Katun Cindy L. Hull, 2004 The focus of this case study is the changing social and economic structure of the henequen zone in northwest Yucatan Mexico with special attention paid to women s economic participation The henequen zone is unique in that it has been dominated by hacienda and state controlled monocrop production since the colonial era In recent years this system of production has deteriorated Since the author s first fieldwork in the 1970 s the area has faced economic decline as the henequen sisal used for the production of binder twine and rope market has collapsed Recent national policies have further shaped the current economic and social conditions in the region During numerous research periods since that time the author has been recording the following trends in one village The increase in mixed economic strategies among villagers

The dramatic expansion of women's economic participation outside of the home and their increased social and political involvement in the village. Out migration from the village to Meria the state capitol to the resort islands of the Caribbean and in some cases outside of the state of Yucatan. Within these shifting economic and social positions the text explores how families and communities develop in order to maintain themselves and their culture. The theme of the case study is change and resilience. Journal of Mesoamerican Studies, 2003 The Nahua Newsletter, 2003 Im/Tb Cult Anthropology Gary Ferraro, 2005-04 Riding Spirit Horse: A Journey Into Shamanism Michael Drake, 2022-01-04 In this visionary memoir author Michael Drake recounts his spiritual journey into shamanism. Drake's engaging narrative moves from his first ecstatic experience as a youth at a church revival to his mystical shamanic awakening, transformational pilgrimages to sacred places, working with indigenous wisdom keepers to the experiences that prompted his writing, particularly his trance experiences riding the drum or Spirit Horse. Studying with Native elders and shamans, Drake discovered his shamanic gifts as a drummer, storyteller, and ceremonialist. Riding Spirit Horse takes readers on a transcendent pilgrimage of the soul through birth, death, rebirth, ritual, and ceremony to the frontiers of expanded consciousness. Globalization and Change in Fifteen Cultures George Spindler, Janice E. Stockard, 2007 Explore cultural change with GLOBALIZATION AND CHANGE IN FIFTEEN CULTURES. BORN IN ONE WORLD, LIVING IN ANOTHER.
