Joe Eighty Two Creation Poems:

Notational Experiments in North American Long Poems, 1961-2011 A. J. Carruthers, 2017-01-28 This book is a critical experiment that tracks the literary and poetic uses of musical notation and notational methods in North American long poems from the middle of last century to the contemporary moment Poets have readily referred to their poems as scores Yet in this study Carruthers argues that the integration of musical scores in expansive works of this period does more work than previously thought offering both resolution and escape from the demands placed on long poem form The five case studies on Langston Hughes Armand Schwerner BpNichol Joan Retallack and Anne Waldman offer approaches to reading literary scores in what might be described as a critical stave or a critical fugue of instances In differing ways musical notation and notational methods impact the form time and sometimes the ethical and political stances of these respective long poems

A poem in eight books. By the rev. Joseph Sympson, B. D Joseph Sympson, 1802 Surrealism and film after 1945 Kristoffer Noheden, Abigail Susik, 2021-07-06 This is the first volume to focus on the diverse permutations of international surrealist cinema after the canonical interwar period. The collection features eleven original contributions by prominent scholars such as Tom Gunning Michael L wy Gavin Parkinson and Michael Richardson alongside other leading and emerging researchers An introductory chapter offers a historical overview as well as a theoretical framework for specific methodological approaches The collection demonstrates that renowned figures such as Leonora Carrington Maya Deren Alejandro Jodorowsky and Jan vankmajer took part in shaping a vibrant and distinctive surrealist film culture following the Second World War Addressing highly influential films and directors related to international surrealism during the second half of the twentieth century it expands the purview of both surrealism and film studies by situating surrealism as a major force in Slips of the Mind Jennifer Soong, 2025-04-07 An audacious account of what happens when forgetting postwar cinema becomes a way of writing and writing becomes a way of forgetting In Slips of the Mind poet and critic Jennifer Soong turns away from forgetting s long standing associations with suppression privation and error to argue that the absence or failure of memory has often functioned as a generative creative principle Exploring forgetting not as the mere rejection of a literary past or a form of negative poetics Soong puts to the test its very aesthetic meaning What new structures forms of desires styles and long and short feelings do lapses in time allow What is oblivion s relationship to composition And how does the twentieth century poet come to figure as the quintessential embodiment of such questions Soong uncovers forgetting s influence on Gertrude Stein Lyn Hejinian Tan Lin Harryette Mullen Lissa Wolsak and New York School poets John Ashbery James Schuyler Bernadette Mayer and Ted Berrigan among others She reveals that forgetting s shapeshifting produces differences in poetic genre interest and degrees of intentionality and that such malleability is part of forgetting s nature Most provocatively Soong shows how losing track of things leaving them behind or finding them already gone resists overdetermination and causality in the name of surprise as poets leverage forgetting in order to replace identity with style Slips of the Mind is the kind of literary criticism that will reward all readers of modern and contemporary poetry Drama Deborah Geis, 2016-07-28 Readers and acolytes of the vital early 1950s mid 1960s writers known as the Beat
