ABE students In Bad Company, and other stories Rolf Boldrewood, 2022-09-04 In In Bad Company and Other Stories Rolf Boldrewood weaves a tapestry of narratives that illuminate the rugged landscapes and complex social dynamics of 19th century Australia. The collection presents a series of rich character driven tales that explore themes of adventure, morality, and the human condition, all set against the backdrop of the harsh yet alluring Australian bush. Boldrewood's prose combines vivid descriptive imagery with a colloquial style that draws readers into the world of gold rush towns, pastoral life, and the rugged individualism of early colonial settlers, showcasing his acute observations of both nature and society. Rolf Boldrewood, born Thomas Alexander Browne, was an astute observer of his times, having experienced the Australian gold rush firsthand. His background as a settler combined with his literary aspirations provided him with a unique perspective that informs his storytelling. Drawing on personal experiences and a deep understanding of the colonial context, Boldrewood expertly captures the essence of life in a burgeoning nation, reflecting on themes of camaraderie and the oft-ambiguous nature of bad company in both its literal and metaphorical senses. Readers will find In Bad Company indispensable for understanding early Australian literature and the sociocultural environment of its time. Boldrewood's engaging storytelling and keen insights into human behavior render this collection a compelling read for those interested in Australian history, literature, or simply the art of storytelling itself.

The Leper Spy Ben Montgomery, 2016-10-01 The GIs called her Joey. Hundreds owed their lives to the tiny Filipina woman who was one of the top spies for the Allies during World War II, stashing explosives, tracking Japanese troop movements, and smuggling maps of fortifications across enemy lines for Gen. Douglas MacArthur. As the Battle of Manila raged, young Josefina Guerrero walked through gunfire to bandage wounds and close the eyes of the dead. Her valor earned her the Medal of Freedom, but the thing that made her an effective spy was a disease that was destroying her. Guerrero suffered from leprosy, which so horrified the Japanese they refused to search her. After the war, army chaplains found her in a nightmarish leper colony and campaigned for the US government to do something it had never done: welcome a foreigner with leprosy. The fight brought her celebrity, which she used on radio and television to speak for other sufferers. However, the notoriety haunted her; after the disease was arrested and she had to find a way to disappear. Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006

Forty Steps and Other Stories Terrence Murphy, 2018-07-28 This collection of sixteen short stories is set in Egg Rock, a fictional town north of Boston. They are written in approximate chronological order, spanning hundreds of years and are linked not only by the setting but by the reappearance of characters, their ancestors, and descendants. Many are loosely based on local North Shore legends and historical events. Ragnhild is an adviser to Thorvald Eiriksson, son of Erik the Red, and brother of Leif, on his voyages to Vinland. He describes their discovery of an idyllic island during Thorvald's last days. Ezra Newhall is a jack of all trades who works at Egg Rock's sprawling, jerry-built hotel called The Castle. On the eve of the Civil War, the Castle owner's son returns home with a secret that is about to be revealed. Priscilla, a writer seeking peace and quiet in a secluded Egg Rock cottage during World War II, gets swept up by the war in a way she could never anticipate.
