SPACE LEGEND      No Future in This Country Andre E. Johnson, 2020-10-21 Winner of the 2021 Book of the Year Award from the Religious Communication Association Winner of the 2021 Top Book Award from the National Communication Association's African American Communication and Culture Division Black Caucus No Future in This Country The Prophetic Pessimism of Bishop Henry McNeal Turner is a history of the career of Bishop Henry McNeal Turner 1834 1915 specifically focusing on his work from 1896 to 1915 Drawing on the copious amount of material from Turner's speeches editorial and open and private letters Andre E Johnson tells a story of how Turner provided rhetorical leadership during a period in which America defaulted on many of the rights and privileges gained for African Americans during Reconstruction Unlike many of his contemporaries during this period Turner did not opt to proclaim an optimistic view of race relations Instead Johnson argues that Turner adopted a prophetic persona of a pessimistic prophet who not only spoke truth to power but in so doing also challenged and pushed African Americans to believe in themselves At this time in his life Turner had no confidence in American institutions or that the American people would live up to the promises outlined in their sacred documents While he argued that emigration was the only way for African Americans to retain their personhood status he also would come to believe that African Americans would never emigrate to Africa He argued that many African Americans were so oppressed and so stripped of agency because they were surrounded by continued negative assessments of their personhood that belief in emigration was not possible Turner's position limited his rhetorical options but by adopting a pessimistic prophetic voice that bore witness to the atrocities African Americans faced Turner found space for his oratory which reflected itself within the lament tradition of prophecy      Bright Future Business Pero Micic, 2025-03-13 What to do today to be successful tomorrow What you as a business owner should do today to ensure more success tomorrow The masterplan for the future of your business by a leading expert on future management Small and medium sized enterprises are the backbone of the German economy 99.5% of German companies employ less than 250 employees Yet for all its acclaim the SME sector looks to the future with justified concern The threat of being eaten up by competition has never looked so great The good news is that the path to a bright future business is open to all so long as they recognise the right levers to pull and are willing to act with courage In his new book Pero Micic an expert in future management an entrepreneur and an experienced business consultant lays out what this entails with detailed recommendations for action based on the case studies of three real life entrepreneurs Whether you manage five employees or 250 whether you're a solopreneur a business owner or the managing director of an SEO this systematic yet practice oriented guide reveals what you must know and do today in order to be more successful tomorrow This roadmap to a successful business future is complemented by add on digital content including videos and workshops      A New History of the Future in 100 Objects Adrian Hon, 2020-10-06 A riveting imagined history looking back on the twenty first century through one hundred of its artifacts from silent messaging systems to artificial worlds on asteroids In the year 2082 a curator looks back at the twenty first century offering a history of the era through a series of objects and artifacts He reminisces about the power of connectivity which was reinforced by such technologies as silent messaging wearable computers that relay subvocal communication quotes from a self help guide to making friends with posthumans describes the establishment of artificial worlds on asteroids and recounts pro democracy movements in epistocratic states In A New History of the Future in 100 Objects Adrian Hon constructs a possible future by imagining the things it might leave in its wake

The Grace and the Severity of the Ideal Victor Kestenbaum,2021-03-03 In this highly original book Victor Kestenbaum calls into question the oft repeated assumption that John Dewey s pragmatism has no place for the transcendent Kestenbaum demonstrates that far from ignoring the transcendent ideal Dewey s works on education ethics art and religion are in fact shaped by the tension between the natural and the transcendent Kestenbaum argues that to Dewey the pragmatic struggle for ideal meaning occurs at the frontier of the visible and the invisible the tangible and the intangible Penetrating analyses of Dewey s early and later writings as well as comparisons with the works of Hans Georg Gadamer Michael Oakeshott and Wallace Stevens shed new light on why Dewey regarded the human being s relationship to the ideal as the most far reaching question of philosophy For Dewey the pragmatic struggle for the good life required a willingness to surrender the actual experienced good for a possible ideal good Dewey s pragmatism helps us to understand the place of the transcendent ideal in a world of action and practice

Back to the Future in the Caves of Kaua'i David A. Burney,2010-01-01 For two decades paleoecologist David Burney and his wife Lida Pigott Burney have led an excavation of Makauwahi Cave on the island of Kaua i uncovering the fascinating variety of plants and animals that have inhabited Hawaii throughout its history From the unique perspective of paleoecology the study of ancient environments Burney has focused his investigations on the dramatic ecological changes that began after the arrival of humans one thousand years ago detailing not only the environmental degradation they introduced but also asking how and why this destruction occurred and most significantly what might happen in the future Using Kaua i as an ecological prototype and drawing on the author s adventures in Madagascar Mauritius and other exciting locales Burney examines highly pertinent theories about current threats to endangered species restoration of ecosystems and how people can work together to repair environmental damage elsewhere on the planet Intriguing illustrations including a reconstruction of the ancient ecological landscape of Kaua i by the artist Julian Hume offer an engaging window into the ecological marvels of another time A fascinating adventure story of one man s life in paleoecology Back to the Future in the Caves of Kaua i reveals the excitement and occasional frustrations of a career spent exploring what the past can tell us about the future

The Environment: Towards a Sustainable Future Dutch Committee for Long-Term Environmental Policy,2012-12-06 A sustainable future a world in which sustainable development is possible and guaranteed In this book the Dutch Committee for Long Term Environmental Policy an expert advisory board to the Dutch Minister of Housing Physical Planning and Environment shows possible ways in which society can move towards a sustainable future The book goes in search of a new social order an order in which sustainability is guaranteed This search holds four main elements signs of hope which positive initiatives and developments exist which will lead to a sustainable future transformations which transformations are needed to reach a sustainable future philosophical and methodological reflections can one predict the future institutions what are the necessary changes in the basic institutions of society to reach a sustainable future The committee has invited well known experts from different disciplinary backgrounds to check the existing social order from a point of sustainability and to give recommendations for a sustainable future The central conclusion is that we are in need of an evolving green strategy aimed at sustainability The contours of this strategy are described and a large set of recommendations to reach a sustainable future are given As the committee states There is no certainty and no statistical probability for a sustainable future but there is at least a chance

Embracing the Past—Forging the Future Wm. Andrew Schwartz, John M. Bechtold, 2015-09-17 The times they are a changin' As such our theology needs to adapt to be responsive to the changing landscape The idea for Embracing the Past Forging the Future A New Generation of Wesleyan Theology came from our assessment that Wesleyan theology has yet to fully adapt to this changing landscape and that the future of Wesleyan theology requires the bringing together of old and new voices The difficult task of balancing between continuity and change keeping up with the developments of our culture and staying true to the roots of our tradition requires the dual focus of looking forward and backward simultaneously In this volume we have brought together contributions by young Wesleyan scholars graduate students and junior faculty as a way of illustrating and articulating a new generation of Wesleyan theology These younger voices demonstrate the desire to push Wesleyan theology in new directions Additionally we have included contributions from senior scholars who have been doing important work and who have already made significant contributions to Wesleyan theology This is not simply the old guard but the voices of scholars who continue to make a profound impact on Wesleyan theology

A Methodology for Developing Army Acquisition Strategies for an Uncertain Future John E. Peters,2007 This monograph addresses the following two specific questions What should a robust acquisition investment strategy look like one designed to perform well against all anticipated threats How should the Army acquisition community assess the appropriateness of its investment strategy over time The study proposes adaptation of a RAND tool called Assumption Based Planning to help Army personnel maintain proper alignment between strategic guidance and the Army acquisition program and budget It uses this tool to create a model that recommends acquisition investments across a broad range of capabilities The model works toward the goal of satisfying the complex and evolving requirements specified in the national security guidance The model applies five main steps by identifying 1 the assumptions that underlie Army acquisition policy 2 load bearing assumptions i e important assumptions that underpin and shape Army acquisition plans 3 signposts or indicators that an assumption is becoming vulnerable 4 shaping actions that can be taken to keep assumptions viable and 5 hedging actions that can be taken to prepare for unwelcome but unpreventable developments For the acquisitions community shaping and hedging actions both take the form of investments

Visions of the Future in Roman Frontier Kingdoms 100 BCE-100 CE Richard Teverson,2024-09-03 This is the first book length exploration of the ways art from the edges of the Roman Empire represented the future examining visual representations of time and the role of artwork in Roman imperial systems This book focuses on four kingdoms from across the empire Cottius s Alpine kingdom in the north King Juba II s Mauretania in the south west Herodian Judea in the east and Kommagene to the north east Art from the imperial frontier is rarely considered through the lens of the aesthetics of time and Roman provincial art and the monuments of allied rulers are typically interpreted as evidence of the interaction between Roman and local identities In this interdisciplinary study which explores statues wall paintings coins monuments and inscriptions readers learn that these artworks served as something more they were created to represent the futures that allied rulers and their people foresaw The pressure of Roman imperialism drove patrons and artists on the empire s borders to imbue their creations with increasingly sophisticated ideas about the future as they wrestled with consequential decisions made under periods of intense political pressure Comprehensively illustrated and providing an important new approach to Roman material culture at the edge of empire Visions of the Future in Roman Frontier Kingdoms 100 BCE 100 CE is suitable for students and scholars working on Rome and its frontiers as well as Roman material culture more broadly and those studying the aesthetics of time in art and art history
