Construction of Memory in Interwar France Daniel J. Sherman,1999 The contrast between battlefield and home front soldier and civilian was the basis for memory and collective gratitude Postwar commemoration however also grew directly out of the long and agonized search for the remains of hundreds of thousands of missing soldiers and the sometimes contentious debates over where to bury them For this reason the local monument with its inscribed list of names and its functional resemblance to tombstones emerged as the focal point of commemorative practice Sherman traces every step in the process of monument building as he analyzes commemoration s competing goals to pay tribute to the dead to console the bereaved and to incorporate mourners individual memories into a larger political discourse Pub description The Statesman's Year-Book J.
