Faces Places And Barely Human Races:

Sound Tracks John Connell, Chris Gibson, 2003 Sound Tracks is the first comprehensive book on the new geography of popular music examining the complex links between places music and cultural identities It provides an interdisciplinary perspective on local national and global scenes from the Mersey and Icelandic sounds to world music and explores the diverse meanings of music in a range of regional contexts In a world of intensified globalisation links between space music and identity are increasingly tenuous yet places give credibility to music not least in the country and music is commonly linked to place as a stake to originality a claim to tradition and as a marketing device This book develops new perspectives on these relationships and how they are situated within cultural and geographical thought Places In the Heart Susan Kurosawa, 2012-03-01 It can be as intangible and fleeting as watching an iceberg crowded with basking seals slide by or a deep and powerful childhood memory of spine tingling excitement as a holiday destination is reached Either way the heart is touched An indelible impression is made that place that moment lives forever PLACES IN THE HEART spans the globe and embraces several decades Memories of golden childhoods celebrations of special corners of Australia love affairs with foreign fields pilgrimages back to mother countries and passion for unique cuisines result in a rich mix of anecdote memoir history social comment and fun This collection of travel writing showcases the corners of the world that have captured the hearts of Stephanie Alexander Glenn A Baker Graeme Blundell Paul Dyer Daizy Gedeon Marele Day Marion Halligan Tim Boden Sarina Bratton Christine Gee Barry Dickins Jane Holmes Susan Kurosawa Kate Llewellyn Mimi MacPherson Charmaine Solomon John and Ros Moriarty Richard Neville Tim Macartney Snape Vince Sorrenti Pria Viswalingam Steve Parish Bill Peach Mary Rossi Harry Seidler Tetsuya Wakuda Jeff Watson Tony Wheeler Mike Whitney and Sorrel Wilby Australian Book Review, 1995 Nice Place, Shame about the Human Race Allan Gilmour, 2012-10-23 He knew the earth experiment was still working even though the human element component was running very much behind schedule Tommy made a grumbling sound and slowly shook his furry head from side to side crying Wars greed jealousy illnesses unhappiness dissatisfaction obsessions for power It s just not what I had expected I know but give it time It will happen one day The earth assignment is not as old as all the other projects we have been working upon Eric hastily reassured Tommy was not about to give up on the present venture and with this thought in mind he stared with his numerous eyes into Eric s multiple eyes and with many worrisome looks he mumbled it s a nice place shame about the human race The above is an extract taken from the final piece of my foreword for the book Nice place shame about the human race which attempts to create a better awareness of our everyday actions and elucidates the importance of discovering ones true identity for a better chance of living a happier more balanced life Mounting dissatisfactions and insecurities of our modern world together with the general inquisitiveness of human nature to wish observe ones actions are areas of modern life which have gained popularity over the last decade when searching for reasoning or answers to our everyday problems Commencing at the aftermath of World War II and continuing to the present day a journey is undertaken in trying to illustrate modern western society's increased negative attitudes and behaviour and of the importance of discovering who we really are with a view to more personal happiness This book is an entertaining slightly ironical check in the mirror if you like of modern behaviour It observes how modern society has seemingly done away with aspiring to reach higher goals and standards and at the same time appears to have become content with mediocrity and of aiming towards lower levels of existence My main justifications for writing such a book were primarily based upon the search for answers as to why society in the modern western world has reached its present state of development in the constitution of which it finds itself in the present day if it is possible to live modern life in a more balanced friendlier frame of mind which would inexorably lead to more happiness and as an attempt to help you the reader into being more aware of our daily conscious and subconscious conduct towards fellow citizens and of the ensuing consequences of those actions We are to journey through the many different stages of modern western life as based upon our upbringing in an industrialised society and although you may have heard some of the themes and topics many times before I have attempted to pick out the quintessence of noting how individuals react within the confines of our various societies and communal boundaries What type of person is Nice place shame about the human race aimed for Well basically anybody who is still interested about the values of our modern society but specifically when amid the interference and confusion of modern society one is searching for personal direction into discovering oneself Emphasis has been placed upon the significance of living ones own individuality thus being aware of who one really is and of the importance of taking more self responsibility for ones actions Here is a short list of reasons compiled for those who would possibly find my work of interest 1 If feeling a little out of touch with our fast paced modern society 2 When interested in achieving more personal awareness in everyday activities 3 When concerned about societies present course of development 4 When trying to understand modern societies push and shove mentality 5 When searching for more in depth reasoning to our lives 6 When fee
