Lequeu An Architectural Enigma:

An Architectural Enigma Philippe Duboy, 1986 Jean Jacques Lequeu does in fact hide behind the most enigmatic and controversial smile in the history of art writes Philippe Duboy in a book that is one of the most tantalizing examples of architectural investigation ever produced It is an extraordinary compilation part speculative biography part meticulous research with hundreds of intriguing drawings many in color that unravels the mystery of this eighteenth century maverick artist whose drawings have established him variously as a visionary architect associated with Boullée and Ledoux forerunner of surrealism and inventor of bad taste Lequeu's architectural drawings from the legendary portfolios Architecture civile and Nouvelle methode are presented here in their entirety along with his Lewd Figures perhaps the oddest feature of the whole collection The drawings are accompanied by long captions misspelt and ungrammatical but written in a flawless bureaucratic hand The artist's marginalia provide insights into his visions which seem dominated by an obsession with petrified forms and a recurring preoccupation with sex Interleaved with the drawings are curious autobiographical papers And it is here that Duboy's investigation of Lequeu begins to reveal strange clues He discovers that Lequeu was not an architect at all but a government bureaucrat a draftsman who ended up living in a brothel Between the brothel and the obscure office from which he was eventually fired he produced his encyclopedia of the universe bizarre portraits of nuns baring their breasts and other lewd figures and architectural fantasies of vast imaginary cities Duboy takes his study further into the realm of Charles Fourier and his brother in law Anthelme Brillat Savarin and from there to the world of the dadaists surrealists and futurists particularly the circles of Marcel Duchamp and Le Corbusier He suggests that Duchamp and Raymond Rousell tampered with the Lequeu drawings to concoct a character and oeuvre even more puzzling There are glimpses of Duchamp's convolutions of mind that will stir a reassessment of his work Duchamp emerges here for the first time as an intrepid and unwavering despiser of Le Corbusier Twentieth century reputations are as much at stake in this study as those of the eighteenth century artist notes Robin Middleton Philippe Duboy is Professor of the History of Cities Paris Belleville School of Architecture

Lequeu Philippe Duboy, 1987 Jean Jacques Lequeu does in fact hide behind the most enigmatic and controversial smile in the history of art writes Philippe Duboy in a book that is one of the most tantalizing examples of architectural investigation ever produced It is an extraordinary compilation part speculative biography part meticulous research with hundreds of intriguing drawings many in color that unravels the mystery of this eighteenth century maverick artist whose drawings have established him variously as a visionary architect associated with Boullée and Ledoux forerunner of surrealism and inventor of bad taste Lequeu's architectural drawings from the legendary portfolios Architecture civile and Nouvelle methode are presented here in their entirety along with his Lewd Figures perhaps the oddest feature of the whole collection The drawings are accompanied by long captions misspelt and ungrammatical but written in a flawless bureaucratic hand The artist's marginalia provide insights into his visions which seem dominated by an obsession with petrified forms and a recurring preoccupation with sex Interleaved with the drawings are curious autobiographical papers And it is here that Duboy's investigation of Lequeu begins to reveal strange clues He discovers that Lequeu was not an architect at all but a government bureaucrat a draftsman who ended up living in a brothel Between the brothel and the obscure office from which he was eventually fired he produced his encyclopedia of the universe bizarre portraits of nuns baring their breasts and other lewd figures and architectural fantasies of vast imaginary cities Duboy takes his study further into the realm of Charles Fourier and his brother in law Anthelme Brillat Savarin and from there to the world of the dadaists surrealists and futurists particularly the circles of Marcel Duchamp and Le Corbusier He suggests that Duchamp and Raymond Rousell tampered with the Lequeu drawings to concoct a character and oeuvre even more puzzling There are glimpses of Duchamp's convolutions of mind that will stir a reassessment of his work Duchamp emerges here for the first time as an intrepid and unwavering despiser of Le Corbusier Twentieth century reputations are as much at stake in this study as those of the eighteenth century artist notes Robin Middleton Philippe Duboy is Professor of the History of Cities Paris Belleville School of Architecture

The Routledge Companion to Architectural Drawings and Models Federica Goffi, 2022-05-30 Architectural drawings and models are instruments of imagination communication and historical continuity The role of drawings and models and their ownership placement and authorship in a ubiquitous digital age deserve careful consideration Expanding on the well established discussion of the translation from drawings to buildings this book fills a lacuna in current scholarship questioning the significance of the lives of drawings and models after construction Including emerging well known and world renowned scholars in the fields of architectural history and theory and curatorial practices the thirty five contributions define recent research in four key areas drawing sites sites of knowledge construction drawing office construction site the afterlife of drawings and models archiving collecting displaying and exhibiting tools of making architectural representations and their apparatus over time and the ethical responsibilities of collecting and archiving authorship ownership copyrights and rights to copy The research covers a wide range of geographies and delves into the practices of such architects as Sir John Soane Superstudio Eugène Emmanuel Viollet le Duc Frank Lloyd Wright Wajiro Kon Germ n Samper Gnecco A P S Mies van der Rohe and Renzo Piano architectural theorists over the last two thousand years The result is a text that is authoritative and complete easy to read without being reductive

Chora 1 Alberto Pérez Gómez, Stephen Parcell, 1994 Volume I in the new series Chora Intervals in the Philosophy of Architecture explores fundamental questions concerning the practice of architecture and examines the potential of architecture

Marcel Duchamp and the Architecture of Desire Penelope Haralambidou, 2017-03-02 While much has been written on Marcel Duchamp one of the twentieth century's most beguiling artists the subject of his flirtation with architecture seems to have been largely overlooked Yet in the carefully arranged plans and sections organising the blueprint of desire in the Large Glass his numerous pieces replicating architectural fragments and his involvement in designing exhibitions Duchamp's fascination with architectural design is clearly evident As his unconventional architectural influences Nicéron Lequeu and Kiesler and diverse legacy Tschumi OMA Webb Diller Scofidio and Nicholson indicate Duchamp was not as much interested in built architecture as he was in the architecture of desire re constructing the imagination through drawing and testing the boundaries between reality and its aesthetic and philosophical possibilities Marcel Duchamp and the Architecture of Desire examines the link between architectural thinking and Duchamp's work By employing design drawing and making the tools of the architect Haralambidou performs an architectural analysis of Duchamp's final enigmatic work Given 1 The Waterfall 2 The Illuminating Gas demonstrating an innovative research methodology able to grasp meaning beyond textual analysis This novel reading of his ideas and methods adds to but also challenges other art historical interpretations Through three main themes allegory visuality and desire the book defines and theorises an alternative drawing practice positioned between art and architecture that predates and includes Duchamp

Artificial Intelligence and Architecture Stanislas Chaillou, 2022-03-07 History and Panorama Artificial Intelligence's AI encounter with Architecture is still in its infancy However current experiments and applications already are a testimony to their gradual intersection This book provides an introduction to the topic through the triple lens of History Application and Theory A chronology of Architecture's technological evolution first puts AI back in the context of the discipline The author then presents a collection of AI's applications in Architecture The book finally gives the stage to contributors working at the forefront of this revolution From Harvard to Foster Partners their perspectives provide a panorama of the discourse surrounding AI's presence in the field Halfway between research and practice this book offers to unveil the promise and challenges AI holds for Architecture Artificial intelligence as a planning tool for architects From urban planning to floor plans Potential of a new way of working

The Architect's Dream Sean Pickersgill, 2023-09-29 Sean Pickersgill demonstrates that the goal of creating meaningful architecture can take a variety of critical and philosophical paths The importance of architecture as an expression of broad complex social drivers is complemented by the equally popular idea that architecture as an intellectual pursuit retains its own autonomy as a self-referential culture This book uniquely places the emphasis for innovation in architecture within the domain of critical thinking generally and a specific understanding of the semantics of built form The book draws on a broad range of subject areas from film to philosophy to anthropology to mathematics and economics to show that the path to meaningful creative practice is always based in an understanding of the principal drivers for change and meaning in society It is not a simple recipe book or workshop manual for others to reproduce It requires the engaged reader to employ their own creative abilities to find what potential lies in each of the propositions and it will encourage the scholastic architect to continue to mine the rich veins of intellectual culture to demonstrate the latent purposiveness inherent in all meaningful architecture

Le Corbusier and the Occult Jan Birksted, 2009 Le Corbusier grew up in La Chaux de Fonds in Switzerland a city described by Karl Marx as one unified watchmaking industry Among the unifying social structures of La Chaux de Fonds was the Loge L Amiti the Masonic lodge with its francophone moral social and philosophical ideas including the symbolic iconography of the right angle rectitude and the compass exactitude Le Corbusier would later describe these as my guide my choice and as his time honored ideas ingrained and deep rooted in the intellect like entries from a catechism Through exhaustive research that challenges long held beliefs J K Birksted's Le Corbusier and the Occult traces the structure of Le Corbusier's brand of modernist spatial and architectural ideas based on startling new documents in hitherto undiscovered family and local archives Publisher Design Book Review ,1989

Marcel Duchamp Rudolf E. Kuenzli, Francis M. Naumann, 1991 Artist of the Century These eleven illustrated essays explore the structure and meaning of Duchamp's work as part of an ongoing critical enterprise that has just begun

Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan Lorens Holm, 2022-09-30 Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan Shadowing the Public Realm methodically outlines key concepts in psychoanalytic discourse by reading them against key modern and post modern architects It begins with what is arguably the central concept for each discipline by putting the unconscious in a dialectic relation to space Each subsequent chapter begins with a detail in architectural discourse a kind of provocation that anchors each excursion into the thought of Freud and Lacan The text is cyclical episodic and cloudlike rather than expository the intention is not simply to explain the concept of the unconscious but to different degrees perform it in the text The book offers powerful critiques of current planning practice which has no tools to address our attachment to places It concludes with powerful critiques of our incapacity to change the environmentally damaging ways we live our lives which is an effect of our incapacity to recognise the presence of the death drive in our nature The text is an extended thesis spanning the chapters that the field of the Other is the common grammar that organises subjects into civilisations which has consequences for how we treat the public realm in architecture politics and the city The field of the Other is a slightly different slice through the urban social world It shadows but does not correspond exactly to more familiar categories like private public inside outside figure ground or piazza boulevard Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan will be an essential resource to anyone interested in how the environment we build is a reflection of our desire Psychoanalysis is one of the great humanist discourses of the 20th century and this book will be a valuable reference to the humanist in architects planners and social scientists whether they are students professionals or amateurs It will appeal to historians of the 20th century and to psychoanalysts and architects who are interested in how their respective discourses interdigitate with each other and with other discourses     Proceedings of the ACSA Annual Meeting Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture,1993     Intervals in the Philosophy of Architecture Alberto Pérez Gómez,Stephen Parcell,1996 In this second volume in the Chora series contributing authors explore critical questions for the theory and practice of architecture They take an interdisciplinary approach to architecture and other cultural concerns challenging readers to consider alternatives to conventional aesthetic and technological reductions     Jean-Baptiste Greuze Colin B. Bailey,2000 Jean Baptiste Greuze s diminutive picture of a rosy cheeked girl wringing out her linen was one of fourteen works that he exhibited at the Salon of 1761 in Paris This lively and engrossing book traces the history of the Getty Museum s painting compares the work to other laundresses painted by Greuze and explores social mores and the role of artists model in the eighteenth century It provides an enlightening account of Greuze s life and times and the influences on his work     Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians,1988 Includes special issues     Architectural Design, Architectural Theory, History, and Criticism, Human Behavior, Professional Practice, Special Topics, Urban Design Theory and History Georgia Bizios,1998     Book Review Digest ,1987 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher
