John Currin:

John Currin John Currin, Robert Rosenblum, Staci Boris, Rochelle Steiner, 2003-06 Robert Rosenblum reviews Currin's output since 1990 in this monograph Seventy five provocatively titled colour plates exemplify the artist's trademark collision of classical technique and 20th century kitsch John Currin Paintings Sergio Risaliti, 2016 John Currin, 2016-11-01 Along with an insightful new essay this beautiful book features over forty five striking color reproductions of John Currin's most recent paintings spanning from 2011 to 2015 At once highly seductive and deeply perplexing John Currin's paintings draw inspiration from such disparate areas as Old Master portraits pinups pornography and B movies Consistent throughout his oeuvre however is his search for the point at which the beautiful and the grotesque hold each other in perfect balance and this new book from Gagosian Gallery demonstrates just that In his most recent work Currin layers each canvas with multiple scenes creating paintings within paintings He paints idealized yet challengingly perverse images of women from lusty nymphs and dour matrons to more ethereal feminine prototypes While his eroticized subjects often exist at odds with the popular dialogue and politics of contemporary art they entice viewers and are reproduced here in stunning detail

John Currin, John Currin John Currin, 2003 John Currin Selects Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, William Stover, John Currin, 2003 How can one understand what the artist's eye sees In this volume the first in an occasional series of monographs the Museum of Fine Arts Boston confronts the specific vision of a contemporary artist publishing reproductions of artwork chosen by that artist alongside his own pieces The celebrated young figurative painter John Currin has here selected some 30 works of portraiture ancient to modern from the MFA's permanent collection evaluating them as one might a friend enemy or lover subjectively passionately at times irrationally but always with a visceral sense of connection and personal insight Currin pairs these portraits which in their juxtaposition become a composite self portrait with commentary on the works and the ways in which they relate to his own painting John Currin John Currin, 2003 Granville County Revisited Lewis Bowling, 2003 After the publication of Images of America Granville County in 2002 author Lewis Bowling was approached by numerous residents who owned vintage photographs and wished their treasures could have been included Rather than simply regretting the absence of these images Lewis Bowling has compiled a second brilliant volume to showcase these never before seen photographs and postcards Granville County Revisited is a fantastic companion to Granville County The second volume includes classic photographs of the Granville County Courthouse Hall's Drug Store Oxford College Creedmoor High School Camp Butner Abram's Plains and many other Granville County landmarks With over 200 vintage black and white photographs the book explores Oxford Creedmoor Butner Stovall and other surrounding communities Every page reveals another aspect of the evolution of Granville County its buildings streets and people The Images of America series celebrates the history of neighborhoods towns and cities across the country Using archival photographs each title presents the distinctive stories from the past that shape the character of the community today Arcadia is proud to play a part in the preservation of local heritage making history available to all collections and family albums with detailed descriptions of the county This book s singular quality will delight longtime residents and newcomers alike while assisting the area by preserving its history for future generations John Currin John Currin,2011 John Currin worked on the painting that became The Dogwood Thieves for six years Starting with a photograph from a magazine advertisement he altered the painting several dozen times until he was satisfied with the composition This publication is based on a lecture given by John Currin in August 2010 at the Acadia Summer Arts Program P 3 John Currin: Men Alison M. Gingeras,2020-03-03 A revealing look at the evolution of male iconography in the work of one of the foremost painters of his generation Since raising the ire of the early 1990s arts establishment with his deliberately provocative portrayals of women John Currin has been best known for his brazen militantly incorrect female iconography Yet Currin has represented a range of masculine identities throughout his career as well This volume is the first to focus exclusively on this aspect of his work examining the evolution of his equally provocative depictions of men It ranges from little known early works on paper and a series of kitschy paintings of men with beards to signature eccentric figures such as the elderly reader in the painting 2070 2005 and his more baroque genre scenes featuring male couples Published to accompany the exhibition John Currin My Life as a Man at the Dallas Contemporary it offers a revealing new assessment of Currin s pictorial examinations of sexual politics John Currin ,2003 Genealogy of the Sharpless Family, Descended from John and Jane Sharples, Settlers Near Chester, Pennsylvania, 1682, Together with Some Account of the English Ancestry of the Family, Including the Researches by Henry Fishwick, P.H.S., and the Late Joseph Lemuel Chester;and a Full Report of the Bi-centennial Reunion of 1882 Gilbert Cope,1887 History of Oakland County Michigan Thaddeus De Witt Seeley,1912 Seeing Out Loud Jerry Saltz,2003 Literary Nonfiction Art In SEEING OUT LOUD Saltz critically engages with notable works of art by over 100 notable artists ranging from Picasso Matisse and Warhol to Matthew Barney Gerhard Richter and Chris Ofili These reviews appeared in the Village Voice between November 1998 and winter 2003 Jerry Saltz is the best informed and hair trigger liveliest of contemporary art critics tracking pleasure and jump starting intelligence on the fly Jerry s fast takes usually stand up better in retrospect than other people s long views Peter Schjedaahl Jerry Saltz looks at art from the perspective of the viewer the ignorant the lover and the enemy His writing is overwhelmingly passionate yet without sentimentality His words pierce the content and beauty of each work of art to test its endurance in time and memory Francesco Bonami Curator 2003 Venice Biennale A World History of Art Hugh Honour,John Fleming,2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity s artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression Lives of the Artists Calvin Tomkins,2010-01-05 Whether writing about Jasper Johns or Jeff Koons Cindy Sherman or Richard Serra Calvin Tomkins shows why it is both easier and more difficult to make art today If art can be anything where do you begin For more than three decades Calvin Tomkins s incisive profiles in The New Yorker have given readers the most satisfying reports on contemporary art and artists available in any language In Lives of the Artists ten major artists are captured in Tomkins s cool and ironic style to record the new directions art is taking during these days of limitless freedom As formal technique and rigorous training continue to fall away art has become an approach to living As the author says the lives of contemporary artists are today so integral to what they make that the two cannot be considered in isolation Among the artists profiled are Jeff Koons and Damien Hirst the reigning heirs of deliberately outrageous art that feeds off the allegedly corrupting influences of capitalist glut and entertainment Matthew Barney of the pregenital obsessions Cindy Sherman who manages multiple transformations as she disappears into her own work and Julian Schnabel who has forged a second career as award winning film director Tomkins shows that the making of art remains among the most demanding jobs on earth
