Guide To World Literature Vol 3:

World Literature ,2010 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal Victorian Studies Sharon W. Propas,2016-06-17 First published in 2006 this work is a valuable guide for the researcher in Victorian Studies Updated to include electronic resources this book provides guides to catalogs archives museums collections and databases containing material on the Victorian period It organises the vast array of reference sources by discipline to help researchers tailor their investigations Re-mapping World Literature Gesine Müller,Jorge J. Locane,Benjamin Loy,2018-03-05 How can we talk about World Literature if we do not actually examine the world as a whole Research on World Literature commonly focuses on the dynamics of a western center and a southern periphery ignoring the fact that numerous literary relationships exist beyond these established constellations of thinking and reading within the Global South Re Mapping World Literature suggests a different approach that aims to investigate new navigational tools that extend beyond the known poles and meridians of current literary maps Using the example of Latin American literatures this study provides innovative insights into the literary modeling of shared historical experiences epistemological crosscurrents and book market processes within the Global South which thus far have received scant attention The contributions to this volume from renowned scholars in the fields of World and Latin American literatures assess travelling aesthetics and genres processes of translation and circulation of literary works as well as the complex epistemological entanglements and shared worldviews between Latin America Africa and Asia A timely book that embraces highly innovative perspectives it will be a must read for all scholars involved in the field of the global dimensions of literature Pamphlet - Dept. of the Army United States. Department of the Army,1951

Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie,1915 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries The Publishers Weekly ,1905 The Bookseller ,1909 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1891 Cultural Imperialism and the Indo-English Novel Fawzia Afzal-Khan,2010-11-01 This is a provocative piece of scholarship and it engages an intriguing aspect of postcolonial writing Choice Fawzia Afzal Khan s excellent book could stand as a reply to those hostile critics who today attack multiculturalism for reductively politicizing literature In her trenchant discussion Afzal Khan shows just how complex the politics of liberation can be for colonial and postcolonial novelists Gerald Graff University of Chicago Afzal Khan's study is a major new contribution to the related fields of Indian writing in English and post colonial literatures Focused primarily on four Indian novelists its arguments and conclusions are of vital importance to our understanding of the many new literatures from the former British colonies Through her judicious use of the theoretical constructs of Frantz Fanon Fredric Jameson Edward Said and others Afzal Khan has produced a fresh and compelling interpretation of the Indian English novel Amritjit Singh Rhode Island College Cultural Imperialism and the Indo English Novel focuses on the novels of R K Narayan Anita Desai Kamala Markandaya and Salman Rushdie and explores the tension in these novels between ideology and the generic fictive strategies that shape ideology or are shaped by it Fawzia Afzal Khan raises the important question of how much the usage of certain ideological strategies actually helps the ex colonized writer deal effectively with post colonial and post independence trauma and whether or not the choice of a particular genre or mode employed by a writer presupposes the extent to which that writer will be successful in challenging the ideological strategies of containment perpetuated by most Western orientalist texts and writers She argues that the formal or generic choices of the four writers studied here reveal that they are using genre as an ideological strategy of liberation to help free their peoples and cultures from the hegemonic strategies of containment imposed upon them She concludes that the works studied here constitute an ideological rebuttal of Western writers denigrating containment of non Western cultures She also notes that self criticism as implied in Rushdie's works is not to be confused with self hatred a theme found in Naipaul's work

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries
