essay on their work and suggestions for further reading      Sephardism Yael Halevi-Wise, 2012-04-11 In this book Sephardism is defined not as an expression of Sephardic identity but as a politicized literary metaphor Since the nineteenth century this metaphor has occurred with extraordinary frequency in works by authors from a variety of ethnicities religions and nationalities in Europe the Americas North Africa Israel and even India Sephardism asks why Gentile and Jewish writers and cultural figures have chosen to draw upon the medieval Sephardic experience to express their concerns about dissidents and minorities in modern nations To what extent does their use of Sephardism overlap with other politicized discourses such as orientalism hispanism and medievalism which also emerged from a clash between authoritarian progressive and romantic ideologies This book brings a new approach to Sephardic Studies by situating it at a crossroads between Jewish Studies and Hispanic Studies in ways that enhance our appreciation of how historical fiction and political history have shaped and were shaped by historical attitudes toward Jews and their representation      Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world      Inextricably Bonded Rachel Feldhay Brenner, 2004-04-01 Despite the tragic reality of the continuing Israeli Arab conflict and deep rooted beliefs that the chasm between Israeli Jews and Israeli Arabs is unbridgeable this book affirms the bonds between the two communities Rachel Feldhay Brenner demonstrates that the literatures of both ethnic groups defy the ideologies that have obstructed dialogue between the two peoples Brenner argues that literary critics have ignored the variety and the dissent in the novels of both Arab and Jewish writers in Israel giving them interpretations that embrace the politics of exclusion and conform with Zionist ideology Brenner offers insightful new readings that compare fiction by Jewish writers Amos Oz A B Yehoshua David Grossman and others with fiction written in Hebrew by such Arab Israeli writers as Atallah Mansour Emile Habiby and Anton Shammas This parallel analysis highlights the moral and psychological dilemmas faced by both the Jewish victors and the Arab vanquished and Brenner suggests that the hope for release from the historical trauma lies on both sides in reaching an understanding with and of the adversary Drawing upon the theories of Walter Benjamin Jacques Lacan Sigmund Freud Emanuel Levinas and others Inextricably Bonded is an innovative and illuminating examination of literary dissent from dominant ideology      Glory and Agony Yael Feldman, 2010-09-01 Glory and Agony is the first history of the shifting attitudes toward national sacrifice in Hebrew culture over the last century Its point of departure is Zionism's obsessive preoccupation with its haunting primal scene of sacrifice the near sacrifice of Isaac as evidenced in wide ranging sources from the domains of literature art psychology philosophy and politics By placing these sources in conversation with twentieth century thinking on human sacrifice violence and martyrdom this study draws a complex picture that provides multiple sometimes contradictory insights into the genesis and gender of national sacrifice Extending back over two millennia this study unearths retellings of biblical and classical narratives of sacrifice both enacted and aborted voluntary and violent male and female Isaac Ishmael Jephthah s daughter Iphigenia Jesus Glory and Agony traces the birth of national sacrifice out of the ruins of religious martyrdom exposing the sacred underside of Western secularism in Israel as elsewhere Literature of the more than mere nostalgia could to enliven the portable homeland of modern francophone Sephardic fiction      How Close Reading Made Us Yael Segalovitz, 2024-09-01 Shows how the method of close reading traveled from the United States to Brazil and Israel revealing its profound impact on global modernisms and reframing the lasting significance of New Criticism Does reading shape who we are What happens to the relationship between reading and subject formation as methods of interpretation travel globally Yael Segalovitz probes these questions by tracing the transnational journey of the New Critical practice of close reading from the United States to Brazil and Israel in the mid twentieth century Challenging the traditional view of New Criticism as a purely aesthetic project Segalovitz illustrates its underlying pedagogical objective to cultivate close readers capable of momentarily suspending subjectivity through focused attention How Close Reading Made Us shows that close reading as a technique of the self exerted a far reaching influence on international modernist literary production impacting writers such as Clarice Lispector Yehuda Amichai William Faulkner Jo o Guimar es Rosa and A B Yehoshua To appreciate close reading s enduring vitality in literary studies and effectively adapt this method to the present Segalovitz argues we must comprehend its many legacies beyond the confines of the Anglophone tradition      Reading the Abrahamic Faiths Emma Mason, 2014-12-18 Rethinking religion and literature in a series of chapters by leading international scholars Reading the Abrahamic Faiths opens up a dialogue between Jewish Christian Islamic and Post Secular literary cultures Literary studies has absorbed religion as another interdisciplinary mode of inquiry without always attending to its multifaceted potential to question ideologically neutral readings of culture belief emotion politics and inequality In response Reading the Abrahamic Faiths contributes to a reevaluation of the nexus between religion and literature that is socially affectively and materially determined in its sensitivity to the expression of belief Each section Judaism Christianity Islam and Post Secularism is introduced by a specialist in these respective areas to introduce the critical readings of the texts and discourses that follow      Poetic Trespass Lital Levy, 2017-05-09 A Palestinian Israeli poet declares a new state whose language Homelandic is a combination of Arabic and Hebrew A Jewish Israeli author imagines a language plague that infects young Hebrew speakers with old world accents and sends the narrator in search of his Arabic heritage In Poetic Trespass Lital Levy brings together such startling visions to offer the first in depth study of the relationship between Hebrew and Arabic in the literature and culture of Israel Palestine More than that she presents a captivating portrait of the literary imagination s power to transgress political boundaries and transform ideas about language and belonging Blending history and literature Poetic Trespass traces the interwoven life of Arabic and Hebrew in Israel Palestine from the turn of the twentieth century to the present exposing the two languages intimate entanglements in contemporary works of prose poetry film and visual art by both Palestinian and Jewish citizens of Israel In a context where intense political and social pressures work to identify Jews with Hebrew and Palestinians with Arabic Levy finds writers who have boldly crossed over this divide to create literature in the language of their other as well as writers who bring the two languages into dialogue to rewrite them from within Exploring such acts of poetic trespass Levy introduces new readings of canonical and lesser known authors including Emile Habiby Hayyim Nahman Bialik Anton Shammas Saul Tchernichowsky Samir Naqqash Ronit Matalon Salman Masalha A B Yehoshua and Almog Behar By revealing uncommon visions of what it means to write in Arabic and Hebrew Poetic Trespass will change the way we understand literature and culture in the shadow of the Israeli Palestinian conflict

Orientalism and the Hebrew Imagination Yaron Peleg, 2018-07-05

Calling into question prevailing notions about Orientalism Yaron Peleg shows how the paradoxical mixture of exoticism and familiarity with which Jews related to Palestine at the beginning of the twentieth century shaped the legacy of Zionism In Peleg s view the tension between romancing the East and colonizing it inspired a revolutionary reform that radically changed Jewish thought during the Hebrew Revival that took place between 1900 and 1930 Orientalism and the Hebrew Imagination introduces a fresh voice to the contentious debate over the concept of Orientalism Zionism has often been labeled a Western colonial movement that sought to displace and silence Palestinian Arabs Based on his readings of key texts Peleg asserts that early Zionists were inspired by Palestinian Arab culture which in turn helped mold modern Jewish gender identity and culture Peleg begins with the new ways in which the lands of the Bible are formulated as a modern Orient in David Frishman s Bamidbar He continues by showing how in The Sons of Arabia Moshe Smilansky laid the basis for the literary construction of the New Jew modeled after Palestinian Arabs Peleg concludes with a discussion of L A Arielli s 1913 play Allah Karim in which both the promise and the problems of the Land of Israel as Orient marked the end of Hebrew Orientalism as a viable cultural option

A History of European Literature Walter Cohen, 2017 Walter Cohen argues that the history of European literature and each of its standard periods can be illuminated by comparative consideration of the different literary languages within Europe and by the ties of European literature to world literature World literature is marked by recurrent systematic features outcomes of the way that language and literature are at once the products of major change and its agents Cohen tracks these features from ancient times to the present distinguishing five main overlapping stages Within that framework he shows that European literature s ongoing internal and external relationships are most visible at the level of form rather than of thematic statement or mimetic representation European literature emerges from world literature before the birth of Europe during antiquity whose Classical languages are the heirs to the complex heritage of Afro Eurasia This legacy is later transmitted by Latin to the various vernaculars The uniqueness of the process lies in the gradual displacement of the learned language by the vernacular long dominated by Romance literatures That development subsequently informs the second crucial differentiating dimension of European literature the multicontinental expansion of its languages and characteristic genres especially the novel beginning in the Renaissance This expansion ultimately results in the reintegration of European literature into world literature and thus in the creation of today s global literary system The distinctiveness of European literature is to be found in these interrelated trajectories

The Dybbuk and the Yiddish Imagination Joachim Neugroschel, 2000 The Dybbuk is arguably the most famous play in the Yiddish repertoire and plays an intrinsic part in the cultural system that created the Yiddish imagination Along with this new translation this text offers a variety of literary works spanning the 17th to the 20th centuries
