

FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1887 as the State Normal College for Colored Students, Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University (FAMU) is the only historically state supported educational facility for African Americans in Florida. It has always been co-educational. In 1890, the second Morrill Act was passed. This enabled the school to become the Black Land Grant College for the State of Florida. In 1901, the college was moved from its original location west of town to its present location which was once the site of Highwood, Territorial Governor W.F. Duval's slave plantation. The site is one of the highest hills in Tallahassee. The school was known as Florida A&M College from 1909 until 1953, when it attained university status.

On May 4, 1994, the historic Florida A&M University campus was listed in the National Register of Historic Places based on the school's historic significance and the architectural style of buildings. The designation also recognized the national achievements and contributions of FAMU students, alumni, faculty and staff. In a national competition, FAMU was named "College of the Time Magazine's Princeton Review."

Lassiter,2024-11-04 Jesus said in Matthew 16 24 Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me Since the cross was a place of death taking up your cross implied the death not of the person but of the person s desires wants and preferences But the tension between our desires wants and preferences often challenges our daily walk with Christ The Apostle Paul said in 2 Timothy 3 16 17 that All Scripture is God breathed and is useful for teaching rebuking correcting and training in righteousness so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work In other words the Bible has an answer for every challenge This book explores what the Bible provides as teaching rebuking correcting and training to address many of the more common challenges faced by Christians The concluding chapters focus on the understanding that God will give us the strength and the wisdom to know that he works all things for
