The London Compositor Ellic Howe, 1973 A Chronology and Calendar of Documents Relating to the London Book Trade 1641-1700 Donald Francis McKenzie, Maureen Bell, 2005-12-15 The Chronology and Calendar of Documents relating to the London Book Trade 1641 1700 provides for the first time easy access to information about the authors printers and distributors of books in the later seventeenth century Chronological entries allow an insight into the day to day workings of the book trade Substantial indexes allow quick reference to information on specific book titles named authors and book trade personnel and specific topics such as booksellers bills coffee houses and imported books London Chartism 1838-1848 David Goodway, 2002-10-10 This book the first full length study of metropolitan Chartism provides extensive new material for the 1840s and establishes the regional and national importance of the London movement throughout this decade After an opening section which considers the economic and social structure of early Victorian London and provides an occupational breakdown of Chartists Dr Goodway turns to the three main components of the metropolitan movement its organized form the crowd and the trades The development of London Chartism is correlated to economic fluctuations and after the nationally significant failure of London to respond in 1838 9 1842 is seen as a peak in terms of conventional organization and 1848 as the high point of turbulence and revolutionary potential The section concludes with an exposition of the insurrectionary plans of 1848 Artisans and Politics in Early Nineteenth-Century London (Routledge Revivals) Iorwerth Prothero, 2013-10-14 First published in 1979 this book was the first full length study of working class movements in London between 1800 and the beginnings of Chartism in the later 1830s The leaders and rank and file in these movements were almost invariably artisans and this book examines the position of the skilled artisan in politics Starting from the social ideals outlook and the experience of the London artisan Dr Prothero describes trade union political co operative educational and intellectual movements in the first forty years of the century Setting a scene of alternating growth and contraction in trade successive hostile governments and the increasing articulation of working class consciousness the author shows that artisans could be no less militant radical or anti capitalist than other groups of working class men A Chronology and Calendar of Documents Relating to the London Book Trade 1641-1700 Donald Francis McKenzie, Maureen Bell, 2005-12-15 The Chronology and Calendar of Documents relating to the London Book Trade 1641 1700 presents abstracts of documents relating to the book trade and book production between 1641 and 1700 It brings together in one sequence edited abstracts of entries referring to named books printers and booksellers selected from the manuscripts of the Stationers Company Court Books all references to printing publishing bookselling and the book trade occurring in major historical printed sources Calendar of State Papers Domestic the Journals of the Houses of Lords and Commons Reports of the Royal Commission on Historical Manuscripts and entries for contemporary pamphlets The labour records of the printing and bookselling trades probably represent the fullest account of any work force in early modern

England and the printed products of the trade survive in such great numbers that they enable us to examine them for evidence not only of who made and sold them but also of how they were made These volumes constitute a reference work of importance not only for literature specialists bibliographers and historians of book production but also for economic social and political historians Not only do they bring together records from a variety of separate printed sources thereby making explicit their interconnections but also they make accessible some less well known manuscript sources notably from the Stationers Company archives Most importantly the Chronology and Calendar extends the earlier work of Arber Greg and Jackson on the earlier seventeenth century As a chronological sequence the volumes meet the need for a preliminary narrative history of the trade in the later seventeenth century and the provision of title name and topic indexes renders this an indispensable reference tool for research into the social political and economic contexts of the book trade its personnel and its printed output

The London Journal, 1845-83 Andrew King, 2017-07-05 This book is the first full length study of one of the most widely read publications of Victorian Britain the London Journal inserting the story of this magazine into the wider context of the Victorian mass market periodical It draws on traditional modes of scholarship in history art history and literature as well as on developments in sociology psychoanalysis and cultural theory However the author ultimately relies on new and extensive primary research to ground the changing ways in which the reading public became consumers of literary commodities on a scale never before seen Previous commentators have coded the mass market as somehow always feminine and King offers a genealogy of how such a gender identity came about Finally King recontextualizes within the Victorian mass market three key nineteenth century novels Walter Scott's Ivanhoe Mary Braddon's Lady Audley's Secret and Emile Zola's The Ladies Paradise and in so doing suggests radically new and unexpected meanings

The Skilled Compositor, 1850-1914 Patrick Duffy, 2017-03-02 For the first time since its invention over 500 years ago the print medium is being challenged as the primary means of recording and communicating ideas Indeed within the printing industry itself the advent of digital technology has rendered the craft of hand setting metal type obsolete the days of the skilled compositor are now at an end Patrick Duffy's work sets out to examine the experiences of the skilled compositor in the period 1850 to 1914 Focusing primarily on the workplace and the workplace institutions it aims to explore issues of control co operation and conflict in order to determine if the compositor did as many labour historians claim belong to an aristocracy of labour Drawing on a wide range of source material from trade society minutes to Parliamentary Papers the author explores the diversity of experience that compositors had in the workplace and the uneven patterns of change that the trade experienced The study throws light on some of the issues raised by these changes what part did ancient craft traditions play in the maintenance of control in the workplace Why were women excluded from this particular work when they were accepted in most other parts of the trade To what extent did trade society officials represent the aspirations of the rank and file membership Starting with an overview of the nature growth and development of the trade the book goes on to examine the occupational and social aspects of the composers experience with a chapter devoted to women s role in the printing trade Finally the formation functions and development of relevant trades unions and employers associations is discussed This insightful analysis of the experience of the skilled compositor provides a valuable case study for labour historians at the same time furthering our understanding of a somewhat neglected aspect of printing history London Matthew Green,2015-06-18 Step back in time and discover the sights sounds and smells of London through the ages in this enthralling journey into the capital s rich teeming and occasionally hazardous past Let time traveller Dr Matthew Green be your guide to six extraordinary periods in London s history the ages of Shakespeare medieval city life plague coffee houses the reign of Victoria and the Blitz We ll turn back the clock to the time of Shakespeare and visit a savage bull and bear baiting arena on the Bankside In medieval London we ll circle the walls as the city lies barricaded under curfew while spinning further forward in time we ll inhale the holy herb in an early tobacco house before peering into an open plague pit In the 18th century we ll navigate the streets in style with a ride on a sedan chair and when we land in Victorian London we ll take a tour of freak show booths and meet the Elephant Man You ll meet pornographers and traitors actors and apothecaries the mad bad and dangerous to know all desperate to show you the thrilling and vibrant history of the world s liveliest city The Experience of Labour in Eighteenth-Century Industry John Rule,2024-09-18 Originally published in 1981 this book unlike conventional textbooks concerning the Industrial Revolution stresses the continuity of the labour experience in the 18th Century Examining the organisation and structure of mining and manufacture in England the author identifies the main kinds of workers artisans miners journeymen and home based outworkers The book goes on to illustrate how the pattern of recrimination and counter recrimination was a condition of the employer worker relationship in traditional industries and argues that the values of these workers were the main determinants of the attitudes expectations responses and actions that took place in English manufacturing Covering such important but frequently neglected areas of 18th Century industry as health apprenticeship and industrial crime this study concludes by questioning whether a distinctive industrial culture existed during the period and how far a class consciousness can be regarded as having emerged Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent,Harold Lancour,1969-05-01 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science provides an outstanding resource in 33 published volumes with 2 helpful indexes This thorough reference set written by 1300 eminent international experts offers librarians information computer scientists bibliographers documentalists systems analysts and students convenient access to the techniques and tools of both library and information science Impeccably researched cross referenced alphabetized by subject and generously illustrated the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science integrates the essential theoretical and practical information accumulating in this rapidly growing field The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George Watson,Ian R. Willison,1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Plenty and Want Proffessor John Burnett, John Burnett, 2013-06-17 What did Queen Victoria have for dinner And how did this compare with the meals of the poor in the nineteenth century This classic account of English food habits since the industrial revolution answers these questions and more Order and Connexion R. C. Alston, Robin Alston, 1997 The papers in this volume are by past holders of the Cambridge post of Munby Fellow founded in 1977 in memory of the bibliographical scholar Alan Munby Covering a diverse range of topics they illustrate the variety of ways in which bibliographical evidence is used to determine significant features of both and printed books English Literature, Volume 2 Louis A. Landa, 2015-12-08 Two volumes containing the annual bibliographies of 18th century scholarship published in the Philological Quarterly An excellent aid to the student of 18th century literature Saturday Review Volume 2 1939 1950 includes consolidated index for both volumes Originally published in 1952 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Work(s) of Samuel Richardson Stephanie Fysh, 1997 Samuel Richardson emerges in Fysh s analysis as a man on the cusp of change in the organization of the printing industry and of labor generally and in the nature of the literary text and his work as a printer as well as his literary works the two being fundamentally inseparable come to be seen as instrumental in and representative of these changes The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature Joanne Shattock, 1999 Newspapers and English Society 1695-1855 Hannah Barker, 2014-06-17 This lively new study covers the dramatic expansion of the press from the seventeenth century to the mid nineteenth century Hannah Barker explores the factors behind the rise of newspapers to a major force helping to reflect and shape public opinion and altering the way in which politics operated at every level of English life Newspapers Politics and English Society 1695 1855 provides a unique insight into the political and social history of eighteenth and nineteenth century England as well as an important study of the history of the media The Reading Nation in the Romantic Period William St Clair, 2004-07-08 Publisher Description The Labouring Classes in Early Industrial England, 1750-1850 John Rule, 2014-01-21 This is the most comprehensive and up to date synthesis of current research on the social conditions experiences and reactions of working people during the period 1750 1850 Literary Copyright Reform in Early Victorian

England Catherine Seville,1999-09-20 This text was the first study of the controversial bills leading to the Copyright Act 1842
