Institutional Barriers To Economic Development Polands Incomplete Transition:

Institutional Barriers to Economic Development Jan Winiecki,1996      Institutional Barriers to Poland's Economic Development Jan Winiecki,1997      Institutional Barriers to Economic Development Jan Winiecki,2002-09-26 This book covers key issues including financial markets labour markets competition and intervention social security property rights to provide a wide ranging and invaluable study of economic development in transitional economies      Transition, Recession and Labour Supply Paolo Verme,2020-11-25 This title was first published in 2001 Exploring the relationship between the recession and labour supply in Kazakhstan during the 1990s this volume develops an innovative new model of the transitional process in the context of the CIS It departs from conventional economic models explaining the process of transition transferring the focus of attention from labour demand to labour supply with a view to clarifying how the transitional recession has affected households and in turn how these changes modified the supply of labour Paolo Verme examines how the dynamic of the reallocation of labour between state and private enterprises has been drastically altered by the growth of self employment and also takes a much needed look at the contribution of other factors offering an original explanation of this most important economic phenomenon      Agricultural Biodiversity and Biotechnology in Economic Development Joseph C. Cooper,Joseph Cooper,Leslie Lipper,David Zilberman,2005-09-16 This volume brings together three years of collaborative research aimed to develop a coherent economics based approach to policy making in the management of biotechnology and biodiversity It explores the economics of both the conservation of plant genetic resources for food and agriculture and the adoption of molecular biotechnology the economics of whether or not their respective policies should be linked and if so how BOOK JACKET      Elites and Democratic Development in Russia Vladimir Gel'man,Anton Steen,2003-09-02 Investigates how elites have affected democratic development in Russia and how they influence the consolidation of the emerging political regime and post communist patterns of behaviour and attitudes      Social Capital and the Transition to Democracy Gabriel Badescu,Eric Uslaner,2004-06 This edited collection presents the latest quantitative research on how post communist countries are adapting to Western models of society      Work, Employment and Transition Al Rainnie,Adrian Smith,Adam Swain,2005-07-28 Since the late 1980s the experiences of work and employment in the former communist world have been profoundly transformed Work Employment and Transition brings together a series of essays by leading international scholars which highlights the varied and complex forms that work and employment restructuring are taking in the post soviet world and makes important theoretical contributions to our understanding of these transformations      Transition Economies and Foreign Trade Jan Winiecki,2002-03-28 Most books on transition economies concentrate on their internal fortunes Few have analysed the effect that the change in the system has had on foreign trade and export performance this new book redresses that balance      Poverty in Transition Economies Sandra Hutton,Gerry Redmond,2013-01-11 This study addresses the experience of and responses to poverty in a range of transition economies including Russia Ukraine Hungary Slovenia Uzbekistan Romania Albania and Macedonia It covers topics such as the definition of poverty lines and the measurement of poverty the role of income in kind in supporting families homelessness and destitution housing the design targeting and administration of welfare and personal responses to economic transition     Politics and Society in Poland Frances Millard,2002-09-11 An examination of political social and economic development in Poland since the summer of 1989 with the main focus on democratization     The Former Yugoslavia at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Ian Jeffries,2002-05-16 The author presents a clear detailed and accessible breakdown of the developments in Bosnia Hercegovina Croatia the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia Slovenia and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia Serbia and Montenegro     Political Economy of Transition Jozef M. van Brabant,2012-11-12 This book addresses the policy questions surrounding the challenge of transforming eastern European economies from their planned administrative past to vibrant market based entities Jozef van Brabant considers in turn the wider set of challenges facing these economies stabilization privatization liberalization institution building and developing and maintaining the sociopolitical consensus before examining the evolving role of the state Using concrete examples from the eastern European countries throughout including the Czech Republic and Bulgaria this work systematically examines in a society wide context the initial conditions of transformation the policy tasks ahead and the manner in which policies have been pursued     The Countries of the Former Soviet Union at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Ian Jeffries,2004-01-08 Providing a unique level of coverage this book provides a comprehensive survey of the political and economic development of the countries of the former Soviet Union from the mid 1990s onwards     Environmental Problems in East-Central Europe Frank Carter,David Turnock,2002-09-26 In this new edition the progress made in the last decade to solve the environmental problems described in the first edition is assessed The attempts to bring environmental legislation into line with West European norms is also described Environmental Problems of East Central Europe looks at air and water pollution modern farming water supplies waste management and landscape protection These topics are placed within economic social and political profiles as spending on a clean environment must be reconciled with welfare spending and the safeguarding of jobs European Union assistance civil society and the work of environmental NGOs are also discussed All of these matters are considered within the context of the wider geographical area and then by each individual country including the previously communist states lying to the west of the Soviet Union now with the former federal states of Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia broken up into seven different entities and a review of the former Soviet Union with particular reference to the Baltic States Environmental Problems in East Central Europe provides a wealth of up to date reference material with a vast amount of supporting literature on environmental conditions and the functioning of civil society and a map of each country The environment is being taken seriously by them all such is the influence of the Rio sustainability agenda in general and the EU environmental acquis in particular The book reveals that Eastern Europe is not a blighted area but in some respects has a higher biodiversity than Western Europe Although there is enormous waste and inefficiency in energy use people actually consume relatively little and the East therefore has some lessons for the West in terms of managing on the basis of fair share of the earth's resources      Green Post-Communism? Mikael Sandberg, 1998-12-03 This book asks whether foreign aid can help post communist societies to steer their technological innovation systems in more environmentally sound directions Mikael Sandberg examines the legacy of Soviet type innovation systems then looks at opportunities for greener innovations in post communist Poland considering institutional transformation      Eastern Europe at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Ian Jeffries, 2002-02-07 This volume examines Albania Bulgaria the Czech Republic Hungary Poland Romania and Slovakia Analysing major political and economic events in these countries from the mid 1990s to the present a detailed and accessible guide is provided      Political Economy of Reform and Change (Routledge Revivals) Jan Winiecki, 2013-04-03 First published in 1997 this collection of articles and essays analyses the political economy of reform and change in Eastern Europe during the years of Gorbachev's perestroika and the years immediately following the fall of the Berlin wall and the collapse of the Soviet Union Written by Polish economist Jan Winiecki between 1984 and 1996 this work explores the issue of the feasibility of reform and change during the period of decline and collapse of communist economic order and later the emergence of the capitalist economic order in the post communist Eastern Europe Split into three parts the work considers firstly the failures of Gorbachev's political economy of reform secondly the determining factors in the collapse of the Soviet system and finally the feasibility of the systematic change which began in the wake of its collapse      The Polish Solidarity Movement Arista M. Cirtautas, 2002-09-11 This book provides a groundbreaking analysis of democratization in Poland by placing Solidarity in the context of the major democratic upheavals of modernity the French and American Revolutions This study undertakes the first full historical comparison of the Polish movement with the ideals and institutions of democracy achieved in the last three centuries      Experimenting With Democracy Tom Gallagher, Geoffrey Pridham, 2012-10-12 The chronic instability in the Balkan States of South East Europe has prevented the end of the Cold War becoming an era of genuine peace in Europe Against a background of competing nationalisms economic decline the resilience of authoritarianism it is easy to forget that there have been experiments with democracy have taken place since 1990 with relative success Now for the first time the region is genuinely engaging with open politics its outcome will determine whether the Balkans can cease being a byword for instability and an area whose shock waves have disturbed the peace of Europe on many occasions Democratisation in the Balkans explores the obstacles impeding the consolidation of democracy and even preventing a state like Serbia from going very far down the democratic road Social scientists with expert knowledge of each of the Balkan states and their political and economic systems examine why progress in building free institutions has been slow compared to that of Central Europe the Iberian peninsula and Latin America
