Frances Spalding, Judith Collins

Jock McFadyen A About A Painter:

Jock McFadyen David Cohen,2001 This is the first survey of the work of painter Jock McFadyen McFadyen describes himself as a realist and his intense paintings describe the urban backdrop Human figures used to be central to these works but having made pictures about London New York Berlin and Belfast the locations have in many ways become the subject In these monumental paintings the central characters of his early work are replaced by commercial buildings walkways vomitories and the natural landscape Although never part of any group or movement McFadyen sees his main precedent as the line of British realism which includes Sickert L S Lowry the so called School of London and younger contemporaries such as Richard Billingham He is close to the debate about painting and its relationship to contemporary art practice He is also interested in those who have parallel concerns in other media This book places the artist not simply within the recent history of British art but also within the wider context of realism in film the contemporary novel and music from Hogarth to Punk and beyond

Jock McFadyen Rowan Moore,2019 The product of extensive interviews with the artist this new publication provides the definitive view of the work of Jock McFadyen RA Rowan Moore creates a fascinating portrait of the artist weaving together stories from McFadyen s life from being thrown out of art school as a young man for burning an effigy of the Principal to a residency at the National Gallery and a solo show at the Royal Academy of Arts in 2018 McFadyen s story begins in 1950s Scotland and continues via squats in Chelsea during the Punk era to the East End of London now the subject of many of his large scale paintings Illustrated with a brilliant selection of McFadyen s works including Tate Moss a painting derived from an illicit kayak trip with writer Iain Sinclair this publication explores the world of a celebrated contemporary painter who nevertheless believes that painting is no more cerebral a task than fixing a motorbike AUTHOR Rowan Moore is architecture critic at the Observer and was named Critic of the Year at the UK Press Awards in 2014 His books include Slow Burn City London in the Twenty first Century 2017 and Why We Build 2013 SELLING POINTS A behind the scenes glimpse into the life methods and work of contemporary painter Jock McFadyen RA by architecture critic Rowan Moore accompanied by 130 beautiful reproductions of the painter s work Accompanies an exhibition at the Royal Academy of Arts 130 colour images

McFadyen,Mary Rose Beaumont,1989 The Painter's Friend Howard Cunnell,2021-07-08 One of the books of the year Cunnell s style is matchless intimate dark sincere wry and exquisitely beautiful Irish Times A cracking urgent page turner of a novel Observer The painter Terry Godden was on the brink of his first success After a violent crisis he finds himself outcast In his fifties and with little money he retreats to a small island Arriving in the winter the island at first seems a desolate and forgotten place As the seasons turn Terry begins to see the island s beauty and discovers that he is only one of many people who have sought refuge here These independent outsiders all with their own considerable struggles have made a precarious home The island is owned by the business man and art collector Alex Kaplan His decision to enforce a rent increase as he seeks to improve his property looks set to destroy this community that cannot afford to lose the little they have left As an artist Terry believes making the invisible struggles of the island visible to the world will help but will his interference save anybody other than himself The Painter s Friend shows the human cost of gentrification for those dispossessed The novel also explores the role of art in protest and asks who gets to be an artist and what they owe in return Written with visual lyricism and driven clarity Howard Cunnell s incendiary story about class and resistance builds to an unforgettable climax It is an urgent novel for our unjust times I loved it Cunnell s writing has an unforgettable visual and moral clarity Melissa Harrison author of All Among the Barley Jock McFadyen Iain Sinclair,2001 Jock McFadyen Blond Fine Art (London),1986
