The Cinema of Tony Richardson James M. Welsh, John C. Tibbetts, Professor John C Tibbetts, 1999-08-12 Critically surveys the films of Tony Richardson one of Britain s most inventive directors of stage and screen

Running Cultures John Bale, 2004-06-01 Running is one of the world s most widely practiced sports and recreations but until now it has intended to elude serious study outside of the natural sciences John Bale brings the sport into the realm of the humanities by drawing on sources including literature poetry film art and sculpture as well as statistics and training manuals to highlight the tensions ambiguities and complexities that lie hidden beneath the commonplace notion of running The text explores both local and personal as well as communal and global aspects of running and its practitioners It examines the streets tracks and stadiums where athletes run the races in which they compete and the running relationships such as exist between the athlete and the coach between runners and between the athlete and spectator It discusses the importance of speed and records how running has been used to symbolise resistance and transgression and the extent to which it can be associated with a healthy lifestyle Running Cultures provides new ways of seeing a familiar sporting phenomenon it will appeal to both students and researchers with an interest in running in particular and sport and leisure cultures more generally

Upward Mobility and the Common Good Bruce Robbins, 2007 Reinterpreting novels by figures such as Balzac Stendhal Emily Bront Dickens Dreiser Wells Doctorow and Ishiguro along with a number of films Bruce Robbins shows how deeply the material and erotic desires of upwardly mobile characters are intertwined with the aid they receive from some sort of benefactor or mentor

Film, a Modern Art Aaron Sultanik, 1986

Sonic Interventions Sylvia Mieszkowski, Joy Smith, Marijke de Valck, 2015-07-14 Sonic Interventions makes a compelling case for the importance of sound in theorizing literature subjectivity and culture Sound is usually understood as our second sense and as our belief in a visually dominated culture prevails remains of secondary interest Western cultures are considered to be predominantly visual while other societies are thought to place more importance on the acoustic dimension This volume questions these assumptions by examining how sound differs from and acts in relationship to the visual It moves beyond theoretical dichotomies between the visual and the sonic the oral and literature and instead investigates sonic interventions in their often multi faceted forms The case studies deal with political appropriations of music and sounds they explore the poetic use of the sonic in novels and plays they develop theoretical concepts out of sonic phenomena and pertain to identity formation and the practice of mixing in hip hop opera and dancehall sessions Ultimately the book brings to the fore what roles sound may play for the formation of gendered identity for the stabilization or questioning of race as a social category and the conception of place Their intricate interventions beckon critical attention and offer rich material for cultural analysis

As Found Claude Lichtenstein, Thomas Schregenberger, 2001 Works of art were created in the England of the 50s and 60s which are of extraordinary topicality today This applies particularly to the Independent Group which included artists photographers as well as architects Its members strove to achieve an authenticity close to the grass roots of life to discover the essence of the everyday to arouse a sensitivity to life in the raw as against a touched up version of reality to bring out both its hardships and its charm The book is about architecture and art and photography It seeks rather to show the unmediated impact and direct appeal of a refractory aesthetics

Stollery, 2019-07-25 Most of the Directors I've worked with needed someone to talk to who is deep inside the heart of the movie Mick Audsley Film Editor Film editing is understood by the industry to be one of the most crucial contributions to film making World class British editors such as Antony Gibbs and Anne Coates have received recognition of their importance in Hollywood and experienced British Editors have important roles in a surprising number of major American movies This book attempts to explain this not elusive of roles by allowing editors to describe in their own words what they do and to bring them into the critical and public spotlight It is the most comprehensive survey of its kind to date and is based upon interviews with many distinguished editors who have worked on films as diverse as Blade Runner and Carry on Up the Khyber Die Hard 2 and Blow Up American Beauty and Performance The British Film Editor also provides a detailed history of editing together with extensive filmographies

Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez

Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction s treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class

A Tree on Fire Alan Sillitoe, 2016-04-19 The second novel in award winning bestselling author Alan Sillitoe s William Posters Trilogy is an existential investigation of protest and revolution in 1960s North Africa and England Jewish dilettante Myra Bassingfield returns to England from Gibraltar with her four week old son Frank Dawley the child s father and the anarchist antihero of The Death of William Posters has disappeared into the African desert where he is fighting with the FLN Front de Lib ration Nationale for Algerian independence against French troops Greeting Myra quayside as she disembarks from the ship is Frank s friend Albert Handley an idealistic painter living in a chaotic house in Lincolnshire with seven kids a bulldog six cats and two au pair girls Albert s brother John is determined to break from the family and he sets off for Algeria to track Frank down but not before burning the Handley house to the ground The Handley brood must then move in with Myra in Buckinghamshire and by the time Frank finally shows up they have formed a domestic cell of protest that may just plant the seeds of a new English revolution From ramshackle life in a commune to undercover gunrunning this is Alan Sillitoe author of The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner at his humorous and literary best This ebook features an illustrated biography of Alan Sillitoe including rare images from the author s estate
