Instructional Models For Course Design Development:

Instructional Models for Course Design & Development Reginald F. Melton, 1982 Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century Fudge, Tamara Phillips, Ferebee, Susan Shepherd, 2021-06-25 The world of education has undergone major changes within the last year that have pushed online instruction to the forefront of learning Thanks to the COVID 19 pandemic online learning has become paramount to the continued and uninterrupted teaching of students and has forced students and teachers alike to adjust to an online learning environment Though some have already returned to the traditional classroom or plan to very soon others have begun to appreciate the value of online education initiatives that had previously been discussed but never acted upon as they have been in the past year With plenty of positive and negative aspects online learning is a complex issue with numerous factors to consider It is an issue that must be studied and examined in order to improve in the future Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century examines the issues and difficulties of online teaching and learning as well as potential solutions and best practices This book includes an examination on the value of teaching fully via the internet as well as the challenges inherent in the training of teachers to teach in online environments While addressing key elements of remote learning such as keeping student data safe as well as methods in which to engage students this book covers topics that include assessment tools teaching deaf students web technology and standardized curricula Ideal for K 12 teachers college faculty curriculum developers instructional designers educational software developers administrators academicians researchers and students this book provides a thorough overview of online education and the benefits and issues that accompany it Hybrid-Context Instructional Model Udeme T. Ndon, 2010-10-01 This book is a product of a dissertation project that was completed in December 2006 This project investigated teachers experiences in relation to teaching and learning using the hybrid context instructional model The dissertation itself has been noted as one of the best in providing practical tips for teachers in this area The study methodology is included as appendix B To answer the questions raised during the interviews the findings of the study have been supplemented and supported with extensive literature review of empirical studies to provide theoretical and practical solutions The literature review draws from total Internet blended and hybrid instruction studies The literature on the total Internet instruction has relevance in that the Internet piece of the hybrid context course shares the same course management systems and requires the same approaches and principles as do total Internet instruction The book discusses the conceptual and descriptive presentations of the hybrid context model media applicable teaching philosophies strategies best accomplished in each medium various ways of linking the face to face and the Internet activities the why and how the study participants transitioned into teaching hybrid context courses teachers expectations etc The discussion on labor of love is the core of this book as the discussion has captured the surprises the study participants met in a way that is not reflected in the current literature Built into this discussion are the amounts of things teachers had to learn in order to function well as hybrid context model teachers The contents of this book will aide teachers who teach in any way using the Internet Therefore any establishment individual using the Internet for teaching and learning will benefit from the contents of this book Also the administrators will find this book a selling point to encourage more participation in the adoption of the hybrid context instructional model as well as realizing what the teachers would need to successfully implement this phenomenon

Conducting Educational Design Research Susan McKenney, Thomas C Reeves, 2013-06-19 Among the wide variety of backgrounds many of those active in defining and applying educational design research appear to have arrived through an interest in psychology the learning sciences or instructional design Although most design studies are carried out in multi disciplinary teams participants need to conceptually understand the marriage between the design discipline and scientific research traditions Conducting Educational Design Research emphasises the application of design knowledge and skills in research programs guiding readers through the various disciplinary backgrounds and scientific developments current today Therefore this book on design research will be especially useful for faculty and students in a graduate education programs where exposure to research methodologies is strong but exposure to design methodologies is limited and b graduate programs in instructional design where participants have strong backgrounds in design but may lack the scientific research orientation In a time when design research is gaining momentum it seems notable that educational research programs are being confronted with the randomized field trials movement and educational design programs are at risk of diluting their design character as valuable curricular time is being usurped by more traditional research skills This book not only offers an invaluable classroom resource it also provides for the ongoing university dialogue on how to best prepare the next generation of educational researchers Provided by publisher
