Long Terrible Shadow:

A Long and Terrible Shadow Thomas.,2012-03-23 In this compelling book respected lawyer and Native rights advocate Thomas Berger surveys the history of the Americas since their discovery by Christopher Columbus in 1492 His accounts of the slaughter and disenfranchisement of indigenous people throughout North Central and South American reveal a searing pattern of almost unimaginable duplicity and inhumanity But as A Long and Terrible Shadow makes clear Native peoples have defied the odds waging a tenacious struggle to survive and to re emerge as distinct cultures As Native Voices demand action and Native land claims take their rightful place on the political agenda this book provides a focus for crucial debate

Reconciliation Tony Penikett,2009-12-01 In the hundred years since British Columbia joined Confederation Canada has negotiated only one treaty in the province A decade after signing the Nisga a treaty and despite spending hundreds of millions of dollars the BC Treaty Commission process had not finalized a single treaty This impassioned book explains why The long answer to the question says author Tony Penikett is rooted in colonial history provincial resistance federal indifference and judicial equivocation The short answer is that Canadian governments have wanted treaties solely on their own terms Drawing on three decades of experience as a negotiator and a politician Penikett argues persuasively that successful treaty making requires not only principled mandates imaginative negotiators and skilled mediators but also the political will to redress First Nation grievances The treaty process in BC is ailing this book shows clearly and Penikett has many practical remedies to offer

The Routledge History of the American South Maggi Morehouse,2017-07-20 The Routledge History of the American South looks at the major themes that have developed in the interdisciplinary field of Southern Studies With fifteen original essays from experts in their respective fields the handbook addresses such diverse topics as southern linguistics music secular and non secular gender food and history and memory The chapters present focused historiographical analyses that taken together offer a clear sense of the evolution and contours of Southern Studies This volume is valuable both as a dynamic introduction to Southern Studies and as an entry point into more recent research for those already familiar with the subfield

Season of the Wolf Robin Summers,2014-03-01 Devon James is on the run from a killer who has been hunting her for years When she discovers the murdered bodies of two co workers Devon knows it is time to run again But before she can run the police arrive and take her in for questioning Jordan Salinger is a Pittsburgh homicide detective on leave after a hostage standoff left her with a bullet wound in her shoulder and an even bigger hole in her heart When she is called in by her partner to help with an uncooperative witness Jordan has no idea that the woman holds the key to the murders and to her salvation With the murderer stalking them at every turn can Devon and Jordan overcome the horrors that haunt them in time to save each other

The Origins of Theosophy (Routledge Revivals) Annie Besant,2014-11-13 Annie Besant is primarily remembered as the international president of the Theosophical Society One of the most important aspects of her career were the years that she was a professional atheist which has given her a place in

Enlightenment and Exploration in the North Pacific, 1741-1805 Stephen W. Haycox, James K. Barnett, Caedmon Liburd, 2016-06-01 Saluting an era of adventure and knowledge seeking fifteen original essays consider the motivations of European explorers of the Pacific the science and technology of 18th century exploration and the significance of Spanish French and British voyages Among the topics discussed are the quest by enlightenment scientists for new species of plant and animal life and their fascination with Native cultures advances in shipbuilding navigation medicine and diet that made extended voyages possible and the lasting significance of the explorers collections artworks and journals A Forest in the Clouds John Fowler, 2018-02-06 For the first time a riveting insider's account of the fascinating world of Dr Dian Fossey's mountain gorilla camp telling the often shocking story of the unraveling of Fossey's Rwandan facility alongside adventures tracking mountain gorillas over hostile terrain confronting aggressive silverbacks and rehabilitating orphaned baby gorillas In A Forest in the Clouds John Fowler takes us into the world of Karisoke Research Center the remote mountain gorilla camp of Dr Dian Fossey a few years prior to her gruesome murder Drawn to the adventure and promise of learning the science of studying mountain gorillas amid the beauty of Central Africa's cloud forest Fowler soon learns the cold harsh realities of life inside Fossey's enclave ten thousand feet up in the Virunga Volcanoes Instead of the intrepid scientist he had admired in the pages of National Geographic Fowler finds a chain smoking hard drinking woman bullying her staff into submission While pressures mount from powers beyond Karisoke in an effort to extricate Fossey from her domain of thirteen years she brings new students in to serve her most pressing need to hang on to the remote research camp that has become her mountain home Increasingly bizarre behavior has targeted Fossey for extrication by an ever growing group of detractors from conservation and research organizations to the Rwandan government Amid the turmoil Fowler must abandon his own research assignments to assuage the troubled Fossey as she orders him on illegal treks across the border into Zaire over volcanoes in search of missing gorillas and to serve as surrogate parent to an orphaned baby ape in preparation for its traumatic re introduction into a wild gorilla group This riveting story is the only first person account from inside Dian Fossey's beleaguered camp Fowler must come to grips with his own aspirations career objectives and disappointments as he develops the physical endurance to keep up with mountain gorillas over volcanic terrain in icy downpours above ten thousand feet only to be affronted by the frightening charges of indignant giant silverbacks or to be treed by aggressive forest buffalos Back in camp he must nurture the sensitivity and patience needed for the demands of rehabilitating an orphaned baby gorilla A Forest in the Clouds takes the armchair adventurer on a journey into an extraordinary world that now only exists in the memories of the very few who knew it A Little Matter of Genocide Ward Churchill, 1997 Ward Churchill has achieved an unparalleled reputation as a scholar activist and analyst of indigenous issues in North America

Here he explores the history of holocaust and denial in this hemisphere beginning with the arrival of Columbus and continuing on into the present He frames the matter by examining both revisionist denial of the nazi perpetrated Holocaust and the opposing claim of its exclusive uniqueness using the full scope of what happened in Europe as a backdrop against which to demonstrate that genocide is precisely what has been and still is carried out against the American Indians Churchill lays bare the means by which many of these realities have remained hidden how public understanding of this most monstrous of crimes has been subverted not only by its perpetrators and their beneficiaries but by the institutions and individuals who perceive advantages in the confusion In particular he outlines the reasons underlying the United States s 40 year refusal to ratify the Genocide Convention as well as the implications of the attempt to exempt itself from compliance when it finally offered its endorsement In conclusion Churchill proposes a more adequate and coherent definition of the crime as a basis for identifying punishing and preventing genocidal practices wherever and whenever they occur Ward Churchill enrolled Keetoowah Cherokee is Professor of American Indian Studies with the Department of Ethnic Studies at the University of Colorado Boulder A member of the American Indian Movement since 1972 he has been a leader of the Colorado chapter for the past fifteen years Among his previous books have been Fantasies of a Master Race Struggle for the Land Since Predator Came and From a Native Son
