Edward Hopper Gail Levin, 2023-02-07 New York Times Notable Book Los Angeles Times Book Prize Finalist Wall Street Journal one of five best artist biographies Edward Hopper's canvasses are filled with stripped down spaces and unrelenting light evocative landscapes and the lonely aspects of men and women seemingly isolated in their surroundings What kind of man had this haunting vision and what kind of life engendered this art No one is better qualified to answer these questions than art historian Gail Levin author and curator of the major studies and exhibitions of Hopper's work In this intimate biography she reveals the true nature and personality of the man himself and of the woman who shared his life the artist Josephine Nivison Hollywood at the Races Alan Shuback, 2019-11-05 An informative and amusing look at the close relationship between Golden Age Hollywood and West Coast horse racing A fascinating read Christina Rice author of Mean Moody Magnificent Horse racing was so popular and influential between 1930 and 1960 that nearly 150 racing themed films were released including A Day at the Races Thoroughbreds Don't Cry and National Velvet This fast paced gossipy history explores the relationship between the Hollywood film industry the horse racing industry and the extraordinary participation of producers directors and actors in the Sport of Kings Alan Shuback details how all three of Southern California's major racetracks were founded by Hollywood luminaries Hal Roach was cofounder of Santa Anita Park Bing Crosby founded Del Mar with help from Pat O'Brien and Jack and Harry Warner founded Hollywood Park with help from dozens of people in the film community The races also provided a social and sporting outlet for the film community studios encouraged film stars to spend a day at the races especially when a new film was being released The stars presence at the track generated a bevy of attention from eager photographers and movie columnists as well as free publicity for their new films Moreover Louis B Mayer Bing Crosby Fred Astaire Betty Grable and Don Ameche were all major Thoroughbred owners while Mickey Rooney Chico Marx and John Huston were notorious for their unsuccessful forays to the betting windows The more entertaining vignettes pair the names of old time screen stars with ribald tales of racetrack depravity Thoroughbred Daily News
