Vietnam, 1964-1973 ,1990 Storms over the Mekong William Pace Head,2020-04-30 From the defeat of the Army of the Republic of Vietnam at Ap Bac to the battles of the Ia Drang Valley Khe Sanh and more Storms over the Mekong offers a reassessment of key turning points in the Vietnam War Award winning historian William P Head not only reexamines these pivotal battles but also provides a new interpretation on the course of the war in Southeast Asia In considering Operation Rolling Thunder for example which Head dubs as too much rolling and not enough thunder readers will grasp the full scope of the campaign from specifically targeted bridges in North Vietnam to the challenges of measuring success or failure the domestic political situation and how over time Head argues slowly but surely Rolling Thunder dug itself into a hole Likewise Head shows how the battles for Saigon and Hue during the Tet Offensive of 1968 were tactical defeats for the Communist forces with as many as 40 000 killed and no real gains At the same time however Tet made it clear to many in Washington that victory in Vietnam would require a still greater commitment of men and resources far more than the American people were willing to invest Storms over the Mekong is a blow by blow account of the key military events to be sure But beyond that it is also a measured reconsideration of the battles and moments that Americans thought they already knew adding up to a new history of the Vietnam War Last Flight from Saigon A. J. C. LaValle, 2012-06-04 This monograph is an exciting and moving account of how all our Services as well as several civilian agencies pulled together to pull off the largest aerial evacuation in history what many have referred to as the modern day Dunkirk The authors have carefully pieced together an amazing story of courage determination and American ingenuity Above all it is a story about saving lives one that is seldom told in times of war They Are All My Family John P. Riordan, 2015-04-07 Published for the fortieth anniversary of the final days of the Vietnam War this is the suspenseful and moving tale of how John Riordan an assistant manager of Citibank's Saigon branch devised a daring plan to save 106 Vietnamese from the dangers of the Communist takeover Riordan who had served in the US Army after the Tet Offensive and had left the military behind for a career in international banking was not the type to take dramatic action but once the North Vietnamese Army closed in on Saigon in April 1975 and it was clear that Riordan's Vietnamese colleagues and their families would be stranded in a city teetering on total collapse he knew he could not leave them behind Defying the objections of his superiors and going against the official policy of the United States Riordan went back into Saigon to save them In fifteen harrowing trips to Saigon's airport he maneuvered through the bureaucratic shambles claiming that the Vietnamese were his wife and scores of children It was a ruse that at times veered close to failure yet against all odds the improbable plan succeeded At great risk the Vietnamese left their lives behind to start anew in the United States and now John is known to his grateful Vietnamese colleagues and hundreds of their American descendants as Papa They Are All My Family is a vivid narrative of one man's ingenious strategy which transformed a time of enormous peril into a display of extraordinary courage Reflecting on those fateful days in this account John Riordan's modest heroism provides a striking contrast to America's ignominious retreat from the decade of conflict U.S. Marines in Vietnam: Dunham, G.R., Quinlan, D.A. The bitter end, 1973-1975 United States. Marine Corps. History and Museums Division, 1977 52-Charlie Edward T. Gushee, 2009 420 members of the aviation cadet class of 52 Charlie received their wings in May of 1952 Some transitioned into jet fighters some into multi engine aircraft Most members of this famous class flew combat missions in Korea or Vietnam or both Their stories recounted within are stories of bravery and sacrifice and are sometimes tragic often humorous and always dedicated Quinn Fuller was shot down on his first combat mission Wounded and bleeding he was picked up by a chopper under heavy fire He returned to his base and flew an additional ninety nine missions Dick Spaulding's oxygen system failed and he was forced to fly for more than thirty minutes over North Korea while slipping in and out of consciousness Ralph Mackey a bombardier and later a member of 52 Charlie watched from another aircraft as his crew was shot down over Germany in WWII General Jim McDivitt defied death in Korea and again at Edwards Air Force Base as a test pilot before donning a space suit and flying missions in the Gemini and Apollo programs The Spy Who Loved Us Thomas A. Bass, 2009-02-10 Pham

Xuan An was a brilliant journalist and an even better spy A friend to all the legendary reporters who covered the Vietnam War he was an invaluable source of news and a font of wisdom on all things Vietnamese At the same time he was a masterful double agent An inspired shape shifter who kept his cover in place until the day he died Pham Xuan An ranks as one of the preeminent spies of the twentieth century When Thomas A Bass set out to write the story of An s remarkable career for The New Yorker fresh revelations arrived daily during their freewheeling conversations which began in 1992 But a good spy is always at work and it was not until An s death in 2006 that Bass was able to lift the veil from his carefully guarded story to offer up this fascinating portrait of a hidden life A masterful history that reads like a John le Carr thriller The Spy Who Loved Us offers a vivid portrait of journalists and spies at war

camera man Mike Marriott was on the last plane to escape from Danang before it fell in the spring of 1975 The scene was pure chaos thousands of panic stricken Vietnamese storming the airliner soldiers shooting women and children to get aboard first refugees being trampled to death Marriott remembers standing at the door of the aft stairway which was gaping open as the plane took off There were five Vietnamese below me on the steps As the nose of the aircraft came up because of the force and speed of the aircraft the Vietnamese began to fall off One guy managed to hang on for a while but at about 600 feet he let go and just floated off just like a skydiver What was going through my head was I ve got to survive this and at the same time I ve got to capture this on film This is the start of the fall of a country This country is gone This is history right here and now In Tears Before the Rain a stunning oral history of the fall of South Vietnam Larry Engelmann has gathered together the testimony of seventy eyewitnesses both American and Vietnamese who like Mike Marriott capture the feel of history right here and now We hear the voices of nurses pilots television and print media figures the American Ambassador Graham Martin the CIA station chief Thomas Polgar Vietnamese generals Amerasian children even Vietcong and North Vietnamese soldiers Through this extraordinary range of perspectives we experience first hand the final weeks before Saigon collapsed from President Thieu s cataclysmic withdrawal from Pleiku and Kontum Colonel Le Khac Ly put in command of the withdrawal recalls receiving the order I opened my eyes large large large I thought I wasn t hearing clearly to the last minute airlift of Americans from the embassy courtyard and roof I remember when the bird ascended says Stuart Herrington who left on one of the last helicopters It banked and there was the Embassy the parking lot the street lights And the silence Touching heroic harrowing and utterly unforgettable these dramatic narratives illuminate one of the central events of modern history It was like being at Waterloo concludes Ed Bradley of 60 Minutes It was so important so historical And today it is still very obvious that we Americans have not recovered from Vietnam Nothing else in my lifetime was as important as that as important as Vietnam
