Studies on the structure of time R. Buccheri, Vito di Gesù, Metod Saniga, 2012-12-06 Every human being is aware of the flow of time This fact is embodied in the existence of such notions as the past and the future the two domains being separated from each other by the single moment of the present While the past is regarded as fixed and definite the future is viewed as unknown uncertain and undetermined The only perceivable moment is the present the now the ever changing point moving from the past into the future Physics tells us a different story not only are the vast majority of physical laws time reversible but the concept of the now itself has no place at all in physics In other words the equations of physics do not distinguish between the past and the future and seem to be completely oblivious to the very idea of the present This book discusses the biological and psychological aspects of perception of time and the problems related to the determination of location arising from quantum physics together with comments and opinions from philosophers and physicists

Latin American Women and the Literature of Madness Elvira Sánchez-Blake, Laura Kanost, 2015-05-11 At the turn of the millennium narrative works by Latin American women writers have represented madness within contexts of sociopolitical strife and gender inequality This book explores contemporary Latin American realities through madness narratives by prominent women authors including Cristina Peri Rossi Uruguay Lya Luft Brazil Diamela Eltit Chile Cristina Rivera Garza Mexico Laura Restrepo Colombia and Irene Vilar Puerto Rico Close reading of these works reveals a pattern of literary techniques a poetics of madness employed by the writers to represent conditions that defy language make sociopolitical crises tangible and register cultural perceptions of mental illness through literature

Greek Mythic Heroines in Brazilian Literature and Performance, 2023-12-11 This volume presents a survey of the reception of Greek myths including Antigone Medea the Trojan cycle and Alcestis in Brazilian literature and stage performance The collection addresses the work of many innovative authors some of them great names of Brazilian literature such as Jorge Andrade and Nelson Rodrigues who are influential in this specific area of classical reception and well known by modern audiences This unique volume is the product of collaboration of many scholars with different affiliations under the coordination of the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro and the Federal University of Minas Gerais Belo Horizonte two of the most prestigious universities in Brazil for the study of Classical and Reception Studies

Making of Distinctions Antony Palackal, Nandita Chaudhary, Giuseppina Marsico, 2021-01-01 The volume revolves around the theme inclusive oppositions in social sciences that address the issue of making of distinctions and create artificial dichotomies and dualistic view of society It is set against the currents of systematic reduction of anthropodiversity and psychodiversity which appears as a pathology of the current neo liberalist and colonialist model of development The volume is an attempt to overcome the colonial tendencies and forces to standardize and homogenize various categories and institutions in society by establishing structural relationality and intersectionality between the parts of the whole ecosystem where in the human and non human intersect and interact The volume brings together a unique collaboration in the field of Cultural Psychology and offers the intellectual tools to grasp how a syncretic understanding of Identity and Culture unfolds particularly in the key domain of gender The chapters and commentaries uncover cultural dynamics and identity formation from a specific location the region of Kerala in south western India The chapters and commentaries in this volume illustrates that Kerala is a cultural micro cosmos in which

gender identity religion ethnicity caste global market and tradition intersect to create complex and multiple subjects that do not fit in binary categorizations The compiled volume will be of great value to scholars researchers and academicians in Social Sciences particularly Cultural Psychology Social Psychology Sociology Social Work Political Science Philosophy Anthropology and Economics AN AFRICAN GAZE AT LATIN AMERICA Siendou A Konate, Abderrahman Beggar,2015-05-22 This work is a translation of Abderrahman Beggar s L Amerique latine vue sous une perspective maghebine as An African Gaze The Quest for the Other This book contributes to revealing the otherized gaze look of the usually otherized and ostracized on others The translation offers the opportunity to aficionados of travelogues to have an African addition to the existing stock of volumes dealing with travel literature and accounts Two Girls Roberto Schwarz,2013-01-16 Roberto Schwarz is the foremost literary critic of his generation in Brazil and the most important Marxist practitioner in the tradition of the Frankfurt School writing anywhere today This collection confirms the international significance of Schwarz s critical achievement Studies of Kafka and Brecht respectively open and close the volume which includes incisive studies of contemporary poetry and fiction in Brazil The centerpiece is the hitherto untranslated Two Girls which brings together two strongly contrasting narratives of girls lives one a classic novel the other an adolescent s diary to substantiate the crucial concept of objective form With key reflections on theory and method and an illuminating account of the general historical importance of his exemplary Brazilian novelist Machado de Assis Two Girls compellingly demonstrates the logic and significance of Schwarz s work for an English language readership Brazil Imagined Darlene J. Sadlier,2010-01-01 The first comprehensive cultural history of Brazil to be written in English Brazil Imagined 1500 to the Present captures the role of the artistic imaginary in shaping Brazil s national identity Analyzing representations of Brazil throughout the world this ambitious survey demonstrates the ways in which life in one of the world s largest nations has been conceived and revised in visual arts literature film and a variety of other media Beginning with the first explorations of Brazil by the Portuguese Darlene J Sadlier incorporates extensive source material including paintings historiographies letters poetry novels architecture and mass media to trace the nation s shifting sense of its own history Topics include the oscillating themes of Edenic and cannibal encounters Dutch representations of Brazil regal constructs the literary imaginary Modernist utopias good neighbor protocols and filmmakers revolutionary and dystopian images of Brazil A magnificent panoramic study of race imperialism natural resources and other themes in the Brazilian experience this landmark work is a boon to the field Latin American Gothic in Literature and Culture Sandra Casanova-Vizcaíno,Inés Ordiz,2017-10-24 This book explores the Gothic mode as it appears in the literature visual arts and culture of different areas of Latin America Focusing on works from authors in Mexico Central America the Caribbean the Andes Brazil and the Southern Cone the essays in this volume illuminate the existence of native representations of the Gothic while also exploring the presence of universal archetypes of terror and horror Through the analysis of global and local Gothic topics and themes they evaluate the reality of a multifaceted territory marked by a shifting colonial and postcolonial relationship with Europe and the United States The book asks questions such as Is there such a thing as Latin American Gothic in the same sense that there is an American Gothic and British Gothic What are the main elements that particularly characterize Latin American Gothic How does Latin American Gothic function in the context of globalization What do these elements represent in relation to specific national literatures What is the relationship between the Gothic and the Postcolonial What can Gothic criticism bring to the study of Latin American cultural manifestations and conversely what can these offer the Gothic The analysis performed here reflects a body of criticism that understands the Gothic as a global phenomenon with specific manifestations in particular territories while also acknowledging the effects of Globalgothic on a transnational and transcultural level Thus the volume seeks to open new spaces and areas of scholarly research and academic discussion both regionally and globally with the presentation of a solid analysis of Latin American texts and other cultural phenomena which are manifestly related to the Gothic world Machado de Assis João Cezar de Castro Rocha, 2015-10-01 This book offers an alternative explanation for one of the core dilemmas of Brazilian literary criticism the midlife crisis Machado de Assis underwent from 1878 to 1880 the result of which was the writing of The Posthumous Memoirs of Br s Cubas as well as the remarkable production of his mature years with an emphasis on his masterpiece Dom Casmurro At the center of this alternative explanation Castro Rocha situates the fallout from the success enjoyed by E a de Queir s with the publication of Cousin Bas lio and Machado s two long texts condemning the author and his work Literary and aesthetic rivalries come to the fore allowing for a new theoretical framework based on a literary appropriation of thick description the method proposed by anthropologist Clifford Geertz From this method Castro Rocha derives his key hypothesis an unforeseen consequence of Machado s reaction to E a s novel was a return to the classical notion of aemulatio which led Machado to develop a poetics of emulation Shapes, Scenes and Strokes: Book

Reviews 2015 Manuel Augusto Antão, 2016-01-13 The experience of thinking about preparing or writing a text be it a book review or about an art exhibition cannot be limited solely to the artistic experience There must always be another kind of challenge I want that elusive thing that I found together with the encounter that I had with the object and the experience we lived together Every day when I wake up I don t think about writing but I wonder whether I ll be able to rise to the calling of that particular object a book a painting a play opera etc The characters in them are never marginal figures I know that they exist but I do not know them I do not confront myself with them or I only do so in highly stereotypical situations where they almost become invisible When I write about something this is my attempt at turning the invisible into the visible The
