The Emergence of Détente in Europe Arne Hofmann,2007-06-11 This book examines the key relationship between Willy Brandt the former Mayor of West Berlin and future West German Chancellor and the administration of President John F Kennedy Arne Hofmann focuses on the administration's influence on the development of Brandt's policy of small steps and the formation of his later Ostpolitik the centrepiece of European détente Brandt's interaction with the Kennedy administration is traced through the Berlin Wall crisis of 1961 together with Kennedy's search for a modus vivendi based on the status quo the 1962 crisis in German American relations Brandt's disillusionment campaign the development of his programmatic statements Brandt's three meetings with the President including Kennedy's famous visit to Berlin the limited nuclear test ban treaty and Brandt's Berlin pass agreement of Christmas 1963 While the narrative focuses on the gradual change in Brandt's position systematic parts concentrate on Brandt's and Kennedy's détente concepts the triangular relationship between West Berlin Washington and Bonn with its implication for domestic politics and the role of images campaigning and public opinion The Emergence of D tente in Europe will appeal to students of Cold War history foreign policy international relations and international history in general The First Bilateral Investment Treaties Kenneth J. Vandeveld, 2017-04-05 The First Bilateral Investment Treaties is the first and only history of the U S postwar Friendship Commerce and Navigation FCN treaty program and focuses on the investment related provisions of those treaties The 22 U S postwar FCN treaties were the first bilateral investment treaties ever concluded and nearly all of the core provisions in the modern network of more than 3000 international investment agreements worldwide trace their origin to these FCN treaties This book explains the original understanding of the language of this vast network of agreements which have been and continue to be the subject of hundreds of international arbitrations and billions of dollars in claims It is based on a review of some 32 000 pages of negotiating history housed in the National Archives This book demonstrates that the investment provisions were founded on the New Deal liberalism of the Roosevelt Truman administrations and were intended to acquire for U S companies investing abroad the same protections that foreign investors already received in the United States under the U S Constitution It chronicles the failed U S attempt to obtain protection for investment through the proposed International Trade Organization ITO providing the first and only history of the investment related provisions in the ITO Charter It then shows how the FCN treaties which dated back to 1776 and originally concerned with establishing trade and maritime relations were re conceptualized as investment treaties to provide investment protection bilaterally This book is also a work of diplomatic history offering an account of the negotiating history of each of the 22 treaties and describing U S negotiating policy and strategy
