Guides to Library Collection Development John Thomas Gillespie,Ralph J. Folcarelli,1994-08-15 Intended to enhance collection development in school public and college libraries this volume lists and annotates approximately 1 500 significant bibliographies published from 1985 through 1993 with some earlier but still useful publications Annotations indicate scope of the work size often the number of entries kinds of material included purpose arrangement nature of entries indexes special features and a recommendation Author title and subject indexes provide easy access to the entries With its deep and comprehensive coverage this work will help not only in the process of selecting and acquiring materials for the library but also in the process of identification of items for reference readers advisory interlibrary loan and collection evaluation The A to Z of Animation and Cartoons Nichola Dobson, 2010-04-01 Animation was once a relatively simple matter using fairly primitive means to produce rather short films of subjects that were generally comedic and often quite childish However things have changed and they continue changing at a maddening pace One new technique after another has made it easier faster and above all cheaper to produce the material which has taken on an increasing variety of forms The A to Z of Animation and Cartoons is an introduction to all aspects of animation history and its development as a technology and industry beyond the familiar cartoons from the Disney and Warner Bros Studios This is done through a chronology an introductory essay photos a bibliography and over 200 cross referenced dictionary entries on animators directors studios techniques films and some of the best known characters Medieval and Early Modern Film and Media R. Burt, 2016-04-30 Medieval and Early Modern Film and Media contextualizes historical films in an innovative way not only relating them to the history of cinema but also to premodern and early modern media This philological approach to the pre history of cinema engages both old media such as scrolls illuminated manuscripts the Bayeux Tapestry and new digital media such as DVDs HD DVDs and computers Burt examines the uncanny repetitions that now fragment films into successively released alternate cuts and extras footnote tracks audiocommentaries and documentaries that re structure and reframe historical films thereby presenting new challenges to historicist criticism and film theory With a double focus on recursive narrative frames and the cinematic paratexts of medieval and early modern film this book calls our attention to strange sometimes opaque phenomena in film and literary theory that have previously gone unrecognized Billboard, 1995-06-03 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Videodiscs in Healthcare: A Guide to the Industry Scott Alan Stewart, 1990-05-01 Provides an overview of the use of interactive video technology for education and training in the health professions including Medicine Nursing Allied Health Dentistry Patient Education and Health Promotion Chapters cover optical storage technology pharmaceutical companies universities colleges hospitals commercial vendors public organizations professional associations testing certification museum public exhibits information systems and research surveys Includes a list of resources for additional information including books periodicals directories market reports conferences workshops special interest groups awards demonstration centers and disc mastering companies Projects for
