Mechademia 3 Frenchy Lunning,2014-11-01 Dramatic advances in genetics cloning robotics and nanotechnology have given rise to both hopes and fears about how technology might transform humanity As the possibility of a posthuman future becomes increasingly likely debates about how to interpret or shape this future abound In Japan anime and manga artists have for decades been imagining the contours of posthumanity creating dazzling and sometimes disturbing works of art that envision a variety of human nonhuman hybrids biological mechanical human animal and human monster Anime and manga offer a constellation of posthuman prototypes whose hybrid natures require a shift in our perception of what it means to be human Limits of the Human the third volume in the Mechademia series maps the terrain of posthumanity using manga and anime as guides and signposts to understand how to think about humanity s new potentialities and limits Through a wide range of texts the folklore inspired monsters that populate Mizuki Shigeru s manga Japan s Gothic Lolita subculture Tezuka Osamu s original cyborg hero Atom and his manga version of Fritz Lang s Metropolis along with tomo Katsuhiro s 2001 anime film adaptation the robot anime Gundam and the notion of the uncanny in Ghost in the Shell 2 Innocence among others the essays in this volume reject simple human nonhuman dichotomies and instead encourage a provocative rethinking of the definitions of humanity along entirely unexpected frontiers Contributors William L Benzon Lawrence Bird Christopher Bolton Steven T Brown Joshua Paul Dale Michael Dylan Foster Crispin Freeman Marc Hairston Paul Jackson Thomas LaMarre Antonia Levi Margherita Long Laura Miller Hajime Nakatani Susan Napier Natsume Fusanosuke Sharalyn Orbaugh tsuka Eiji Ad le Elise Pr vost and MUSEbasement Teri Silvio Takayuki Tatsumi Mark C Taylor Theresa Winge Cary Wolfe Wendy Siuyi Wong and Yomota Inuhiko All Poets Welcome Daniel Kane,2003-03-26 This landmark book together with its accompanying CD captures the heady excitement of the vibrant irreverent poetry scene of New York s Lower East Side in the 1960s Drawing from personal interviews with many of the participants from unpublished letters and from rare sound recordings Daniel Kane brings together for the first time the people political events and poetic roots that coalesced into a highly influential community From the poetry reading venues of the early sixties such as those at the Les Deux M gots and Le Metro coffeehouses to The Poetry Project at St Mark s Church a vital forum for poets to this day Kane traces the history of this literary renaissance showing how it was born from a culture of publicly performed poetry The Lower East Side in the sixties proved foundational in American verse culture a defining era for the artistic and political avant garde The voices and works of John Ashbery Amiri Baraka Charles Bernstein Bill Berkson Ted Berrigan Kenneth Koch Bernadette Mayer Ron Padgett Denise Levertov Paul Blackburn Frank O Hara and many others enliven these pages and the thirty five track CD includes recordings of several of the poets reading from their work in the sixties and seventies The Lower East Side s cafes coffeehouses and salons brought together poets of various aesthetic sensibilities including writers associated with the so called New York School Beats Black Mountain Deep Image San Francisco Renaissance Umbra and others Kane shows that the significance for literary history of this loosely defined community of poets and artists lies in part in its reclaiming an orally centered poetic tradition adapted specifically to open up the possibilities for an aesthetically daring playful poetics and a politics of joy and resistance

The Plot Machine Kai Mikkonen, 2021-11-01 This book presents a new and exciting theory of the modern French novel by developing the notion of the narrative as a textual machine Many turn of the century French novels thematically identified their means of narration through the various machines that they depicted The narrative devices that were particularly important in this self reflection included the temporal order of the plot the question of a narrative s beginning and end the hierarchy of narrative voices and the techniques of the point of view The question of mechanization became central on all these fronts Has the novel become automated or machine like At the same time the machine metaphors in the novels of Alfred Jarry Emile Zola Jules Verne Villiers de l Isle Adam Raymond Roussel combined the question of the narrative form with new ways to think about man s relationship with technology and the cultural environment The early modernist texts drew upon contradictory notions of technological promise and threat while they also depicted new forms of identity and behavior related to or modeled after machines These texts highlighted cultural assumptions concerning technological innovations and critiqued mainly through parody and through various figures of man machine fusion the positivistic belief in progress Such writers looked for evidence of advanced forms of consciousness arising out of encounters with new technology such as telephones trains bicycles telegraphy phonographs and electricity This volume will be of interest to anyone working in the field of modern French literary and cultural history It will especially appeal to anyone intrigued with the origins of the modernist novel the history of narrative forms and the question of how the experience of new technology may be portrayed in literary texts
