Courting Betrayal Helen

Orchard,1998-05-01 This study explores the dynamics of violence within John s Gospel focusing on the portrayal of the character of Jesus It offers an understanding of the Johannine Jesus that counters the traditional model of a serene figure who maintains sovereign control over his environment Establishing the prevalence of material indicating opposition to Jesus it argues that his experience and perception of victimization are key to his identity Furthermore it is suggested that Jesus colludes with his victimizers raising the issue of who is responsible for his betrayal and death Drawing on the disciplines of victimology literary criticism and liberation theology the work comprises targeted exegesis of substantial portions of the Gospel revealing the prominence of the theme of violence and raising a number of christological questions

Sacra Pagina: 1, 2, and 3 John John Painter,2023-05-30 The Johannine Epistles are today read as an important part of the Johannine literature Yet the meaning of the text is often unclear Part of the problem arises because although 1 John is called an Epistle it lacks the formal marks of an Epistle In 1 2 and 3 John John Painter illuminates the relationship 1 2 and 3 John have to each other and to the Gospel Painter explains the historical context of the Johannine Epistles using a socio rhetorical approach The writings are shown to reflect a situation of conflict and schism within the Johannine community they seek to persuade the readers of the truth of the writer s message In this truth the readers are encouraged to abide if they would have the assurance of eternal life Painter also examines the inseparable connection between belief and ethical life in active love for one another Through the socio rhetorical approach Painter brings to light the continuing relevance of these writings 1 2 and 3 John is divided into two parts Chapters under 1 John are Introduction to the Exegesis of 1 John Outline of 1 John First Presentation of the Two Tests 1 6 2 27 Excursus Sin and Sinlessness Excursus Love of the Brother Sister of One Another
