Juggling From Start To Star:

Juggling Dave Finnigan,Dorothy Finnigan,Ben Finnigan,2002 A book on juggling that is comprehensive and clear understandable for beginners yet challenging for experienced jugglers The authors present a wide array of techniques from scarves to three ball to clubs and plates they have taught to over a million people 242 illustrations New York Star ,1926

Disney Star Scandals Ethan Parker,Al,2025-02-24 Disney Star Scandals investigates the often turbulent lives of Disney Channel stars revealing the pressures and personal struggles behind their polished public images The book explores how the intense demands of child stardom coupled with constant media scrutiny can lead to rebellion and crises as these young performers seek to define their identities outside the Disney machine One intriguing aspect is the examination of how the media sensationalizes these personal struggles contributing to a cycle of fame and infamy The book traces the evolution of the Disney Channel and examines the psychological effects of early fame on child actors It argues that the seemingly glamorous Disney star experience can create a perfect storm of pressure and identity crisis Beginning with the construction of the Disney Star persona the book progresses through the early careers of prominent stars detailing the challenges they face while balancing personal lives and professional obligations and culminates in an analysis of their post Disney lives
