Beyond Abuse in the Christian Home Catherine Clark Kroeger, Nancy Nason-Clark, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, 2008-08-15 In January 2004 a newly founded evangelical organization called PASCH was formed The word denotes the Passover or time of new beginnings when God kept people safe in their own homes before leading them into freedom from abuse and oppression Yet the word PASCH also stands for Peace and Safety in the Christian Home PASCH began as a small group of therapists sociologists domestic violence experts clergy biblical scholars survivors and dedicated Christians In essence PASCH was born out of the cries confusion and frustration of the people of God As we encountered many horrifying situations of domestic abuse in Christian homes those of us who seek to address various aspects of the issue concluded that we needed a fellowship of concerted study prayer and action It was the dream of Catherine Clark Kroeger that an edited book might emerge from the 2005 and 2006 PASCH conferences in order that the papers presentations and discussions might be widely available We found that to make that happen we needed to work together that each of us possessed one piece of the puzzle and that by God s grace we could collectively begin to put the pieces together The topic of abuse is ugly which is why so many Christians shy away from discussing it But in this volume we have tried to present an accurate faith based analysis of abuse in the Christian family context We hope that various chapters stimulate discussion sometimes debate and in so doing prompt pastor and people to action We call on you the reader to consider the various ideas and perspectives offered throughout the book Hopefully each chapter will prompt you to consider afresh how you conceptualize violence among families of faith Like you the reader the contributors to our collection come from various faith traditions work in different contexts and see the issue in part based on their own narrative and training Yet despite our differences and our ongoing debates we are unanimous that violence has no place in the home Every home should be a safe place every home a shelter When abuse occurs in families of faith it is the responsibility of the church to offer compassion and support to victims and to call those who act abusively to accountability and justice Our edited collection includes Dan Allender speaking from the heart about the impact of the fall on relationships between men and women Al Miles reflecting on his pastoral experience of the difficulties and opportunities of speaking out against violence in Christian families Bruce and Karen McAndless Davis offering one couple's story of the long journey toward accountability and dramatic change Julie Owens retelling her own dramatic story of abuse the life imprisonment of her ex partner and what she wished every pastor knew about domestic violence

Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Terrorism, Nonproliferation, and Human Rights,2003 A'Kyria Our Own Game Company,2011-02-15 This is A Kyria Somewhere out in space lies the edge of the universe a point where there is no more void but an anti void or a full space It is a wall of matter so wide so far reaching that the beings of a thousand planets cannot trace the end of it It is where dark matter ends and white matter begins The end of the universe it seems is just the beginning of a world so vast that physics must discover new laws to explain it The surface is merely the edge of where one stage of the universe transitions into the next The mysterious white matter has mass but is not effected by or generates gravity Other mass centers create gravity they can exist anywhere and in any combination In this Universe the types of lands are as diverse as the imagination can create Suns orbit some lands to create rings of life along the endless surface Our forbears who believed that the sun orbited the planet would find their beliefs valid Life might exist in a figure 8 set of rings around cavern entrances radiating areas from tropical to glacial Moons or planetoids could spin around their own centers creating kaleidoscopes of orbiting bodies In other areas suns might exist below the surface creating cavernous lands that cover the surface like lichen a Dyson sphere with the star positioned in the center and life on the walls In A Kyria the lands do not need to be traditional or follow the methods we deem normal to create places of splendor Some lands might not need a star at all but maybe a moon heated by a sun when exiting a cavern and brings the heat down with it as it travels Imagine a weaker dimmer star that travels through a channel with all the life existing upon the surface of the cavern The sun sets when it rises above the surface leaving the cavern in darkness There are lands in permanent twilight from suns that barely rise above the surface as well as others that remain fixed giving constant daylight and burned lands where the suns are too close together There are frozen wastes and oceans that stretch to the edges of forever lands of strange beliefs alien bizarre or comforting in its familiarity It is a land of infinite possibilities where magic and technology peasant and space ranger can meet just as easily as neighbors taking out the trash It is a world where the only limits are the limits you place on yourself Welcome to A Kyria Real Life

Unruh,2022-06-15 This volume proposes that the work of community colleges has expanded beyond equity into providing a true barrier free learning environment for students one that is attuned to justice The essays included here serve as evidence and examples of the productive ways in which educators may bring theory and practice to bear on each other which in turn may allow community college faculty staff and administrators to reexamine the role of a community college as a space for justice Topics explored with this volume include liberatory educational practices in and out of the classroom transforming classrooms into the site of collaboration and contestation and unique visions of how to promote opportunity for marginalized students Ultimately the goal of this edited volume is to explore and encourage community college educators to understand the integral role they play in bringing transformative justice to their students and their communities Exalted Quest
