungainly Benedictine who never used the words wrong or guilt who believed that God was in everyone and that the only sin was selfishness During the next forty years as his life and career drastically ebbed and flowed Tony discovered that his visits to Father Joe remained the one constant in his life the relationship that in the most serious sense saved it From the fifties and his adolescent desire to join an abbey himself to the sixties when attending Cambridge and seeing the satire of Beyond the Fringe convinced him to change the world with laughter not prayer to the seventies and successful stints as an original editor of National Lampoon and a writer of Lemmings the off Broadway smash that introduced John Belushi and Chevy Chase to professional disaster after co creating the legendary English series Spitting Image from drinking to drugs from a failed first marriage to a successful second and the miracle of parenthood the years only deepened Tony's need for the wisdom of his other and more real father creating a bond that could not be broken even by death. A startling departure for this acclaimed satirist, Father Joe is a sincere account of how Tony Hendra learned to love. It's the story of a whole generation looking for a way back from mockery and irony looking for its own Father Joe and a testament to one of the most charismatic mentors in modern literature. The Book Review Digest, 2005     The Boss in the Shadows Xavier Eholi, 2024-12-31 This book is a series of stories and anecdotes about my father Thomas Tommy Ryan Eholi and me. Xavier Eholi has crossed paths with many interesting characters throughout my life, most of them an extension of Dad's numerous relationships. I have met celebrities, crime bosses, and professional athletes. It was quite an interesting ride. There is no firsthand knowledge of violence or bloodshed that one may be accustomed to reading in other books about organized crime. This book is about a boss who kept his family and his Mafia family separate. He did not often take his work home with him. Although I may have overheard things over the years or picked up on subtle hints, he never discussed his daily routine. His children were naive as to who he was until we became adults and read about our dad in the newspaper. I think you'll find this book interesting, entertaining, and informative. Please enjoy our story.
