John Clare's Romanticism Adam White, 2017-07-19 This book offers a major reassessment of John Clare's poetry and his position in the Romantic canon Alert to Clare's knowledge of the work of his Romantic contemporaries and near contemporaries it puts forward the first extended series of comparisons of Clare's poetry with texts we now think of as defining the period in particular poems by Robert Burns William Wordsworth Lord Byron and John Keats It makes fully evident Clare's original contribution to the aesthetic culture of the age by analysing how he explores a wide range of concerns and preoccupations which are central to and especially privileged in Romantic period poetics including fancy the sublime childhood ruins joy poesy and a love lyric marked by a peculiar self consciousness about sincere expression At the heart of this book is the claim that the hitherto under scrutinised subjective stances transcendent modes and abstract qualities of Clare's lyric poetry situate him firmly within and as fundamentally part of Romanticism at the same time as his writing constitutes a distinctive contribution to one of the most fascinating eras of English literature

Lucid Interval George MacLennan, 1992 MacLennan approaches the eight writers from a broadly sociohistorical viewpoint and takes into account relevant biographical and medical evidence where available examining their situations as revealed or mediated by their writings Through a series of detailed analyses he argues that these writings bear witness to a progressively increasing degree of psychological inwardness in Western culture This is a process that affects both how madness is experienced by the individual and how it is expressed in subjective writing By the late eighteenth century madness becomes for a significant number of writers and artists an intimately interiorized condition one which implicates their entire affective life It is this subjectivized and existential madness that in the Romantic period and subsequently has been taken to express an inner truth in an increasingly secularized and alienating state of society In taking these developments into account Lucid Interval is able to arrive at a fresh understanding of the appearance in the modern period of such figures as Clare and de Nerval writers who suffer madness as an inner subjective catastrophe but who in the midst of that experience are able to explore it creatively so producing a literature of madness which is a new phenomenon in itself and which sets a troubling precedent for modern culture BOOK JACKET The Broadview Anthology of Literature of the Revolutionary Period 1770-1832 ,2010 A demonstrates the legacies of Romanticism which animate the poetry and poetics of Eavan Boland Gillian Clarke John Burnside and Kathleen Jamie It argues that the English Romantic tradition serves as a source of inspiration and critical contention for these Irish Welsh and Scottish poets and it relates this engagement to wider concerns with gender nation and nature which have shaped contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Covering a substantial number of works from the 1980s to the 2010s the book discusses how Boland and Clarke as women poets from the Republic of Ireland and Wales react to a male dominated and Anglocentric lyric tradition and thus rework notions of the Romantic It examines how Burnside and Jamie challenge adopt and revise Romantic aesthetics of nature and environment The book is the first in depth study to read Boland Clarke Burnside and Jamie as post Romantics By disentangling the aesthetic and critical conceptions of Romanticism which inform their inheritance it develops an innovative approach to the understanding of contemporary poetry and literary influence
