Kelmscott An Illustrated Guide

Dante Gabriel Rossetti

Kelmscott An Illustrated Guide:

Kelmscott Arthur Richard Dufty, Society of Antiquaries of London, 1977 Kelmscott Manor ,2004 The Routledge Companion to William Morris Florence S. Boos, 2020-10-29 William Morris 1834-96 was an English poet, decorative artist, translator, romance writer, book designer, preservationist, socialist theorist and political activist whose admirers have been drawn to the sheer intensity of his artistic endeavors and efforts to live up to radical ideals of social justice. This Companion draws together historical and critical responses to the impressive range of Morris's multi-faceted life and activities: his homes, travels, family, business practices, decorative artwork, poetry, fantasy, romances, translations, political activism, eco-socialism and book collecting and design. Each chapter provides valuable historical and literary background information, reviews relevant opinions on its subject from the late nineteenth century to the present and offers new approaches to important aspects of its topic. Morris's eclectic methodology and the perennial relevance of his insights and practice make this an essential handbook for those interested in art history, poetry, translation, literature, book design, environmentalism, political activism and Victorian and utopian studies.

The Correspondence of Dante Gabriel Rossetti Dante Gabriel Rossetti, 2002 William Morris, a Reference Guide Gary L. Aho, 1985 Delightful Places ,1984 Phenomenology, Modernism and Beyond Carole Bourne-Taylor, Ariane Mildenberg, 2010. From the first stirrings of modernism to contemporary poetics, the modernist aesthetic project could be described as a form of phenomenological reduction that attempts to return to the invisible and unsayable foundations of human perception and expression prior to objective points of view and scientific notions. It is this aspect of modernism that this book brings to the fore. The essays presented here bring into focus the contemporary face of ongoing debates about phenomenology and modernism. The contributors forcefully underline the intertwining of modernism and phenomenology and the extent to which the latter offers a clue to the former. The book presents the viewpoints of a range of internationally distinguished critics and scholars with diverse but closely related essays covering a wide range of fields including literature, architecture, philosophy and musicology. The collection addresses critical questions regarding the relationship between phenomenology and modernism with reference to thinkers such as Edmund Husserl, Maurice Merleau-Ponty, Martin Heidegger, Michel Henry and Paul Ricoeur. By examining the contemporary philosophical debates, this cross-disciplinary body of research reveals the pervasive and far-reaching influence of phenomenology which emerges as a heuristic method to articulate modernist aesthetic concerns.

The Journal of the William Morris Society ,2000 Taking a Stand in a Postfeminist World Frances E. Mascia-Lees, Patricia Sharpe, 2012-02-01. Taking a Stand in a Postfeminist World offers an engaged cultural criticism in a postfeminist context. At the end of the twentieth century, an increasingly globalized world has given rise to a cultural complexity characterized by a rapid increase in competing discourses, fragmented subjectivities and irreconcilable claims over cultural representation and who has the right to speak for or about others. While feminism has traditionally been a potent site for debates over questions that have arisen out of this context, recently it has become so splintered and suspect that its insights are often dismissed as predictable seriously reducing its capacity to offer powerful cultural criticism In this postfeminist context the authors argue for a cultural criticism that is strategic not programmatic and that preserves the multiple commitments ideas and positions required of interactions and identifications across lines of cultural racial and gender difference Selecting sites where such interactions are highlighted and under current scrutiny film consumer culture tourism anthropology and the academy the authors theorize and demonstrate the struggles and maneuvers required to take a stand on a wide range of issues of significance to the contemporary cultural moment The Antiquaries Journal ,1986 William Morris Fiona MacCarthy,2010 Biographies and autobiographies
